LONDON, Feb. 21.

Conditions throughout Britain, particularly in the manufacturing districts of the North of England, are rapidly becoming worse as the result of the threatened coal strike, which will throw the workers in many other trades out of employment as well as the miners. At many iron works and other big factories to-day the men received notice that their services would not be required after Feb. 29th, should the coal strike be decided on. Most of the factories are supplied with coal, but only for the most urgent work on hand. In London and other cities the price of coal has already reached $8 a ton, whilst the poorer people are paying almost double this rate, as they only purchase in small quantities. The meeting of the committee of the International Miners' Federation, will decide tomorrow whether they will support their British comrades. Both coal owners and miners have signified their acceptance of Mr. Asquith's invitation to meet him and a number of his colleagues at the Foreign Office.

LONDON, Feb. 21.

The committee of the International Miners' Federation, which met in conference to-day, adjourned till tomorrow. No decision has been officially announced, but it is known that both the Belgian and French societies have assured the British miners that they can rely on their active co-operation. Railway men in the Kingdom have asked the Executive of the Amalgamated Society of Railway Servants to issue instructions for their guidance in the event of the authorities sending police and soldiers to cope with disturbances.

LONDON, Feb. 21.

An announcement was issued by the Government to-day that it would reintroduce during the present session the Naval Prize Bill, which was rejected by the Lords on Dec. 12th. This action of the Lords prevented the British Government from ratifying the Declaration of London, an international agreement regarding the disposition of prizes captured in naval warfare.

Wants Statistics.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Sir:—From an interesting contribution to your paper yesterday signed Citizen, I take the following:—

"Let us compare conditions in South America, Spain, Portugal and Italy, with those of Germany, England, the United States and Canada! Look at Ireland! What a striking contrast between Ulster and the other provinces? Take, for example, education in South America as compared with that of North America; or the degree of moral and social order in countries under Roman Catholic rule. We prefer to let the present conditions of these respective countries speak for themselves. We deem it unnecessary to allude to their histories as every schoolboy is familiar with them."

Now, although "every schoolboy" may know the geography and history of these countries, there are, I fear, many like myself ignorant regarding the "moral and social order" obtaining there, and not having the advantage that your able correspondent undoubtedly has had of living amongst and studying the "manners and customs" of these peoples, and being of an enquiring turn of mind, I take advantage of the opportunity to ask this gentleman who, if we may judge by the extent and variety of his knowledge of "furrin" peoples, is undoubtedly a walking encyclopaedia of useful knowledge that, in accordance with the true spirit of Christian charity during this holy season of Lent, should be given ungrudgingly for the enlightenment of us benighted Catholics.

I therefore confidently expect that he will not content himself with the parrot-mouthings of shallow-rorted pamphleteers, but give us statistics from the official records of the countries he refers to to prove that he is not a slanderer of the Catholic people thereof.

The Home Dressmaker should keep a Catalogue Scrap Book of our Pattern Cuts. These will be found very useful to refer to from time to time.

9115-9106.—A SMART AND SERVICEABLE MODEL.

This design is exceptionally attractive for general or business wear. The waist is closed at the side front, and has a pleated or skirt piece, below the belt, that may be omitted. A broad sailor collar outlines a chemise of contrasting material, over the front. The skirt is "up-to-date," with its panel back and shaped front. The Waist Pattern 9115 is cut in 6 sizes: 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches bust measure. The Skirt Pattern, 9106 is cut in 6 sizes: 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30 inches waist measure. It requires 7 1/2 yards of 44 inch material for the entire costume for a 36 inch size.

Suitable materials for any of these patterns can be procured from AYRES & SONS, Ltd. Samples on request. Mention pattern number. Mail orders promptly attended to.

9164.—A UNIQUE AND STYLISH DESIGN FOR THE GROWING GIRLS.

Girl's Dress With Deep Armseye, With or Without Shield, Sailor Collar.

Brown serge with facings of silk was used for this model, which is equally well adapted for wash fabrics. The deep armseye is a new feature that promises to become popular. The fronts cross slightly. The skirt is pleated. The Pattern is cut in 4 sizes: 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. It requires 4 1/2 yards of 36 inch material for the 12 year size.

From Mayor Ellis

Mr. W. O'D. Kelly had a message from Mayor Ellis, who is now in Montreal to-day, in which he says that he was examined by Dr. Garrow in the Royal Victoria Hospital. The doctor said that no operation is necessary and that all that the patient requires is rest. Mr. Ellis' many friends will be glad to hear this as he had feared a serious attack of illness before he left here.

Died at Hospital.

Ambrose Mullenwey, 17 years old, of Bay Bulls, son of James Mullenwey, died at the General Hospital last evening of heart failure. He came to Hospital two weeks ago, hoping that the good attendance given there would restore his health. His father came to town this morning to take the body home for interment. Mr. N. J. Murphy, the undertaker, will go out to Bay Bulls with him this afternoon.

Here and There.

The Nascope, Capt. Waite, will sail for Louisbourg for coal to-morrow.

The Portia left Trepassay at 6 a.m. to-day and the station reported good prospects of her getting down the shore as it was then reported that the ice was moving off the shore. The ship passed Cape Race at 8 a.m. and if conditions are favorable, may get here at 4 p.m.

BROKE SLIDE AND HARNESS.—Bishop & Sons' truckman met with a mishap driving up Pitts' archway yesterday with horse and slide attached. The slide struck a fender post in the archway and the shock broke it from the shafts. The horse's harness was broken and the belly hand parting, the horse came right clear of the slide.

ENJOYABLE PARTY.—An enjoyable soiree was held at the residence of Mr. Arthur Mews, Military Road, last night. About 40 guests were present. Songs were rendered by Messrs. C. Hatcher, J. Spooner and Miss Bowden. A sumptuous tea was served. Games were indulged in and the festivities kept up till 11 in the morning.

Don't You Know

The business man who has an idea that occasional advertising will do him good does not win success; for, like the visit of the milk men, advertising is needed every day—rain or shine.

Then if You Are

In business and want more trade, ask for it! And ask in such a way that the people will hear you. The advertising columns of THE EVENING TELEGRAM have proven to be the best method of reaching the ear of the public—it is the "people's paper" being read by over 35,000 people every day—therefore we say if you want to set forth the merits of your establishment and the goods you want to sell, use its columns liberally and persistently, for by keeping up a constant fanfare of advertising the attention of the public is attracted and good business follows—

Woman's Travels in Africa

Question of Precedence at Black Courts.

Miss Olive Macleod, who travelled through Nigeria, the German Cameroons and the French Congo to set up a stone on the grave of Lieut. Boyd Alexander, to whom she had been engaged, told how she had travelled close on 4,000 miles in Africa, chiefly on foot and horseback, penetrating to many spots which no white feet had ever trod before.

What struck one in her gossipping account of her travels was that humanity is very much the same beneath the surface all over the world. A native sultan's court, she said, reminded her very much of a European monarch's. The court officials had much the same appointment of duties and quarrelled about precedence in the same way.

Black belles wear false tails of hair and pads to make their own appear more luxuriant. Even their little children play marbles in the English style. And when reformers among us advocate certificates of fitness for marriage they are only pleading for a system which obtains among many West African tribes.

The young men of these tribes are tested as to their manliness and endurance by being beaten with strips of leather or by being obliged to climb up the face of an almost perpendicular rock. Unless they satisfy the test they cannot marry. No woman would accept them as husbands.

One very interesting point was that the natives pick up English quickly, and regard it as the "white man's language." If Frenchmen and Germans cannot speak it they are not looked upon as "proper white men." So general is this view that the German officers and sergeants are obliged to drill their black troops with English words of command—London Daily Mail.
