Never Mind What "They" Say.

Don't worry nor fret
About what people think.
Of your ways or your means—
Of your food or your drink.
If you know you are doing
Your best every day,
With the right on your side,
Never mind what "they" say.

Lay out in the morning
Your plans for each hour.
And never forget
That old time is a power.
This also remember
"Mong truths old and new—
The world is to buy
To think much of you."

Then gather the minutes
That make up the hours.
And pick in your pilgrimage
Honor's bright flowers.
Should grumblers assure you
Your course will not pay,
With conscience at bay,
Never mind what "they" say.

Then let us, forgetting
The things of this world,
That justles us daily
While marching along,
Press onward and upward.
And make no delay—
And though people talk,
Never mind what "they" say.—Ez.

THE NEW COOK.

"What's that, Emma?"
"Don't forget to go to the registry office and send me up a cook."
"I don't know what you mean," said the old one, "but I don't care. I'll send you a good, smart cook, Emma." Mr. Thomas Maye disappeared with a reassuring grin, and I guess I'll send you a good, smart cook, Emma."
