FRIDAY, OCTOBER 28, 1881.

TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Next Monday evening will be All-hal-low-e'en. The cabbage gardener should post this item in his list.

Have you a loaf of your bread at H. D. Murray's?

Mr. B. B. Savary, auctioneer, who for the past fortnight, has been confined to his house through a severe cold, is able to be about again.

It is a loaf—the cheapest and best bread in town—at H. D. Murray's bakery.

Business is brisk in town. Muddy roads do not appear to keep the farmer from coming to town with his produce when good prices are ruling.

Gents for your shirts, Collars, Cuffs and a stylish Hat go to the Glasgow House.

An unusually large number of our townpeople are in Stratford this week attending the Assize Court. Several cases of local interest are included in the list of civil suits.

The very latest designs in Glassware, (very fancy) at D. W. Palmer & Co's. Call and see them. No trouble to show goods.

Stratford is ambitious. She wants water works; she also wants to be a city. Her ambition, however, is not shared by the Times' Brutus, who slays her civic aspirations with ridicule.

For a good suit of clothes either ready made or at prices to astonish you go to the Glasgow House.

Mr. Joseph Saxon has sold his brick residence and lots on Inkerman street to Mrs. Palmer, widow of the late Henry Palmer, of Elma. Mr. Saxon's purpose relating to Gorrie.

For a beautiful pair of Ladies Kid Boots and Slippers or Goat Boots go to the Glasgow House.

An agent is in town taking orders for the Peerless Clothes Dryer. From the simple looking machine could be made its inventor had studied domestic economy to dot. It commands title to every housewife.

FRUIT JARS. Call and see them before buying elsewhere. See ad. 2c.

Evening service.—An entertainment in connection with Christ Church Sunday School will be given in the Church on Tuesday evening, 8th Nov. The children of the school are preparing an interesting programme.

Butter, Eggs, Apples and potatoes taken in exchange for Groceries at D. W. Palmer & Co's.

A Good act is being performed by the town authorities in having Wallace and Main streets cleaned. The late rains have rendered these thoroughfares anything but inviting, and scraping was much needed.

D. W. Palmer & Co. keep in stock the best Tea in town. We defy any to beat it. Try it and be convinced.

"I remember," said Brewer, "I remember two young men who used to board at my house—they are both dead now." The crowd broke into a meaning smile, and Brewer wondered why they didn't wait for the funny part of the story to come.

Don't forget the Toronto Tea Store when in town, for cheap Tea; good value for the money.

A. A. E.—At the meeting of the Ancient Order of Foresters in Toronto this week a subsidiary High Court for Canada has been formed. High Court officers have been elected, and the business of drafting a constitution and by-laws is being proceeded with.

H. D. Murray sells his bread at 10c a loaf, notwithstanding the late rise in the price of flour, and he continues to take the lead for excellent bread.

SOCIAL ASSEMBLY.—The Listowel branch of the Young Men's Protestant Benevolent Association (Lodge O. Y. B.) is holding a social assembly in the Osborne hall on Friday evening next, the eve of Gunpowder Plot anniversary.

D. W. Palmer & Co. keep constantly on hand the largest and best selected stock of the choicest Liquors in town.

The man who tried to explain away his chicken stealing experience by saying that he was a member of the Humane society and it was his duty to try out the overworked henpicks for the sake of giving them better ventilation, had his board paid for 90 days by an appreciative community. Soberly's talents need go to seed in this country.

If you want to be happy and enjoy the comforts of this life, you had better call at GARDINER BROS. Main Street, Osborne's Block, and purchase a Piano or Organ.

THANKSGIVING day passed off very quietly in town. Services were held in Knox Church in the morning and in the evening in the Canada Methodist Church. A considerable portion of the community indulged in a highly entertaining and powdery was wasted, and some "game" was bagged. Mr. J. Roth was captain of the winning side.

G. T., G. B. & L. E. Ry.—At a meeting of the shareholders of the Grand Trunk, Georgian Bay & Lake Erie Company held at Stratford, the following gentlemen were appointed directors:—Col. D. Tisdale, Simon, Gilbert Moore, Norrich, Henry Parker and T. J. Clarke. Woodstock; S. S. Fuller, Stratford; J. McMullen, Mt. Forest; Geo. Jackson, M. P., Durham. At a subsequent meeting Col. Tisdale was appointed President, and Mr. S. S. Fuller Vice-President.

BURGlar CAPTURED.—Upon returning from a professional call about 3 o'clock on Thursday morning of last week, Dr. Dingman discovered a burglar in his house. He immediately seized the fellow and held him till the assistance of some of his neighbors was procured, when Mr. burglar was marched to the lock up. The fellow was of the genus tramp. He gave his name as William Martin, and professed to hail from Michigan. He had gained entrance to the Dr's residence by forcing a cellar window; but evidently nabbed before he had time to appropriate anything, as nothing was found upon him. He was brought before L. Bolton, J. P., who committed him to trial. Constable Woods took him to Stratford Thursday evening.

PERMITS MODEL SCHOOL.—The professional examination of the Model School was held last Friday and Saturday in the Stratford High School buildings. Howe, 324; John Mackey, 295. The Board decided to renew their certificates for one year, the holders having passed the intermediate examination.—Times.

Tag "Black List"—At Osgeoda Hall, on Tuesday, Mr. Justice Oiler delivered judgment on the demurrer in Roberts v. Clinie, the demurrer being allowed. This involves a new and important question. The facts were these. The License Commissioners of the North Riding of the Parish issued a list, copies of which were sent to all the tavern-keepers in the riding, with instructions not to sell liquor to any whose names were on the list, because they were habitual drunkards. The plaintiff in the above case took exception to being thus publicly proclaimed an habitual drunkard, and entered an action against the License Inspector for defamation of character. The defence set up was that the statute empowered the Commissioners to issue such instructions. His Lordship thought that the plaintiff was taken under the Act to any member of the family of a man who drank to excess to prohibit the tavern keeper selling liquor to him did not empower License Commissioners to act in a similar manner and publicly proclaim a man to be a drunkard throughout his country. The Commission might properly have passed a resolution requesting the tavern keeper's attention to the clause of the Act above referred to, but the resolution passed by the Commission in respect to the list of alleged drunkards was, in his opinion, altogether outside of their power, and the resolution was therefore void and the defence could not be allowed.

ESTHER OWEN FLINT.—Court Royal Oak, Canadian Order Foresters, of this town, has made arrangements with this town's talented lady to give one of her dramatic and dialect recitals in the Osborne hall on Wednesday evening next, 2nd prox. The many flattering testimonials which Mrs. Flint has received from the Canadian and American press lead us to anticipate for our citizens a literary entertainment of no mean excellence. Mrs. Flint's recent appearance in Mount Forest, the Confederate says: "Those who attended the entertainment in the town hall Wednesday evening last, were well repaid. Mrs. Flint is an eloquent list of rare talent. Our space forbids us commenting on the several pieces endorsed by her, and we must therefore be content with saying that each was given with all the effect imaginable. This lady's impersonation is grand, and her facial expressions most wonderful; she can change from the grave to the gay in a moment. We cannot too highly commend her, and should she ever visit this town again, and we hope she may, a bumper house will greet her." Mrs. Flint's selections for Wednesday evening next are sufficient to carry her to the top for an exhibition of her dramatic powers in the various phases in which she is said to excel. The Foresters have also engaged Prof. Hollander's string band for the occasion; in addition to which a limited number of vocal selections will be rendered by Miss Wilson and Mr. B. Coe. The entertainment promises to be unusually attractive, and we trust that the management will be repaid for their enterprise by a well filled hall.

The entertainment given in the town hall on Wednesday evening of last week by Messrs. Less Bros. and their employees was a very successful affair. The hall was tastefully decorated, and nothing was left undone that would tend to make the gathering enjoyable. Addresses were delivered by Dr. Philip (who acted as chairman and filled the position with his accustomed ability), and by Geo. and Wm. Hess. The remarks of Messrs. Hess were especially interesting, as these gentlemen gave a brief history of the development of their business, which began in a small workshop, in an upper part of a humble building, and has gone on extending until today this enterprising firm numbers on its pay roll 125 hands and disburses nearly one thousand dollars a week in wages. With a business reputation established, and with orders coming in faster than they can be filled by the large number of hands already employed, the future of Listowel's chief industry, under a policy that will preserve the markets of the Dominion from spoliation by the foreigner, is destined to be even more progressive than it has been in the past. The addresses were interspersed with excellent vocal music by Messrs. Cameron, Bricker, and others. At the conclusion of the entertainment an adjournment was made to the fire hall, where a splendid spread was in waiting. The employees and their ladies subsequently spent a few happy hours in the enjoyment of the merry dance.
