IN DEEP DESPAIR.

A Montrealer Relates His Wonder ful Experience.

We Bad Tried Foreign and Local Physi cluns and was Operated Upon Without Success—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Cured When All Other Medicines Failed.

From the Montreal Herald. Instances of marvellous cures by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are numerous, but the one related below is of special interest, owing to the peculiarity of the illness, and also us the fact that in the neurotheration wall of the illness, and also us the fact that in the present instances the geutleman is well known in Montreal. Mr. Charles Frank. inspector of the mechanical department of the Bell Telephone Co., at 371 Aqueduct street, and who resides at 54 Argyle Ave., is an interview with a Heraid reporter, re-lated the following wonderful cure by the use of Pink Pills. Mr. Frank, who is 25 yeers of age, is a Russian by birth, ex-ceedingly intelligent, speaks several lan-guages fluently, and is now apparently in good health. "My illness came about m a peculiar way," said Mr. Frank. "Up to three years ago I was in the best of health. About that time while in Glas-gow, Scotland, where I was employed as sf health. About that time while in Glas-gow, Scotland, where I was employed as a clerk in a hotel, and while sculling on the Clyde, a storm came up, and I had a pretty rough time of it for a while. I evidently must have injured myself internally, although I felt nothing wrong at the time. On my way home, however, I fell helpless on the street and had to be conveyed home is a cab as my loce wors wither by the loce of the street and had to be conveyed home. is a cab, as my legs were utterly unable to held me up. I was confined to bed for several days in the same helpless condition, when I rallied, but found that my urine was of a strange reddish hue. I called in

I was averse to doing this, and he advised me then to try a change of climate, telling me that my blaider was affected. I acted on his sugges-tion as to change and came to Montreal. I did not do anything for about a year as I wished to get cured. All this time my urine was tainted with blood, although I was furfiring no pain, but this abnormal condi-tion was a source of continual anxiety. I finally went to the General Hospital, where the physician in charge advised me to stay, which I did. After remaining there for five weeks with no benefit, a consultation of physicians was held and an operation suggested, to which I this time sgreed. After the operation was performed I was no better, my condition remaining abso-hutely unchanged. From this out I was continually trying medicines and physicians but derived no benefit from anything or anyone. I was in despair, as the physicians who had operated on me could not decide so to my trouble. I visited the hospital ence more, and they said they would oper-ate again; but I did not care to undergo a second and perhaps equally unsuccessful operation. Some physicians thought my trouble was consumption of the bladder, ethers that it was Bright's disease, but anothing could cure that strange bloody condition of my urine. But I was in a state of constant anxiety, as I felt myself getting weaker all the time, and was listless and sleepy and weak in the legs. I was also pale and ill-looking, no doubt owing to the loss of blood. From a naturally cheerful man I became morose, and gave up all hopes of ultimate recovery. One Saturday, some months ago, while

Outdoor Work Preferred.

Some years ago a young Irishman was hunting for work among the farmers of a Western town at harvest-time. He made his application to a benevolent-looking farmer who was attracted by the young man's frank, merry face, but was not really in need of extra help. Quite Proper.

A young farmer from the upper ward of Lanarkshire, who became a benedict recent-ly, took his spouse to a Glasgow theatre

I see, said the bridegroom, consulting one of the large posters displayed outside the theatre before entering, that there's a guid wheen different kind o' seats. There's guid wheen dhierent sind o seats. Ineres pit and stalls and dress circle and family circle and gallery. Which one should we has, Maggie? Weel, Jamie, replied the buxom bride, with a becoming blush, seein' that we're mairrit noo, maybe it wad be mair proper to sit in the faim'ly circle.

Figuring It Out.

Father, said the small boy, a man that drinks whiskey to excess is a chump, isn't he?

Yes-only itisn't very nice to use slang, Well, if he drinks whiskey till he gets a blossom on his nose ?--

What of it. Then he's a blooming chump, isn't he?
