Youngsters Surprise Greybeards and Win By Score of 60-50

Several thousand years ago an old bird masquerading under the title of ancient philosopher uttered the following wisp: "When an irresistible force meets an immovable object what happens? The answer is not yet and this same answer is applicable to the curling match which took place in our midst on Friday last.

The youngsters, since called Bluebeards, met in battle royal the Greybeards and in some unexplainable manner sent down to an inglorious defeat the old married men.

When in clarion tones, the infants sent out on the breezes their challenge, the old men buckled on their armor, mounted their trusty steeds and rode forth to once and for all put the quietus on these noisy youngsters but their armor was of ancient type and their steeds of many years and the outcome was just as the youngsters had predicted, the old men fell down with a sickening thud. Gentle reader, list to the tale of a battle for a lost cause and then be convinced that in these days of strife and destruction the old Greybeard has no longer "a place in the sun" and now must be content to put on his slippers and stay in for the night, to stay home and enjoy family comforts apart from the hustle and bustle of modern times. When the gong rang at one thirty to call the first part of the fight, skip Gifford stood ready, broom in hand, to face his ancient foe skip Ed. Dalton and when the smoke of battle had cleared away he stood a victor in a just cause by a score of 10 to 6 and a glimpse at the board on the other side showed that skip Chas. Sargeant had hit the toboggan and that skip Cole had worsted him at the roaring game with a score of 12 to 7.

Then burst forth from the throats of the children, shouts of joy and happiness and around the Greybeards was a mantle of gloom. They were with one accord straining all their mental powers to explain this awful catastrophe. In a short fifteen minutes the gong called for the antagonists again and skip Demers fared forth the honor of the children to defend against the unholly attacks of the Greybeard skip Lindon, but alas after two hours of battle it was found that skip Lindon had reversed the order of things and had forced skip Demers to bow down his head in servile attitude before a score of 10-7. This was terrible for the youngsters and to add to this and despite every effort on the part of skip John Sargeant, who was battling for his life against the savage onslaught of the old Excelsior Chief, skip John Russell, the Greybeard forced the youngster to walk the plank by a score of 14 to 4.

This gave the oldsters a margin of four points and in the councils of the infants there was consternation and grief.

The faces of the Greybeards were wreathed in smiles and Capt. Jack hurried home to prepare a place in his already trophy filled rooms, for the Dickison & Troy cup. At seven thirty the starting gong rang and with the sounds still in the air, the players were away. The oldest citizen remembers not such shouts of encouragement as greeted the players as the several shots were made or missed and in the history of the game in our town, no such interest was ever shown.

Skip Willis Nicholson, keeping in mind the margin of four points which threatened the supremacy of the youngsters, started away with a rush and keeping on with the good work fought Skip Cassidy to a fine frazzled and when the game ended it was found that the youngsters skip had walloped the old Greybeard by a score of 16-3 and had with one fell blow blighted the aspirations of Capt. Jack to the possession of the Dickison & Troy Trophy.

On the other side was the fight between the redoubtable Skip Jim Stewart and skip "Derby" Atkinson. End after end the score was even and at last the nerve of the Greybeard refused to stand up under the test and he went down at the hands of the Kids with a score of 11-10 against him.

The joy of the "Youngsters" knew no bounds, and when the total was made up the "Greybeards" were forced to accept the verdict of a score of 60-50 in the infant's favor. At once "President" Lawlor challenged the winners to a return game and on behalf of the Youngsters Nease, Skip Cole accepted the challenge. All the members then repaired to the banquet hall where a supper was served very efficiently by the Ladies of the Anglican Church A. Y. P. A. During the latter part of the evening the Greybeard skips were presented with prizes in keeping with their scores. The prizes consisted of dolls, picture books and Fraser Companies Secure Holdings Upham Lumber Co.

Fredericton, Feb. 20—Four million feet of spruce logs, sold by the Upham Lumber Company Ltd., to the Fraser Companies, Ltd., in the deal where all holdings of the former company have passed to the Fraser interests are said to have brought about $30 per thousand feet. George W. Upham ex-M. L. A. Woodstock, this morning said that the transfer of the entire holdings of the company, of which he is the president had been consummated, the Fraser companies having now taken possession of the Transcontinental Railway line, on the Tobique River in Victoria county.

Mr. Upham admitted that the amount involved in the transfer, including the present season's cut of logs was more than double the figure which had been mentioned when the deal was under way. "We got more than 100,000 for the four million feet of logs we cut this winter," declared Mr. Upham, which means the price paid was over $25 per thousand. When pressed for further information all he would say was that spruce logs were now worth more like $30 than $25 per thousand. It is said the price paid by the Fraser Companies for the mills, lease and logs was over $200,000.

rattles which during the long nights to come will prove of great interest and use to the owners. Below you will observe the toast list which was prepared by Tom Maltby who with a sureness of an old married man had supposed that the youngsters were going down to defeat.

The return match will be played in a few days and the outcome will be watched with great interest.

Pauline Frederick in Great Photoplay at Happy Hour Thursday

PAULINE FREDERICK'S latest Goldwyn picture, "Bonds of Love," by Louis Sherwin, the eminent dramatic critic, is a powerful emotional photodrama worthy of the sterling ability of the versatile star. In none of Miss Frederick's recent pictures, has she been called upon to play the awakening instinct of mother love; but in her new screen vehicle, which comes to the Happy Hour Theatre, on Thursday, she assumes the role of a second wife who has sincerely grown to love the child of her husband's first wife and is willing to sacrifice herself for the sake of the child's welfare. This unusual combination of self-sacrifice and mother love for another's child develops into a masterly climax in which Miss Frederick has many opportunities to reveal some of the subtlest touches which have ever been seen in photo dramas. Her ability to express suppressed emotional struggle has been shown in her recent pictures, "The Fear Woman," and "The Peace of Roaring River." And in "Bonds of Love," fresh opportunities for disclosing her understanding of repressed acting occur in every reel.

Miss Frederick's picture was directed by Reginald Barker; and the photographer was Edward Gheiler, who recently discovered a new way to achieve clearness in long shots by a clever light arrangement.

The young boy in the picture gives a remarkable performance of the child. Frankie Lee was called upon to assume the part and he immediately struck up a delightful friendship with Miss Frederick, which made their many scenes together realistic interpretations of an unusual affection between mother and child.

Some of the scenes in "Bonds of Love" were taken at Santa Catalina Island where Miss Frederick in a racing motor boat performed a thrilling rescue of the child who had jumped into a launch and was heading for the rocks which guard the narrows to the open sea. Besides the rescue, many other scenes on Catalina Island unfold the sunlit beauty of this garden spot in the Pacific.

WEDDINGS

SIDDALL—RHOADES
Newcastle, Feb. 14—The marriage of Frederick M. Siddall of Millerton of Frederick M. Siddall of Millerton and Miss Bertha L. Rhoades of England, was solemnized by Rev. H. T. Montgomery at the latter's residence, Millerton, Feb. 12. Mr. and Mrs. Siddall will reside at Millerton.

Three Years In Penitentiary

In the Sunbury County Court at Burton Thursday last, Frank O'Brien and John Hall, of Newcastle, were sentenced to three years' imprisonment in the penitentiary for robbery committed at the Coburn Company's store at Ripples, and George Phair, aged 13, also of Newcastle, the third prisoner implicated, was sentenced to three years in the Boys' Industrial Home at St. John.

The sentences were imposed by Judge Wilson, before whom the prisoners appeared under the Speedy Trials Act and pleaded guilty. In addition to the three years' sentence the trio will serve a year's suspended sentence handed out to them by Judge McLatchey at Newcastle a short time ago.

The three prisoners have proved that, although young, they are actually real desperadoes, as since their incarceration in the jail at Burton the trio attempted and almost succeeded in burning down that building, forcing the jailer to go for help to the sheriff.

HAPPY CHILDHOOD

Childhood days are happy days to the robust child; they are intended to be days of growth.

SCOTT'S EMULSION

brings to a child that is not thriving, power that sustains strength—substance that determines growth. Scott's Emulsion is concentrated tonic-nourishment which is readily assimilated and transmuted into strength. Give Scott's Emulsion to growing children often.
