It is Why a Blood-Tonic Will Make the Well and Keep It So

Blood is the vital principle upon which the tissues of the body go practically to every body, carrying nourishment, oxygen, taking up the waste products of the body, and changing them so that they are not harmful. As our blood is the breaking down of the tissues and the carrying of the waste products, the body is in a state of change. To maintain strength and life, the blood must be pure and full of materials, the body is in a state of change. ## Odd Effect of New Taxes in England— Nearly Ready for the Lords

LONDON, Nov. 1.—After a debate occupying seventy days the House of Commons has completed the report of the Finance Bill embodying the provisions of the budget. The measure is now virtually ready to go to the House of Lords. There remains nothing but the formal third reading of the bill by the House of Commons. Austen Chamberlain will move its rejection and probably three days will be occupied in debating the motion.

INVITATIONS SAY SO Heavy Fines For Breaking Rule—Political Tutors Engaged

LONDON, Oct. 24.—For five months nothing has been discussed in London but politics. It is the all-absorbing topic, but at last it is to be banned. American society leaders have put their feet down and declared that if any man, woman or child dares to say the word "budget" there will be trouble. Mrs. Lulu Harcourt has been the first to insist that her jaded "Lulu" shall have a respite from this topic. She has written to friends, "Remember me to all your friends and say that you must get away from the House of Commons exists. Anyone who is caught saying 'budget' will have to pay a fine to every woman among his guests."

AGRESS ELOPES WITH SALVATION ARMY MAN

Lieutenant in Religious Corps Struck Off the Books for Love Affairs

BERLIN, Nov. 1.—The German music publisher, Herr Simon, the father of the actress, Mme. Hedwig Wangel, whose recent flight from the stage attracted so much attention, has left Berlin, accompanied by a police officer, to remain in the hands of the influence of a lieutenant of the Salvation Army named Carl Hess. Mme. Wangel, who abandoned the stage ostensibly to devote herself to a life of religious abstinence, has eloped with Carl Hess, who was present at the meeting at Frankfurt-on-Main where Mme. Wangel declared her adherence to the Salvation Army. An immediate aftermath he accompanied the actress back to Berlin. Carl Hess is now accused of having caused Mme. Wangel to abandon the stage and to desert her husband, the musician Herr Starnack. Hess, who is 25 years of age, was formerly a photographer and joined the Salvation Army in 1907. Soon afterwards he was struck off the list of members of the army owing to a love affair. A few months later Hess was again admitted to the Salvation Army as an officer. When the Wangel affair occurred the chief of the Salvation Army in Germany ordered Hess to break off his association with the actress. He promised to do so, but a few days later he was again struck off the list of members of the army, ostensibly to visit his parents, but really to travel with Mme. Wangel to the Ergebirge. Hess was subsequently struck out of the list of the Salvation Army a second time.

MANY SPEAKERS Work of the Y Department Explained

The service last evening in Centenary Church in connection with the W. C. T. U. convention was in charge of the "Y" department. Mrs. Waycott, the Dominion secretary, presided and with her on the platform were the speakers of the evening, Rev. Messrs. Robinson and Mr. Anthony, Mrs. Frances Swathwaite, Miss Beatrice Earle, the local secretary, Mr. McGowan, the evangelistic secretary, and four of five visiting ladies of the "Y" department. Readings were given by Mrs. Burnham and Mrs. E. A. Smith, entitled the "Deacon's Match," and the "Bridal Wine Glass," respectively. Two hours of prayer, singing, and hymns, and a very interesting address by Mrs. Waycott on the work of the Y department. She said many a great effort had been defeated by lack of knowledge. This was the object of the department to train and educate young women for the great struggle against the liquor traffic. So long as people live there will be a necessity for temperance legislation. Whether it is morally right or not the history of nations shows it is in their best interests. She strongly advocated the necessity of having gentlemen associated with the women in their work, as the problem cannot be worked out without their assistance.

Walks Out While A'nders are Absorbed In Speech—The Power of Oratory

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Nov. 1.—A strong illustration of the power of oratory was given yesterday afternoon in the criminal court here, when a lawyer named Moseley Mason, who was charged with the murder of a woman, made a touching appeal for a prisoner named Moseley Mason, who was charged with the murder of a woman. The lawyer spoke of the poverty and suffering of the prisoner in such eloquent terms that the judge, jury, and court officers were so affected that they became thoroughly absorbed in his speech, and tears were freely shed. Attention of every one in the courtroom was so riveted on the lawyer's address that he took his hat and quietly walked out of the room without any one seeing him. He made his escape at a rapid pace, and was seen to enter a cab and be driven off in the direction of the city. To believe that anything even Sir Thomas Lipton could do in such a way in the country in the midst of oratory, still have the artificial commodity sent to the court, and was so affected that he became thoroughly absorbed in his speech, and tears were freely shed.

STRENGTH FREE TO MEN

How To Regain It Without Cost Until Cured

Strength of body—strength of mind. Who would not possess it if he could? It is nature's greatest gift—our most valuable possession. Without this strength, life is a failure, with it everything is possible. Almost every man was made strong, but few have been taught how to preserve this strength. Many, through ignorance, have wasted it recklessly or used it up excessively, leaving the body exhausted, the nerves shaky, the eyes dull, and the mind slow to act. There are thousands of these weak, puny, broken-down men dragging on from day to day who might be as strong and vigorous as ever were if they would only turn to the right source. Electricity cures these weaknesses. It gives you back the very element you have lost. It puts new life into the veins and renews the vigor of youth. For 40 years I have been curing men, and so certain am I now of what my method will do that I will give to any man who needs it my wonderful "ELECTRIC BELT AND GUSSETED PANTS FREE UNTIL CURED." You pay nothing down, you deposit nothing, you risk nothing; but upon request I will furnish you with the Belt to use, and if it cures, you pay me my price. If you are not cured or satisfied, return the Belt to me and I will refund you the full amount. As I am the originator of this method of treatment and have made it a great success, there are many imitations of my Belt; but my great knowledge, based on 40 years' experience, is mine alone. My advice is given free with the Belt.

Tame at Bermondsley, They Invade Cabinet Party—Lady McLaren Horrified by Invasion

LONDON, Nov. 1.—Election day in Bermondsley might naturally have been expected to witness the militant suffragettes working at their highest pitch. As a matter of fact, although the eyes of the whole United Kingdom were directed on Bermondsley last Thursday, the suffragettes were little in evidence. They had a couple of committees in the morning, when with a black, sticky, alkaline mixture two of them managed to make two ballot papers illegible and endangered the slight of a polling clerk's right eye, may have satisfied or perhaps alarmed them into quietude. Anywhere for the rest of the day they were unobtrusive. # MESSAGE OF CUBAN PRESIDENT OPTIMISTIC

The Kind-hearted woman was very solicitous about a certain mule belonging to Prastus Pinkley. The mule had a bad and heavy appearance and never looked more dejected than when its proprietor brought it up with a flourish at the front gate, says a writer in The Washington Star.

According to the message the condition of the country is considered satisfactory when compared with its condition at the beginning of the present government. The last eight months have the greatest success in overthrowing the liquor traffic. A good, virtuous young woman if she possesses a strong character has a greater influence than any voter in the Dominion of Canada. He described the great fight in the city of Chicago against the liquor traffic in which was attained was largely due to the influence of the W. C. T. U. He said the work of the Y was to go to the homes where prostitution is not taught and teach and educate the children and develop a life that will be an honor to the Dominion of Canada. The temperance people have more fear from the apathy of people than it has from the saloon. Tomorrow afternoon Mrs. Delmar will play a violin solo.
