Protestant & Evangelical Witness.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 21, 1860.

THE LATE BISHOP MACDONALD.

The Minister of the 10th St. contains a somewhat full notice of this deceased Prelate. From it we learn that he was born in the Parish of St. Andrew's, in this Island, and obtained the rudiments of an English education in his native district.

out every enlightened man and true Christian, we owe to our race a loan to enlighten what would require to be repaired in the estimation of a large and intelligent class in the community.

The Mourner at Abel-Miriam.

In the report of the Rev. A. Macdonald's sermon at the funeral of the late Roman Catholic Bishop, the Evangelist has suppressed, or perhaps expressed by some significant terms, the deliberate and uncalculated insult to those Protestants who, through respect and esteem for the departed prelate, followed his remains to the grave.

Cause of Temperance in Canada West.

Mr. Editor.—As many of your readers are members of the Order of Sons of Temperance, with whom I had the pleasure of meeting when in your delightful island, for your information, and the information of all friends of Truth and Temperance, I wish to say something of the progress of the Cause of Temperance in this Province.

The G. W. P. congratulated the Grand Division of Canada West upon its relative position in the National Convention, and the fact that there were, at last report, 41 Grand Divisions, numbered 1,255, and 24 sub-Divisions. Average number of subordinate Divisions to each Grand Division, 41. Canada West stands first on the list, and numbers 10,479. During the last six months there were admitted to those 877 members.

In addition to the 8. of T. we have the good Templars doing a grand work in many parts of the Province, and having upwards of 200 Lodges or Temples. They are also numerous Bands of Hope, and Temperance Societies on the old Pledge system. We find the Clergyman more and more with us. In fact, some of them have been invited to meetings in English recently.

Seeing that improvement is beyond a doubt the order of the day, and having reason to believe that an effort is about being made to bring the present state of our Province to a more advanced state than it has ever been in.

That it stands in need of some repairs is a matter of doubt, and seeing that there is a large portion of this community so thoroughly Protestant, the question naturally arises—How is that portion of the community (whose duty it is to place their Burying Ground in respect to the graves) to be improved?

It is to be hoped that the subject will be taken up by a Committee appointed by each of the Protestant Denominations to each in conjunction so as to bring about some plan which shall be carried out in the coming spring.

Oh, Town Dec. 20, 1859.

CRISIS FROM A CONVERT.

We copy from our contemporary, the Irish Times, the following letter:

of Sunday last, at about seven o'clock, as I was passing the corner of the Baggot Street Church, which looks like Herbert Street, dreadful screams were heard coming from an open window of the tenement. The screams proceeded from a female, who was crying, "Oh, mercy, mercy, they are murdering me!"

"I have heard, on good authority, that numerous dark calls have been made under the Baggot Street Church (for what purpose I know not), and as the more which I have described, to say the very least of it, a most extraordinary one, I trust to your calling the immediate attention of the authorities to the subject, as it is a case, at all events, demanding an immediate investigation."

Here, through this open window, the reader gets a hazy glimpse of the horrors to which these poor incarcerated women are subjected; in this individual shriek, the distress cry of a helpless victim. "Oh, mercy, mercy!" shrieks the poor creature in her agony; the tones of her voice are borne to the passer-by for a moment, the curtain is closed, and there remains for the poor sufferer such misery as that which extorted that fearful cry from her lips.

For a convent is the only place on earth where a woman may be wronged with impunity, where her delicate frame may be tortured without question, where her moral nature may be violated, her womanly instincts trampled upon, her very life sacrificed without the protection of any law, where she is exposed to every injury that the heart of man is capable of inflicting.

The poor women who enter these abodes of woe are either religious fanatics, who the odours of sanctity fully shroud their lives or liberty, or else they are women with blighted affections, who, having proved the futility of earthly love, seek for comfort in what they believe to be a heavenly. The former are the more to be pitied, as they are the more ignorant, and the more liable to be misled.

There is no law for the poor persecuted victims who have once entered there. They cannot appeal to the sympathies of Britain, and say, with the slave, that on reaching British soil they are free, and for that body and soul in the most hateful and servile of all conditions, and for them there is no deliverance.

Is this to be over? Are the cries of their great agony to go up to their Maker day after day, and month after month, unheeded by men, while "liberal" statesmen enlarge on the "illiberality of those who would inquire into the condition of these white slaves, and liberate them from their bondage?"

THE JEWS.—In another column of to-day's paper an Advertisement will be found, announcing the Anniversary Meeting of the P. E. Island Association in connection with the Legion Society for promoting Christianity among the Jews.

A series of Union Prayer meetings were commenced in this city on Monday last, in accordance with the invitation received from India and England, and the appeal issued by the Young Men's Societies.

The Halifax Church Record says the Bishop of Nova Scotia purpose holding Confirmations in the city churches before Easter, and afterwards throughout the north-east portion of the province and Prince Edward Island.

In this city, we are pleased to observe, the invitation to universal prayer has been responded to in a spirit which encourages us to hope that the time of refreshing cannot be long delayed in the city of Halifax.

It is said that the Empress Eugenie, acting under the inspirations of her Spanish confessor, has been led to teach her imperial spouse to adopt the cause of the Pope more thoroughly, and that several vicars have been the result.

PARISH AID FOR FATHER CHINIQUEY.—Mr. Chiniquey's movement is awakening the interest of Christians in the old world, and eliciting their pecuniary aid. A meeting was recently held at the apartments of Lady Goring, an English lady in Paris, to consider the interests of the poor and destitute.

A royal warrant has been issued, whereby chaplains of the Presbyterian and Roman Catholic persuasions are put precisely on the same footing as those of the United Church of England and Ireland. It provides that the pensions to be given to the widows of officers shall be at the rates granted to the widows of officers of corresponding rank.

In a published account of the proceedings at a late meeting of the Presbytery of Halifax in connection with the Presbyterian Church of Nova Scotia, occurs the following paragraph:—The Presbytery having at its first meeting after Synod taken up the subject of Revivals of Religion, and agreed to call the attention of their respective Congregations to the promised gifts of the Holy Spirit, and to the duty of special prayer, the Moderator enquired how far members had carried out their intended efforts, and with what success.

He called on the English Consul but he had none to give or sell; for a box of Bibles sent to him from England was detained in the Roman Custom house.

DEBT OF THE ROMAN STATES.—The capital which it owes, and which its subjects are destined to pay, amounts at present to very nearly four hundred and sixty millions of francs. If you divide this by the number of the inhabitants, you will see that every baby born in the States of the Pope inherits a debt of a hundred and thirteen francs, for the parental blessings that have been rained upon himself or his ancestors!—All the year round.

AYER'S PILLS.

The following statement from James R. Chilton, M. D., of New York city, after a thorough examination of the subject, leaves no doubt in any reasonable mind of the intrinsic value of his preparation, or its value as a reliable medicine.

As a Cathartic for general use, they are far superior to any which have hitherto fallen under my notice. They do not contain any mineral substance whatever; and, consequently, all objections against such ingredients are avoided.

We have known Dr. J. R. Chilton for many years as a gentleman of the highest respectability, and a chemist in whom we have utmost confidence.
