"Twisting the Lion's Tail."

For many generations, the twisting of the Lion's tail, has been recognized tactics in the year of the Presidential election. In November of the present year, this election occurs in Congress and departments, the usual procedure seems to have begun. Much is being made of Great Britain's action in stopping and examining mails on digital vessels, and interference with American trade with neutrals. An agitation is also under way to place an embargo on the export of munitions to belligerents. The President has declared this would be an unneutral act, but this does not prevent the agitation being carried on with vigor. This agitation is particularly popular with the German element and their sympathizers, as the effect of such action would injure Great Britain and her allies without injuring the Teutonic allies. The Lansing note with its peremptory threat to deny entry to American ports to armed merchantmen, and a refusal to discuss matters further savors much of the same character. The threat is directed solely against Britain and her allies. It can only apply to them as the merchantmen of Germany, Austria and Turkey are not on the high seas and entering American ports. Great Britain and her allies are asked to declare she will not allow merchantmen to be armed because a submarine is almost without powers of defence beyond its ability to submerge and escape. They are asked to admit the principle that merchantmen shall obey the order of a submarine to stop for examination, if Germany admits the principle of not sinking merchantmen without providing for the safety of those aboard. In other words she is asked to accept at face value the declaration of nations infamous for scrapping solemn treaties, and of a nation which gave such a pledge nine months ago and has spent that time in treating such pledges as witness the sinking of the Arabic, Hesperian, Persia and other passenger steamers. German pledges are worthless and no agreement based on them should be undertaken. If Wilson and Lansing engage in twisting the lion's tail to please their German supporters, they may get a surprise. It may prove an unpleasant one. There are many millions of American citizens who will not desire the blood of their forefathers for the sake of pleasing the German hyphens. It should be remembered that the number of citizens of British, French, Russian and Italian descent in the United States far and away exceeds those of German, Austrian and Turkish descent. A glance through the American weekly, "Life," especially the number which arrived here a few days ago, will show that the Entente Allies are not without very considerable support in the United States.

League Hockey.

FEILDANS DEFEAT ST. BON'S.

The second match of the League series was pulled off last night at the Prince's Rink between the St. Bon's and Feildans and a "play off" was necessary to decide the winners. The official result was Feildans, 6 goals; St. Bon's, 5.

The players were—
Feildans. St. Bon's.
Strang goal M. Power
Wilson point Higgins
Bennett cover Crawford
Pearce rover Callahan
Winter centre J. McGrath
White right Quinn
Bugden left

Officials: H. A. Herder, referee; Messrs. C. Ellis and C. Traynor, timekeepers; and Messrs. S. Bennett (Feildans) and D. Keegan (St. Bon's), goal judges.

Play opened briskly and some good stuff was handed out to the spectators. The Feildans became active and in quick time had two goals to their credit. Soon after White sent in No. 3, Pearce and Callahan began to introduce some "side shows" and were made retire to the penalty box for 3 minutes each. Both these players spent two more periods in the box for a breach of the etiquette of the game. Higgins made a few of the best runs of the evening, but failed to score. Strang's saving being very creditable.

In the second half the St. Bon's showed up better. Callahan scored five goals for his side and White and Bugden each got a goal for the Feildans.

Up to a minute or so before the close the teams were running neck and neck in point of score and while enthusiasm was at fever heat a regrettable incident occurred, one of the goal judges in his excitement partly raised the flag, recording a goal. Strang, the Feildian goal-keeper, received the puck from a St. Bon's player, and before Strang had cleared the net, was capsize by another St. Bon's man who ran into it. A tie up followed and it was at once explained and denied that a goal had been scored. Goal Judge Keegan, it is alleged, hoisted his flag, denoting a goal, but on being questioned by the referee, replied distinctly "no goal." Incidentally, it may be added, that the Referee had approached Higgins and Strang, the captain of the Feildans and St. Bon's, respectively, urging on them the necessity of appointing competent goal judges from one of the other teams, and he (the referee) was given to understand that the matter was being attended to. It will also be seen that the advice of the referee as regards the appointing of goal judges was not adhered to. It must also be remembered that, according to the rules of the game, a goal judge's decision is not final either and that although he may "flag" a goal it does not necessarily follow that it is a goal. However, after two of the St. Bon's players had left the ice, came on again the game was resumed, as the teams had 5 goals each with the result the Feildians scored the 6th and winning goal. The Feildians and Terra Novas will meet on Monday evening next.

Sensational Arrests!

Wholesale Theft Mystery Unearthed by Police.

BIG SEIZURE OF GOODS MADE—FOUR OF KNOWLING'S EMPLOYEES UNDER ARREST—OTHER ACCOMPLICES BEING SHADOWED.

Ever since the burglarizing of Ayre & Sons store on Water Street a week ago the police detectives have been working overtime in endeavouring to run down the perpetrators, but without success so far. However, their efforts were not confined to that direction, because having "smelt a rat," they gave the big business premises of the Hon. George Knowling nearby, their attention, with the result that they have brought to light and put a stop to one of the biggest thefts ever reported in the city. Four young men, two clerks and two teamsters, who were employees of Knowling's are now behind lock and key, and other accomplices, who are now under suspicion, will be charged.

Yesterday the ever vigilant "Tee. Byrne" visited the home of Walter LeGrow, a clerk in Knowling's Dry Goods Department, on Spencer Street, and there found the following list of goods with Knowling's stamp on them:—1 pair boots, $4.50; 1 boy's overcoat, $6.10; 1 pair blankets, $4.50; 1 lady's coat, $21.00; 1 felt hat, $2.20; 2 books, 70c.; 1 carpet square, $30.00; 2 hearth rugs, $14.00; 2 table cloths, $17.00; 2 door mats, $1.00; 1 lady's fur-lined coat, $25.00; 2 quilts, $6.00; 1 trunk, $4.00; 2 books, $2.00; 1 dressing gown, $15.00; 1 overcoat, $6.10; at a total value of $181.10. Immediately LeGrow was placed under arrest and the goods removed from his home to the police station. Frank Bugden and Samuel Clarke, both aged 23, Knowling's teamsters, were also arrested charged with receiving goods given them by LeGrow. Bugden is charged with receiving one suit of clothes, one tweed suit, a cap, a pair of boots, an overcoat and a quantity of flannel; while Clarke's charge is having received one suit of underclothing. They will appear before the Magistrate at 3 o'clock this afternoon and will likely be remanded, as there are more arrests to follow.

At 12.15 p.m. to-day a young man named Reid, a clerk at Knowling's, was handed a document by Detective Tobin, requesting the clerk to accompany him to the Police Station, which he did. The extent of the goods stolen, some of them very valuable, will, we hear, go into the thousands, and Knowling's have been missing articles from their store periodically within the past six months.

Wreckage Picked Up.

This morning the Marine and Fisheries Department received the following message from E. H. Rennie, Light-house Keeper at Cape Ray:—"During the past week large quantities of lumber, broken up by the sea, have been picked up in this vicinity, beach strewn with short ends of board for distance of 5 miles north of here. After careful enquiry I find no other wreckage picked up."

It is assumed that the supposed wreckage was lost off the deck of some vessel.

College Hockey.

The opening game of the Inter-Collegiate series was played at the Prince's Rink this forenoon between the St. Bon's and Collegians. The game was fast, exciting and greatly contested and resulted in a victory for the Bonas by 3 goals to 2. The teams were:

St. Bon's—St. John, goal; Keegan, point; Fox, cover; A. Kelly, rover; W. Clouston, centre; E. Kelly, left; J. McGrath, right.
Mr. J. Tobin acted as referee.

For some time past the veteran hockeyists of the city have been contemplating the holding of a match for the benefit of the W. P. A. Fund. It has been decided that the event will take place between the East and West End, on next Thursday evening when the public generally and the sporting fraternity in particular will be afforded an opportunity of showing their patriotism by attending in large numbers. Apart from the patriotic spirit of the affair sportsmen can be assured of a feast of good hockey. The personnel of the teams will be:

AT THE CRESCENT.

Don't miss seeing the big week end show at the Crescent Picture Palace to-day, the headliner is a two reel social drama, "The Quickness of Society," this is a great Biograph feature and the cast includes such stars as Louise Yale, Franklyn Ritchie, "Where Emmit Dies" is a great western story with Viola Smith and Wm. J. Butler. G. M. Anderson features in "The Other Girl" an Essanay melodrama. "He Couldn't Explain" and "Clothes Count" are two very laughable comedies. Mr. Dave Parks, baritone, the man with the voice, sings "Everybody Loves My Girl" a catchy novelty song.

On Monday, "The Second Commandment" will be shown; this is a three reel feature that has had a whole week's run in the big American and Canadian cities.

BRITISH THEATRE.

A splendid programme was shown at the British Theatre last night. The feature of the programme was a thrilling war drama entitled "Custer's Last Scout," which was the story of General Custer's death as told by the only living witness of the tragic event, Scott Chapman. The scenes were most thrilling and the whole picture was most interesting and gripping from beginning to end. "Shadows and Sunshine" and "In Her Sleep" were two beautiful dramas of heart interest, and the comedy, "Show Me Mexico," was rich and amusing. Anne Timmons was heard in two favorite numbers "A Bit of Heaven" and "Chanson de Florian" and was loudly applauded. This first class entertainment will be repeated to-morrow.
