America's Stand Voiced in N. Y. Despite Teutons.

Germans Ejected When They try to break Up Meeting—Wilson and Allies are Both Endorsed—Major Putnam Urges "Direct Co-operation" With Allied Cause.

New York, March 14.—As a result of excellent police arrangements, efforts by Germans to break up a mass meeting held in Carnegie Hall, under the auspices of the American Right Committee, last night came to naught. As one of the policemen assigned to maintain order expressed it: "A disturber was thrown out every fifteen minutes," and then, he added with a smile, "I mean every fifteen minutes as long as they lasted."

The meeting itself was one of the largest and most enthusiastic held in this city in months. There was not a vacant seat in the parquet, boxes or galleries, and the thousands who were crowded into the hall and upon the stage, excepting the few scores who favored the Teutonic Powers, and who came with the purpose of making trouble, gave evidence of being heart and soul for the President of the United States and for the nations that, in the words of one of the speakers, "are fighting for the survival of freedom and democracy in the world."

Urge Direct Aid For Allies.
Major George T. Putnam, president of the American Right Committee, presided and put the two sets of resolutions that were adopted with outbursts of cheering and waving of flags.
One of the resolutions endorsed the stand of the President in his armed ship controversy with Congress, while the other called upon the American people to approve the cause of the Allies and to extend to those nations not only sympathy, but "direct co-operation at the proper time."
According to the police, between fifty and one hundred Germans, bent on making trouble, managed to get seats in the upper gallery. Perhaps a score of others found seats in the parquet. Those in the gallery started the trouble, the first outbreak following a reference to the reported conversations between Mr. Bryan and the recalled Austrian Ambassador, Dr. Dumba.

Hisses for Bryan.
Applause, hisses and boos followed when Major Putnam mentioned Mr. Bryan's name. In the chorus of approval from the great majority could be heard the whistles and catcalls of the German sympathizers.
Nothing was done to stop this first hostile demonstration, and it was not until a few minutes later, when Major Putnam referred to the British Government as among the most beneficent on earth that the disturbers broke forth in a demonstration that caused the police and Carnegie Hall attendants to take action.

YES—IT IS POSSIBLE TO STOP RHEUMATISM

Rheumatism is a tormenting and stubborn malady. In some cases it yields to treatment which is without avail in other cases.
The darting pains, lame muscles or stiffened joints only disappear by gradually expelling the uric acid, and so many thousands have been relieved by the blood-enriching oil-food in Scott's Emulsion that you should give it a faithful trial. Scott's Emulsion acts as a powerful blood-purifier by increasing the red corpuscles and it strengthens the organs to carry off the acids which cause the trouble.
Try Scott's Emulsion. It cannot harm. It has helped thousands and may be exactly what you need. No drugs.

democracy and autocracy, between the right of the people on the one hand to govern themselves, and the attempt of domination on the part of a militaristic empire, the ruler of which claims to represent divine purpose and to command by divine will. The Allies look for aid to our great Republic, the Republic which stands for democracy and the rights of the people.
"I will add that the welfare of even Germany, the true Germany, depends, I assuredly believe, on the defeat of the armies of the Hohenzollerns."

Strangling Germany.

New York Times.—If the Germans are ultimately beaten on land, or the land game remains a draw, Great Britain will still hold the seas. If they win on land, Great Britain holds the seas. German commerce has no outlet. German ports are blockaded, on all the salt water of the world there is no German ship unless she is at refuge in some neutral port or is a ship of war hiding from the British fleet. In vain does the German irresistible artillery smash every defense. In vain are German soldiers slaughtered in pursuit of the grandiose, the megalomaniac, German dream. Silent, waiting, the steel bulwark of the British fleet wall the world against Germany. She may win splendid, costly triumphs, wearing herself down with the winning. The real enemy, the fatal adversary, remains. Germany is cut off from the oceans. She is walled up. The sea-borne commerce that she built up with such marvellous energy, enterprise and comprehensive design, which she flung away so rashly, is over and done. To Scandinavia and Holland, to such petty limits has the world-wide interchange of products shrunk. To the east is Russia, unconquerable by her vastness and resources. France will fight to the last extremity. Whatever France or Italy or Russia may do or not do, there is the British fleet. Germany is strangled unless she can defeat it.

Listen for the Bronchial Wheeze When You Breathe Deeply.

It means that disease will soon attack the lungs. Wheezing is distressing to the sufferer and annoying to his friends. Nothing half so certain in bronchitis and throat trouble as "Catarrhoxone"; it gives instant relief and cures even the worst cases. Bronchitis fairly flees under the magic influence of Catarrhoxone which cures so thoroughly the disease never returns. Other remedies may relieve, but Catarrhoxone cures bronchitis, catarrh, and throat trouble for all time to come.
Beware of dangerous substitute meant to deceive you for genuine Catarrhoxone which is sold everywhere, large size containing two months treatment costs $1.00; small size, 50c.; sample size, 25c.

Bound to Exterminate the Serbians.

A Veritable Reign of Terror in All Macedonia—Life Under the Heel of the Conqueror is Hopeless.

Paris, March 17.—The Serbian press bureau has issued a report of atrocities committed by Bulgarians on the Serbian population in the frontier districts. The report says: "Invaders, especially the Bulgars, are going their utmost to exterminate the remnants of the conquered people in all Macedonia. Refugees say that life in Serbia, under the heel of the conqueror, is hopeless. For instance the town of Skoplje was wiped out through pure vandalism. Houses were wantonly destroyed to make bonfires for the ritual soldier, who also prey on the population, massacring them by scores. At Bitolj the majority of the population, particularly the priests and intellectuals, were assembled and ordered to march under guard to Sofia. They never arrived at their ostensible destination. They were massacred by the last man on route. The Bulgarians themselves admit that an order to go to Sofia is tantamount to a death warrant."

Build Giant Aero for Great Britain

Norfolk, March 8.—Glean Curtiss is building a giant hydro-aeroplane for the British Government that promises to excel anything of the kind ever attempted.
The machine is now nearing completion at the New York works of the Curtiss company, and will be shipped here soon to be tested in and over Hampton Roads. Curtiss spent several days here superintending the erection of a shed which is being constructed at Newport News to accommodate the aerial monster.
The machine will have a carrying capacity of seventeen tons. It will be driven by twelve motors of 200 horsepower, each and will have propellers.

Watched British Destroy U-Boat

German Submarine Sent to the Bottom Off Mouth of the Clyde.
Mobile, Ala., March 15.—Captain Burgess, of the American schooner Gyssum, in 10-day from Sillith, England, said he witnessed the destruction of a German submarine by British warships on the coast of Scotland, while his vessel was lying at anchor near the mouth of the Clyde. The submarine was in pursuit of a passenger liner, the name of which Captain Burgess did not learn, and had almost overhauled her when two British destroyers came out from port, and after a battle lasting seven minutes, succeeded in destroying the submersible.
Capt. Burgess said his vessel narrowly missed striking a number of floating mines. He reported the mines to a British patrol boat, and they were destroyed.

Population.

Prune Center is a bustling town. For liveliness it has renown. The leading boosters stand and crow. Just watch our population grow! All new arrivals have their charms; they're welcomed there with open arms. All sorts of cheap and worthless lads, the deadbeats from the other grade, the loafers who, for vagrant ways, have drawn ten dollars or ten days, who'll work the town for grub and coal—just so they swell the census roll, they're welcomed with a flip-boony, and told to camp right down and stay. If I were owner of a town, and wished to give it high renown, I'd see that no one settled there, without a record clean and fair. I'd have a censor in each street, the new-arriving gent to meet, and he would warn the worthless skate to turn around and pull his freight. You don't invite the worthless grub to seek your home and eat your grub. Then why invite him to your town, and beg that he will settle down?
