"NONPAREIL"
Billiard Hall!
STARKLY'S BUILDING,
OPP. OFFICERS' BARRACKS, QUEEN ST., FREDERICTON, N. B.
T. E. FOSTER, Proprietor

THIS HALL has been newly fitted up and handsomely furnished, and for room, light, ventilation and neatness, compares favorably with any Billiard Hall in the Dominion. The Billiard and Pool Tables are presented by players to be superior to any now in use in this Province.
They are the BRILLIANT NOVELTY, size, 42 x 29 feet.
The main object in the construction of the Billiard Novelty, and the one most noticeable, is that it embodies all the more salient or most important features that have rendered popular all the other styles of tables of the J. M. Brunswick & Balke Co.'s make. The Billiard Novelty has all the other advantages and good points, including the respective tables obtained by the "Nonpareil" and "Expon-sition," "Novelty," "Acme" and "Amateur." The "Brilliant" is a happy combination of all those celebrated tables, and has rapidly taken the foremost place in the estimation of all players of Billiard and Pool Tables. The "Novelty" is finished and handsomely inlaid in many different colors, made up from California Laurel, Bird Ash, French Walnut, Bird's Eye Maple, Mahogany, Rose Wood, Tulip Wood and Ebony. It is surmounted with the finest of Vermont Slate bed, Simonis Cloth, and a first-class outfit of everything necessary.
—A call is respectfully solicited from lovers of the game.

THE ARCTIC HORROR.

No Doubt About the Cannibalism.

Greeley's Account of the Execution of Private Henry.

In order to settle whether the Greeley survivors had recourse to cannibalism to sustain life, the body of Lieut. Killing-bury was exhumed and an examination made. Following is the report of the physicians:—

We found the body in an iron casket.
On the lid being removed, it was taken from the casket and placed upon a table.
It was packed in cotton batting and encased with cotton cloth, tied with strings.
On removing this, it was found wrapped in a wollen blanket the whole length.
Removing this the body was in view. Its weight approximated, in our opinion, about fifty pounds. On examination of the head no signs of wounds or injuries were visible. The skin was not broken.
The ears and nose were intact. The eyes were sunken and wasted. The hair was thick, and was from five to six inches long. The face was covered with a heavy reddish beard and moustache. The skin and muscles of the interior portion of the face and neck were intact. From the upper portion of the sternum and clavicle the lower border of the fifth rib on the left side the skin and muscles had all been removed down to the ribs; on the right side the skin and muscles down to the lower border of the last rib were gone. There were two openings between the fourth and fifth intercostal spaces into the thoracic cavity. The skin and muscles on the anterior portion of the abdomen were intact to the crest of the ilium or pelvic bones. The muscles and skin of the anterior and posterior of the thighs were entirely removed except the skin on the anterior portion of the knee joints, and the muscles and skin of the left leg were removed to within three inches of the ankle joint. On the right leg the skin and muscles were removed to within five inches of the ankle joint.
Both feet were intact, and the toes all present. There were no vestige of integrum or muscles on either arm, including the muscles of the shoulder blades to the wrist joints, except on the right forearm the interosseous membrane remaining. The flesh and muscles on both hands were intact.

The examination of the posterior portion of the body showed that the skin and muscles of the back from the seventh cervical vertebra had been dissected or cut completely away down to the bones, with the exception of pieces of skin from two to three inches square on each side of the upper portion of the sacrum.
The pelvic bones were completely denuded. All the extremities were attached to the body by ligaments only. No fractures of the body were discovered.
We found all the organs of the thorax and abdomen present. There was evidence of recent inflammation of the stomach and bowels. The large intestines were distended with hardened lumps of fecal matter, in which there was hair, moss or woody fibre. In our opinion, the flesh removed was cut away with some sharp instrument. That remaining on the feet, hands and face, showed no signs of decomposition.

Greeley's Official Report.
The following is Lieut. Greeley's official report of the execution of Private Henry, at Camp Clay, near Cape Sabine:

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 11, 1884.
Adjutant-General United States Army (through Chief Signal Officer United States Army):

Sir: I have the honor to report that on June 6, 1884, at Camp Clay, near Cape Sabine, Grinnell Land, it became necessary for me to order the military execution of Private Charles B. Henry, Fifth Cavalry, for continued thieving. The order was given in writing on my undivided responsibility, being deemed absolutely essential for the safety of the surviving members of the expedition.

Ten had already died of starvation and two more lay at the point of death. The facts inducing my action were as follows: Provisions had been stolen in November, 1883, and Henry's complicity therein was more than suspected. On March 24, 1884, the party nearly perished from asphyxia. While several men were unconscious and efforts were being made for their restoration, Private Henry stole about two pounds of bacon from the mess stores; he was not only seen by the Eskimo, Jans Edwards, but his stomach being overloaded, he threw up the undigested bacon. An open investigation was held, and every member of the party declared him guilty of this and other thefts. A clamor for his life was raised, but was repressed by me. I put him under surveillance until our waning strength rendered his physical services indispenable. Later he was found one day intoxicated, having stolen the liquor on hand for general issue. A second time his life was demanded, but I again spared him. On June 5, theft of provisions on his part having been reported to me, I had a conversation with him, in which I appealed to his practical sense, pointing out that union was necessary to our preservation. He promised entire reformation, but, distrustful him, I issued a written order that he should be shot if detected stealing.

On June 6 he not only stole part of the shrimps for breakfast, but visiting unauthorized our winter camp, stole certain sealskin reserved for food. I then ordered him shot. On his person was found a silver chronograph, abandoned by me at Fort Conger, and stolen by him. In his bag were found a large quantity of sealskin and a pair of sealskin boots stolen a few days before from the hunter. Suspecting complicity on the part of several, I ordered his execution by three of the most reliable men. After his death the order was read to the entire party, and was concurred in by every member as being not only just, but as essential to our safety. To avoid public scandal, I ordered that no man should speak of this matter until an official report was made of the facts.

I have the honor to request that a court of inquiry be ordered, or a court martial convened, should the Hon. Secretary of War deem either advisable in this case.
I have thought it best not to ask the written statements of the surviving members of the party for appendices to this report, lest I might seem to be tampering with them. I have not asked since our rescue, June 23, whether opinions concurring in my action have changed or not, leaving such questions to your action if deemed requisite. I necessarily regret that circumstances imposed such a terrible responsibility upon me, but I am conscious that I should have failed in my duty to the rest of my party had I not acted promptly and summarily. I am respectfully yours.

A. W. GREELEY,
First Lieutenant Fifth Cavalry A. S. O., and Assistant.
Commander of L. F. B. Expedition.

Hospital Abuses.
OTTAWA, Ont., Aug. 15, 1884.—Serious charges have been made against the manager of the Hamilton City Hospital, and interesting disclosures have been made as a result of an investigation now going on. It is stated that in many instances patients who have died in the hospital have been shoved into coffins and buried naked, clothing intended for them being retained by attendants. Patients were obliged to use baths used by those afflicted with skin and contagious diseases.
When nurses believed patients to be dead, the bodies were immediately coffin-ed and shoved into the dead house, without waiting for a physician to pronounce whether life was extinct or not.
It is feared that many of the unfortunate inmates of the hospital have been buried alive.

Cleveland's Calumniator.
The "Rev." Ball, who originated the vile slander on Gov. Cleveland, it has just been learned, used to live down in Gibson county, Ind. A Courier Journal representative who was down at Owensville, interviewed several prominent people, from whom it was learned that a number of years ago this same Ball preached to a small congregation, from whom he filched money under various pretences. He finally became noted over the country as a great liar, and one in whom no trust could be placed. Ball not only became noted as a liar, but one who imbibed very frequently a little too much bad whiskey for a preacher. He was finally expelled from the church, and he left the country. He is so well known down in Gibson county that Republicans as well as Democrats brand him as one of the monster frauds of the county. These facts are authentic and can be verified at any time.

Mrs. Langtry, who arrived on the Arizona Sunday, has remained in London during the week, completing her preparations for a provincial tour, beginning at Newcastle on Monday, including Glasgow, Edinburgh, Manchester, Liverpool and other cities, ending in Birmingham in the middle of November. She regrets that she will probably be obliged to postpone her intended return to America until January.
Respecting several large proposals from London managers, she has about resolved to take theatre in London, and to play with her own company during a season of four months, producing the plays which met with the greatest success in America.
She reports that her recent American tour yielded even more brilliant results than her first tour. She acknowledges the kindness of her American audience, and agrees with Mr. Irving that the American public is equally intelligent, critical and amiable.
