EVIDENCE WAS HEARD scientific. Court This Morning At Some Length

In the police court at 12.20 this ments. afternoon, Caremllo Cellija was com mitted for trial in the first court of Spain Under competent jurisdiction, upon the charge of murder, in connection with the killing of Gio Batta Bornello. A full hearing was given the case, the prosecution being handled by Crown Attorney S. A. Jones, while A. H. Boddy presented the defence.

Evidence was produced to show that Celleija had been seen in the company of the murdered man on the day the crime i pelieved to have been committed, and later to have been during from West Brant-ford. In Toronto a few days later he s said to have sent the sum of one hundred dollars to his wife in Malta. of the same material as the drawers discovered upon the scene of the crime, while several witnesses testified to having seen the drawers or a similar pair, in Cellija's possess In addition, it was established that

Cellija was aware that Bornello had saved up a large sum of money. Magistrate Livingston, although querying the strength of the case against the prisoner, agreed to commit him for trial by jury at the fall

Paul Bornello, brother of the deceased, gave evidence of his brother's having the sum of $350.00 in his pocket on Sunday night, July 29. Gio Farrugia saw Bornello and Celleja together in Victoria Park about 9 o'clock the following morning, and saw them leave together toward the market. Lawrence Calleya met the . prisoner crossing Lorne bridge toward the main part of the city later the same morning, some time after eleven o'clock. His evidence was corroborated by Charles Lee of West Brantford.

Joseph Camelleri testified to having seen the drawers found upon the scene of the crime, or a similar pair. DESTROYER in the prisoner's room, he boarding

POPE FORMULATES A PEACE PROPOSAL

By Courier Leased Wire.

Rome, Aug. 14.—Peace proposals made by Pope Benedict have been delivered to all the belligerent governments.

The Pope suggests restoration of Belgium, Serbia and Roumania and peaceful solution of the problems of Alsace-Lorraine, Trent, Triest and Poland, according to reports received from Vatican sources. It is expected the proposals will be published today by the Vatican.

Washington, Aug 14—Reduction of armaments, settlement of all international disputes by arbitration, freedom of the seas and no retalistory after-thewar economic struggle for supremacy, are the foundation stones of Pope Benedict's peace proposals.

Washington, Aug. 14. — The State department acknowledges that it has received unofficial knowledge of Pope Benedict's peace proposals before to-day's news despatches were received here. No official cognizance can be taken of it until the proposal is conveyed officially. Whatever consideration is given to it will be after consultation with the allies. with the allies.

At the apostolic delegation all knowledge of the Pope's proposal was disclaimed. It was said the papal delegate had not transmitted it to the United States Government and did not expect to do so. The opinion was expressed that it would come through a neutral government.

Within the Entente diplomatic circle the opinion was freely and promptly expressed that the peace proposal was inspired by Germany and was an attempt to split the allies in a conflicting
