FIRM GRIP ON BRITISH ACCOUNT GAINED BY BRITISH FORCES

Brilliantly Executed Operation by Gen.
Haig's Men, Carried out on an Eight Mile Front, Gains Greater Part of That Town as Well as Western Sections of Roex

London, May 13.—Concentrated on a front of ten or eight miles the British troops during Friday night and Saturday morning made a brilliant attack on the Hindenburg line from Bullecourt north across the Arras-Cambrai road to the north of the Scarpe east of Fampoux. The troops established themselves in Bullecourt, where hundreds of prisoners were taken; and continuing the offensive on Sunday after desperate fighting possessed themselves of most of the village. A German position on the Arras-Cambrai road, about two-thirds of a mile wide, as well as a mile and a half of trench system near Roex have been taken, and the British occupy the western section of Roex.

It is evident there is not much left of the famous Hindenburg line which was broken at Vimy, broken at Vendhuile, on the Cambrai-St. Quentin Canal, broken by the French between La Fere and St. Quentin, and lastly, broken at Bullecourt. What there is left, however, is of wonderfully strong construction and could not be taken at once in a general assault, except at such a terrible cost of lives that victory would be almost as disastrous as defeat.

Hence General Haig's taking it piecemeal, patiently and deliberately, only after every "push" has been preceded by artillery preparation which has flattened out the Prussian defences and abolished the communicating trenches so that the men in the forward dugouts have often been without food or supplies for two and three days at a time.

Prussian Losses Increase.
Estimates last week regarding the Prussian losses were entirely too low and there have been substantial additions during the last seven days.
They are now stated to be nearer 310,000 of which about 60,000 prisoners have been counted on both fronts, about 200,000 are believed to have been seriously wounded and 60,000 to have been killed in action.

TEN PER CENT OF
BELGIANS SUFFER
Ninety Thousand Lives Taken by Foe, Countless Others in Exile

Montreal, May 14.—In killed, prisoners, and refugees one-tenth of the whole population of Belgium has been sundered from the bosom of the fatherland. Eighty thousand Belgian soldiers lie in untimely graves, alongside 10,000 innocent civilians slain out of sheer wantonness.

Before Germany began to deport the workers of Belgium, she held 45,000 Belgian fighting men prisoners, in addition 30,000 of them were driven across the frontier. In the hurried evacuation of Antwerp, and other cities in Holland, where also are 150,000 Belgian refugees, France shelters 30,000 Belgians, England 250,000.

Commenting on the disruption that this has caused in the family life of the Belgians, and the added misery it entails to a population barely kept from starvation by the Belgian Relief Commission, Mr.
Lemmenier, the well-known Belgian journalist, whose brother succeeded the heroic M. Max as mayor of Brussels, says:

"Our cities have become centres of mourning, and from countless homes the cry of wives and children, torn from those they hold most dear, ascends to God, who will surely hear it. Yet every time the wind carries the sound of the guns into the Belgian villages the people dry in their tears and the feeling that deliverance is not far away frames Ontario from the United States in 1918, which means about 200,000 people. At the low average of five dollars apiece spent, this means that $1,000,000 was left by them in Canada.

The League has just closed its tenth year in existence, with a total membership of 5,635. The club has done much for good roads in Canada and automobile houses with New York, Michigan, and other states, is the result of a campaign started by this society. It has been estimated that 50,000 cars entered Ontario from the United States in
people. At the low average of five
$1,000,000 was left by them in Canada.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills act directly on the blood, making it rich and red, and this enriched blood strengthens weak nerves, stimulates tired muscles, and awakens to normal activity the glands that supply the digestive fluids. The first sign of returning health is an improved appetite, and soon the strength and blood-making pills is evident throughout the whole system. You find that what you eat does not distress you, and that you are able to enjoy vigorous instead of a languid life. You are on the road to sound, good health and care in your diet is all you need. If you have any of the following symptoms, you are

Obituary

MRS. E. KESTER.
The death occurred on Friday evening of Mrs. Elizabeth Kester, widow of the late Brantford, and is survived by two sons Howard B., of Pittsburg, and Blake at home; one daughter, Mrs. Fred F. Buck and one sister, Mrs. A. H. Mellich, Edgerton street, city. The funeral took place this afternoon from her late residence, 32 Park Avenue, to Tranquillity Cemetery. The late Mrs.
Kester was a life long member of Wellington Street Methodist Church and had resided in this city during the whole of her life time.

W. T. AVERY.
The death occurred on Saturday, of William T. Avery, 284 Darling St., in his 84th year. He was a retired farmer and a widower. The remain-will be entered at the New Durham Cemetery tomorrow. Services will be conducted at the house tonight.

BUTCHERS CAME ACROSS.
The difficulty that first confronted Market Clerk A. McCauley at Saturday morning, when for the first time he made his rounds to collect the fees from the butchers stalls was soon removed. The meat dealers, for the most part, at first refused to pay more than the one dollar fee that has been customary up to the present.
Ald. W. J. Bragg, chairman of the board, issued instructions that nothing less than the sale price of the stalls would be accepted and the butchers fell in with this edict.

day in the House; an entirely different form of bill has been introduced in the Senate.

Shipping bills.—The bill to vest legal title to the seized German ships in the government, has passed both Houses, but is in conference for reconciliation of differences; the bill to appropriate $400,000 for a start on the great merchant fleet to overcome the submarine menace has not yet been introduced, and may not be, while plans are being discussed of paying for the ships out of the $7,000,000 loan. The bill to authorize the taking over of shipbuilding facilities or ships building for foreign account, has been introduced, but is yet under consideration.

Espionage bill.—The House in passing the bill retained the new paper censorship section demanded by the Administration, but did not enact an embargo section, which the Administration wants to keep supplies from going to Germany through neutral. The Senate still has its bill under debate retaining such an embargo section, but entirely without a censorship provision. The real enactment of this bill probably will be in conference, where the administration will bring pressure to have both censorship and embargo sections inserted in acceptable terms.

Prohibition.—As an amendment to the espionage bill, the Senate has attached a section prohibiting the manufacture of intoxicating liquors from grain. Various prohibition proposals are pending in the House. The normal strength of the prohibition forces in Congress compled with the rising prices of food, present a likelihood of some action to prevent food stuffs from being manufactured into liquor at least during the war.

Federal reserve law amendments.— The additions to the existing bank law were proposed by the administration to bring more banks into the federal reserve system and by liberalizing the reserve requirements, increase the gold holdings of the system more than $300,000,000. Congress was told the enactment would prepare the federal reserve system for practically any shock it might be called upon to sustain.

In addition to these principal measures there are a few others which have administration sanction and which Congress will be called on to pass before adjournment.
For the present all the pushing influences of the administration are being concentrated to convince Congress it ought to hurry with the army bill the bills to provide ships as the first means of combatting the submarine menace and to enact laws to guard the country against the plish of hunger.

CANADIAN CASUALTIES
Ottawa, May 14.—To-day's casual-
