The girls of the Crescent Heights club met on Monday afternoon in the assembly hall for their regular semi-monthly meeting, followed by a bean supper. One of the girls read the "Echo." Mr. Clipperton gave several vocal selections and the club members gave several choruses.

Dr. Cringan, house surgeon of the general hospital, gave a particularly interesting address, impressing upon the students the necessity of passing their matriculation examinations and advised them to forego some of the every-day pleasures that they might fit themselves better for a successful and happy future.

St. Patrick's day is Irishmen's day the world over, and wherever two or three are banded together, whether on western Irish soil or in distant cities foreign shores, they stanne their hearts to the sprightly "H" of "St. Patrick's Day in the Morning," and joy their minds flash back like sunbeams in showers to "suffering Ireland."

The very name Ireland stirs the deepest fountains of sympathy in all good natures. Who is there that has not shared the feelings of the poet when he wrote:

"The stranger shall hear the lament of his plains;
The sigh of the harp shall be sent o'er the deep,
Till the tyrants themselves as they rivet the chains
Shall pause o'er the captives and silently weep."

The St. Patrick's concert on Monday, March 19, the advertisement of which appears elsewhere in this paper, has a very select and inspiring program. It will give the concert lovers of the city something novel in its typically Irish atmosphere of mingled joys and sorrows, of laughter and sighs, of sunbeams in showers.

United Ireland will be there. An Irish Catholic mayor will preside as chairman and an Irish Protestant orator will tell the story of Irish heroes in the present war. He will relate how the intrepid sons of Erin charged their country's foe with the gaiety and dash of true Irishmen. See them at Courculet in their gallant charge on the German first line trenches, dribbling a football to the very parapet and their holding out their lit cigars at arm's length to show by their steady hands that Irish nerves are strong.

This gem of oratory will be fittingly set by Irish artists in a splendid corona of Irish songs, dances and melodies. The old favorites of your childhood will be rendered by the new favorites of the concert hall, Mrs. Florence Blake Mahony, Miss Burns, Messrs. Horace Reynolds, J. R. Hall, the Misses Rankin, Sweet, McKinnon. The harp and violin will be a feature of the entertainment.

were found to be 5,353. Mrs. McGuire's guess was in the neighborhood of 5,250.

As a result of this effort, $87 has been raised by the Calgary Nurses' association for comforts for the men at the Military hospital.

The association wishes to express thanks to Mr. Parker for his kindness in allowing the contest to be held at Hudson's Bay.

An interesting event took place at Connaught school on Friday last at the commencement of the regular monthly meeting of the Mothers' club, where the sports trophies were presented to the winning teams of the school.

A pennant was presented by Dr. Kerby to the junior girls' basketball team.

A pennant from the school board to the "A" soccer team, was presented by Miss Foote.

A shield from Mr. J. T. Macdonald to the "D" soccer team, in his absence was presented by Mr. Davidson and the Bayne shield was presented by Mr. Sharpe to the "D" hockey team. A shield was also presented to the "B" hockey team by Mr. Nimmo.

The Herald cup was presented to the Connaught football team by Mr. J. H. Woods.

Nothing is so wonderful as the shields and Herald cup to the winning teams of the school, Mr. Frank Stavert, of the Vacant Lots Garden club, addressed the Mothers' club and the children of the school on "The Child and the Garden."

Under present world conditions, with the high cost of living ever climbing upward, every man, woman and child is urged to become a producer and Mrs. Stavert sought to interest the boys and girls in cultivating garden plots, thus learning the fundamental principles of agriculture.

The newest in dress goods, silks, sport goods, collars and neckties. A profusion of greenery, palms and flowers makes one feel almost like being in fairyland.

But the floor most dear to the feminine heart is the second floor, which is exclusively a ladies' salon; here are displayed wonder creations by Premet, Paquin and Bernard; those suits are in beautiful new shades such as Kelly green, American car, shadow-lawn green, old gold, Chantreuse, silver grey, minuet and tapestry blue.

One has almost decided on a suit being "just what she wants" when a bevy of loveliness meets the eye. This is a display of beautiful gowns including French models by Collet, Georgette, Drecol, Doucet and Jenny.

The death of the Duchess of Connaught which came over the wire first of the week, was a sad blow to many Calgarians and especially so to those who were fortunate enough to be numbered among her acquaintances.

Lady Loughheed, who has had the honor of entertaining her ladyship many times while visiting in Calgary, was particularly grieved over the announcement.

Then go downstairs to The Plaza.

Announcement is made this week that the well known pleasure palace of Calgary, the Cabaret Garden, has changed its name. It will hereafter be called The Plaza.

This change was made, after the management had received many requests to do so. It seemed as though the public wished to eliminate the word "Cabaret" from the place, owing to the many uncomplimentary remarks which have been made about this line of business during the past few months.

To change the name to "The Plaza" will no doubt meet the approval of all. The changing of the name, however, will have nothing to do with changing the usual line of entertainment, which will continue just the same.

It would be very hard to improve the line of music and singing which is rendered every night by the Morgan Brothers quartette. These men have given universal satisfaction ever since they arrived here from Chicago, and it is hoped that the management will endeavor to retain them for an indefinite period.

The Plaza has become a very popular place for banquets, as many as four being held there in a single day. No doubt people will like to say that they are holding their function at "The Plaza," instead of the Cabaret, for while nothing has yet been proven against any cabaret, as entertaining in an immoral place of amusement, it will, however, sound much better to some few people.
