Teronto, Nov. 7.—Secretary W. B. Hendry, of the Interprovincial Union, stated last night that in the event of Bill Grant, of the Argonauts, acepting the position of physical instructor in connection with the Garrison A. A. he would most decidedly not be allowed to take part in the games played under the jurisdiction of the union. Dr. Hendry also said that one of the first objects of the organization is to have Simon Pure football, and that they will keep it amateur at any and every cost. In regard to Ernie Russell, Dr. Hendry says that the Montreal player has resigned the captaincy of the Wanderers, despite reports to the contrary.

After the forthcoming meet of the Garsicon Athletic Association, "Soldier Bill' Grant, who plays inside wing for Argonaut senior Rugby team, will resign his position as secretary of the G. A. A. As this is a semi-final game is means a lot to the winner, and the play will no doubt be fast and hard from the start. The Tigers' back division is in great shape, and their punting and catching would be useful just now to the senior team. This will be the Cubs' last appearance here, and there will be a big crowd, as the college team have aroused a good deal of interest by their wonderful scores. Just what the Cubs can do when they are extended to the full will likely be settled on Saturday, when they will have what will be the first real hard game of the season for them.

MONTREAL IN BAD SHAPE.

Montreal, Nov. 7.—A few weeks ago, then Montreal defeated Ottawasin Ottawa, it looked as if the game which would end the inter-provincial schedule, so far as Montreal is concerned, would be a very ordinary affair. The unexpected results of the last few games; the fact that Ottawa will go on the field with the strongest team that has represented them this year, and that Montreal is a virtually crippled fourteen, have combined to make the game an even more important one than the famous meeting with the Tigers of Hamilton. good as lost.

The Montreal team is really in a bad way, and the executive is having an anxious time of it. No less than five players are on the sick list. Kelly yesterday morning did nothing more than a little reuning about; Lessor has an injured ankle; Captain Craig is again bothered by his leg; Gordon had his neck hurt in both the Hamilton and the Argonaut games, and Reynolds is nursing a lame leg, and Molson an ankle. It is very doubtful whether Kelly will be able to hold the line at a critical point and also carry the ball. If he plays, it is a question how long he will be able to last. The others will probably be able to play, but it is proving a serious draw. good as lost.

SKETCH OF NELSON.

The Dundas Banner this week has the following sketch of the captain of the Dundas football team:

Gordon L. Nelson, second son of D. W. Nelson, captain of the Rugby hosts and hero of a hundred fights, belongs to the famous fighting clan of Nelsons, one of whom made himself famous by looking through the wrong end of his telescope some years ago in the old world. This member of the family, Horatio, founded the Rugby game some time ago and was the first man to "buck the line" at Tratafigar. While in charge of a British vessel h: originated what is now known as "off side interference" and went over the falgar. other fellows' lines for several trys, all of which he converted into victories. The game has been popular ever since.

Capt. Nelson was born in Dündas, and like some other famous persons is a graduate of the Banner office. A half Nehon intens a player about half as good as our Nelson. A crack Rugby half-back and has played with Dinuas and Tigera. Played Association on champion Scots of Toronto and represented Hamilton on the picked tean against the Corinthians of England last year. Always kicking except when asleep which is very seldom, if at all. Is one of the best indoor bowlers in Hamilton and has won several prizes. When not playing games takes keen interest in lesor matters, and is the youthful but able president of the Trades and Labor Council of Hamilton. During his leisure mements assists in keeping the Spectator going, and seeks relief from the effects of Spec. editorials in outdoor sports. Is morried and father of a coming football player. Said by some to be the author of the classic quotation:

"To buck or not to buck, that is the question, etc., etc."

"All such talk as that is worse than rot. I do not care to drink. I take an occasional smile with fellows I like, just to be sociable, but that lets me out. I go weeks and weeks without taking a drop. I left the fight ring because there was nothing in it for me. I whipped all the good men and I did not care to fool the public by taking on easy game, so I quit. I never boxed a man I did not believe the public wanted to see pitted against me. It was not mine to give. I could retain it, but I had no right to give it away. I feel just as good as I ever did, but until some foreigner comes along I will not fight again. This is final."

About the Suspension of Longboat by the C. F.

Toronto, Nov. 7.—The ridiculous side of the proceeding in Montreal the other day when Longboat was "suspended" by the representatives of three professional lacrosse and hockey clubs is the richest thing in connection with sport that has occurred in this country in many a day. This is what happened, according to a Montreal paper;

"The Canadian Federation met this afternoon at the St. Lawrence Hall and the delegates present—Meesrs. V. C. Buchanan, M. A. A. A.; Ald. Thomas O'. Connell, Shamrock A. A. A.; J. A. Mercier, National A. A. A., H. A. Spriggins, secretary, unanimously decided to suspend Longboat."

Can you beat that for a childish and ridiculous attempt to injure the road race that is to be run in Montreal on Saturday under the sanction of the Candian Amateur Athletic Tonion, and from which members of the Shamrock, Montreal and National Clubs are debarred, because they are professional lacross and hockey organizations?

Here is another story from Montreal last night:

Here is another story from Montreal last night:

Montreal, Nov. 6.—The executive of the Amateur Athletic Federation of Canda, at a meeting held in the Windsor Hotel last night, ratified the course taken by the representatives of the Montreal Athletic Association the day before yesterday, amely, to refuse to sanction the road race advertised to take place here Saturday, and place under the bana all runners who compete. The prime cause for the refusal by the Federation to sanction Saturday's race is the fact that Longboat and Coley, of the Irish-Canadian Athletic Club of Toronto, will compete. These two men are under suspension by the American Amateur Athletic Club, holding the shall be consisted of a few professional lanckey and lacrose clubs in that neighborhiced, was specifically debarred from having anything to do with the race, and could not sanction anything. The race is run under the sanction of the C. A. S. Any claim for the "Amateur Athletic federation" as a governing amateur bedy is nothing more nor less than an impudent imposture.
