MAY REVIVE FAILED SOVEREIGN BANK

Assets May be of Great Value—Ex-President Jarvis Says They may be Worth Nearly $4,000,000—German Banker Gives Strong Evidence Against Directors of Wrecked Institution

Toronto, April 6—In the hearing of the Sovereign Bank case today Chancellor Boyd asked what was the situation of the bank. Wallace Nesbit, K. C., said the bank might be revived in the future, as certain assets might turn out to be worth $3,000,000 or $4,000,000. Former President Aemilius Jarvis also expressed the hope that the bank might yet go on.

Hans Jacob Schuster, a Dresden, Germany, bank manager, gave evidence, when examined by a commission, to show that a great many loans granted by the bank on its stock appeared on the bank books as being loaned to fictitious parties. He asked Manager Stewart: "Have you any right or is it customary in your country to loan money on your own stock?"

"I do not know what the answer was to that, but very soon he had to tell me that all these names that stock stood in were more or less bogus names; that the stock was really bought by the bank with the money of the bank. They had to acknowledge to me that the bank had nobody to look to to take up that stock and repay the bank.

"There was no doubt in my mind that every officer of the bank was responsible for this action and liable for any loss that might accrue to the bank. Besides that, there were a great many other things—loans granted and operations carried on by the bank that ought never to have been carried on, and which all put a very serious liability on the directors."

GOVERNMENT HAD 33 MAJORITY ON BUDGET VOTE

CHAS. GALLAGHER, MONCTON, CRUSHED TO DEATH AT LEVIS

Moncton Young Man, Son of Hotel Minto Proprietor, Meets Shocking Death—Thought to be on His Way Home

Moncton N. B., April 6—Chas. E. Gallagher, of this city, son of Mr. Patrick Gallagher, proprietor of the Minto Hotel, was crushed to death at Levis, opposite Quebec City, Monday evening. Word of the sad accident reached the city last evening in the form of a telegram to Mr. Gallagher, who left last evening for the scene of the tragedy. No further particulars have been received.

The Quebec Telegraph of yesterday has the following in regard to the accident:

The body of an unknown man was found beside the Intercolonial Railway track at Levis last night.

The body, which had been dragged for some distance, was cut and bruised almost beyond recognition and there was no trace by which the man's identity might be learned. By the appearance of his clothing it is judged that he is a laborer.

When communicated with, this afternoon, Coroner Jalicoeur had no further details to give in connection with the matter.

Moncton, April 7—Further particulars as to the untimely death of Mr. Charles E. Gallagher, the Moncton boy who was killed at Levis, P. Q., on Monday night last, were received here this morning. Mr. P. Gallagher, father of deceased who is at Levis, wrote home saying that when the body was found the papers of discharge from the Quebec barracks were in one of the pockets and that his son had crossed from Quebec to Levis by the ferry Monday evening and was going to St. Henri. The body will arrive home tomorrow morning on the Maritime Express and the funeral will be held immediately after the arrival of the train.

Choral Society to Hold Concert

Will Give First Public Performance Next Monday Evening.

The first public performance of the Newcastle Choral Society will be held in the audience chamber of the town hall, Monday evening April 18th, commencing at 8.30 sharp.

We hope that the citizens generally will keep the above date open and attend the concert in force. This Choral Society, which was organized during the past winter, is the only institution of the kind that Newcastle has possessed for years and is entitled to our active support. Good music is a powerful factor in intellectual, social and moral development, and its study and performance should be encouraged in every community. It is a good sign that the number of Choral Societies in Canada is increasing year by year. We trust that this branch of our national life will keep pace with our financial progress.

We urge the citizens to give our local society a good house next Monday evening. By so doing we shall help to keep alive in our midst a healthy spirit of educational endeavor and show ourselves to be in touch with the times.

Opening of the New Drug Store

Messrs. Dickison & Troy Throw Their Doors Open to Public.

Messrs. Dickison and Troy formally opened their new Pharmacy on Castle Street Saturday evening. The cases and furniture are for the most part home industry, made of our own pine, finished in white enamel, gold and antique oak, and in appearance and durability are second to none of the expensive importations. The painting, enameling and stenciling was done by Mr. Ambrose Ryan. The other work was done by local men under inspection of our postmaster, father of Mr. Troy during his off hours—and the whole bears evidence to the fact that we are not encourageing home industry as we might. The window-decorating with a handsome palm and cut flowers was tastefully arranged with scaps, creams and other toilet articles and the interior was generally very handsomely and contentedly arrayed, and as we predicted in a late issue the many customers were served with promptness and courtesy which was plainly noticeable on their faces when leaving. The Optical department is well lighted, fully equipped and makes one feel as if he was in a city Optical Parlour.

DEATH OF ARCHBISHOP CAMERON, ANTIGONISH, N. S.

The Distinguished Prelate Passed Away Suddenly Last Night: Was the Oldest Archbishop in America: Witnessed the Signing of Rome on Two Occasions

Halifax, N. S., April 11—Rev. Dr. John Cameron, bishop of Antigonish, passed away at the glebe house tonight, 81 years of age and the oldest Archbishop in America, and the oldest student of Roman propaganda. He was born in St. Andrews, Antigonish county, in 1829, his parents being staunch Presbyterians. At the age of 17, in 1834, he was sent to Rome, and there entered upon his duties and was ordained priest in 1853. In 1855 he presided at the opening of St. Francis College and had charge of the parish of St. Ninian's and Arichat until 1870, when he was called to Rome and there consecrated bishop. He was still at Rome on the fateful 20th of September, in 1870, when the troops of the Spoiler entered the City of the Popes. Thus he was twice the unwilling witness of the storming of Rome by a hostile force, being still a student of the Propaganda during a revolution headed by Garibaldi in 1848. Despite his advanced years he had always enjoyed good health and his death came with great suddenness. He had retired at seven o'clock, complaining of feeling fatigued, and at ten o'clock was taken ill. The last rights of the church were administered and he passed away at 10.30.

Ottawa, April 5—Before the year ends the construction of two immense dry docks in Canada will be commenced. They will be not less than nine hundred feet long, a hundred feet wide, and will have a depth of thirty-five feet on the site. One of these docks will be located at Levis, and the other at St. John, N. B. Both docks will be supplemented by adequate facilities for the repairing of vessels of the largest size, and it is probable that the yard will have a depth of thirty-five feet on the

ALL RURAL CORPS DRILL AT SUSSEX THIS SUMMER

Militia Headquarters Have Received Orders to This Effect; Good News For Those Interested

St. John, April 7.—A communication has been received at the militia offices, Prince William St., from headquarters in Ottawa, notifying Col. Humphrey, D. O. C., that the camps at Newcastle and Woodstock, as held last year, had this year been cancelled, and instead all rural corps in New Brunswick will drill at Sussex, as has been the case in other years. At Newcastle and Woodstock last year camps were held owing to the financial depression in the department of militia, due largely to the expenses attached to the Ter-Centenary celebration at Quebec. Some of the provincial regiments were sent to these places instead of going to Sussex, as had been the case in other years, thus lessening the number in attendance at the Sussex camp. The plan did not meet with general approval in military centres, and a great many who have been going to Sussex for the annual drill will read with pleasure that the general camp is to be held there as usual.

The order received at the office of the D. O. C. gives the names of the following units as those which will go under canvas on June 28: Eighth Hussars, 4th Brigade, C. F.

The new Crushed Coffee as compared with Ground Coffee. Merely to look at it you will see how very different it is; Crushed Coffee being in small even grains, totally free of chaff or skin while ground coffee has the appearance of being mashed; large and small grains with chaff or skin mixed together. Red Rose crushed Coffee, being free of the chaff, can be made as easily as Red Rose Tea. Settles clear and bright. No egg or anything required. Just look at our crushed Coffee and see how correctly we describe it. A good combination is Estabrooks' Coffee for breakfast and Red Rose Tea for other meals.
