Laura Desmond's Choice.

BY ANNE M. SEWALD.

And while Annie and the doctor had their usual game at chess, the latter withdrew to a couch at the further end of the drawing room. At first their conversation was on very ordinary subjects connected with the...

And now, in their own home, they talk over all that had passed. The conclusion they had come to had disclosed whatever seemed strange in Laura's character.

And I so loved her, but the day of my revenge may yet arrive. What was meant by her saying that she had had her heart broken according to the passion to which for the time being she appeared a prey?

Well, I remember that meeting. Yes, and the bliss which I came. False she, I shared not my shame. Mrs. Lester sat a little to the right of Laura, she knew the words, remembered having heard her mother sing them, and her heart beat quick and fast.

For a moment there is a painful pause. Does her glow over the pain he is inflicting? Mrs. Lester sees the small hand tremble as it moves restlessly over the keys of the piano, and then raising it she passes it over her brow, as if she is recalling some remembrance of the past.

And while the husband and wife thus made Laura the theme of their conversation, unusually weary and thoughtful, she lately returned to the drawing-room, to wish Annie 'Good-night.' Nevertheless, she almost feared to confront him after the humiliation he had imposed on her with regard to the bill he had passed before her in the evening.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER Absolutely Pure. The power of this powder is a matter of fact, proved by the fact that it is the only one that is made in this country.

Sore Eyes. The eyes are always in sympathy with the body, and afford an excellent index of its condition. When the eyes become weak, and the lids inflamed and sore, it is an evidence that the system has become disordered by Scrofula, for which Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the best known remedy.

CURED. My eyes are now in a splendid condition, and I see as well and strong as ever. Mrs. William Gage, Concord, N. H. For a number of years I was troubled with a sore eye, and was unable to obtain any relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and I believe it to be the best of blood purifiers.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Prepared by Dr. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists. Price 25 cents per bottle.

CURE SICK HEADACHE. Headache and other ailments are the result of impure blood. Carter's Little Liver Pills are the best remedy for these ailments.
