

REMINGTON UMC

"Wetproof" and Dependability

"WETPROOF" is a coined word; it is a REMINGTON word and stands for the special patented process with which all Remington UMC shotgun cartridges are now treated. Cartridge cases have long been made of so-called "waterproof" paper but this exclusive "WETPROOF" process is something different. It is a forward step in the manufacture of shotgun cartridges.

The wetproof compound of special oils is applied, not only to the body, but also to the top of the cartridge after loading, effectively sealing it against moisture and giving to the contents that protection which insures uniformity of ignition, pattern, speed and penetration. Sportsmen need not fear the effect of rain or damp weather on their shotgun cartridges if they use REMINGTON UMC brands treated with this special, patented "WETPROOF" process.

Sent Back From North Sydney.

A BAKER'S DOZEN BEING RETURNED TO N.E.

Eleven people, including women and children, and two Chinamen, who formed a part of the 101 passengers to arrive here this morning at an early hour on the steamer Sagona from Port aux Basques, says the North Sydney Herald of May 10, are being detained at the terminus shed by the relieving immigration officer, Mr. Chingdon. The Chinamen, said they were on their way to Sydney to work in a restaurant there, but as they failed to comply with the provisions of the immigration act, they will make the return voyage on the Sagona when she sails to-night for the ancient colony. In the case of the eleven men, women and children, who said they intended making their home in Cape Breton, where they came to seek employment, they, too, are far from being up to the standards of the act, and will be sent back to-night. Of the total of 101 passengers thirty of them were first-class, the remainder being men and domestics on their way to work in various parts of the province, principally in the Cape Breton coal fields.

THE DOORS MAN.

He must come back a better man. Beneath the summer bronze and tan, Who turns his back on city strife To neighbor with the trees; He must be stronger for the fight And see with clearer eyes the right. Who faces beneath the open sky And welcomes every breeze.

The man who loves all living things Enough to go where Nature flings Her glories everywhere about, And dwell with them awhile, Must be, when he comes back once more,

A little better than before, A little surer of his faith And readier to smile. He never can be wholly bad Who seeks the sunshine and is glad To hear a songbird's melody Or wade a laughing stream; Nor worse than when he went away Will he return at close of day Who's chummed with happy birds and trees, And takes time to dream.

"Mayflower" Sailed From Canso.

Canso, N. S., May 7.—The Boston fishing schooner Mayflower, candidate for defender in the international fishing schooner race off Halifax next autumn, sailed at 11 o'clock this morning for the Magdalen Island. The Mayflower was given a rousing send-off. The Gloucester fishing schooner, L. A. Dutton, which was defeated by the Mayflower on the first two legs of the race from Gloucester to Magdalen, sailed soon after the Mayflower. Captain Hogan, skipper of the Gloucesterman, having changed the trim of his vessel here, hopes to make a better showing on the final leg to Valuable Shell Fish.

St. John, New Brunswick.—An abundance of scallops have been discovered in the Annapolis Basin and local fishermen are making large catches, which they retail at prices ranging from 35c a pound near where they are found to $1.50 a quart in St. John. Two fishermen are said to have caught 2,700 pounds in one day which sold at 35c a pound, would net them a very handsome profit. Another revenue to be derived from scallops is pearls. One man in Nova Scotia is reported to have taken 27 from one shell alone. These pearls were on an average of very high quality.

Presentation at Government House.

A very pleasing function took place on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Government House, when His Excellency the Governor presented Messrs. George Fowling and George Budden with two silver watches, in recognition of their heroic efforts in the rescue in December, 1919, of the three surviving members of the crew of the S.S. "Anton Van Driel," which ship was wrecked at St. Shott's. The S.S. "Ingraham" went to the vicinity of the wreck, and in a dory the two men named above risked their lives, and made three trips to the wrecked steamer, taking off one man each time. The rest of the crew had attempted to reach the shore in the ship's boat, but the storm was so fierce, that the boat could not live, and the men were drowned; the people on the shore were unable to effect the rescue because it was impossible to launch a boat in the teeth of the gale. The action of Messrs. Fowling and Budden was so heroic that His Excellency brought the same to the notice of the Royal Government of the Netherlands, through the Secretary of State at Downing Street, and the Government have shown their appreciation of the bravery of these men by awarding them the watches which were presented on Saturday afternoon. His Excellency in making the presentation, spoke of the valour shown at all times by our seamen, but he was glad to be in a position to give special recognition to the work of Messrs. Fowling and Budden, as it not only showed initiative and courage, but also the willingness to risk their own lives for the sake of others. The watches have the Royal Arms of the Netherlands engraved on the back of the cases, and on the inside is an inscription setting forth the facts, and stating that the presentation is made by the Netherlands Government in grateful recognition of an heroic act. Besides His Excellency the Governor, and his Aide de Camp, there were present, Colonel Sullivan, one of the representatives for the District of Placentia, the Deputy Colonial Secretary, who introduced the recipients and their friends to His Excellency, Mr. and Mrs. George Fowling, Rev. Ralph Fowling, Mr. and Mrs. Budden, and Mr. Bannister. This is not the first occasion upon which Mr. Fowling has rescued persons from sinking ships, as some 19 years ago, in passing Trinity Bay, he found the schooner "Tasso" bound from Bonavista to St. John's, with fish, in a sinking condition, and although a storm was raging, he stood by and took off the crew, saving them from a watery grave for the vessel foundered within half an hour after the crew had left her. Mr. Budden's brother was one of the rescuing party who took the survivors off the wrecked S.S. "Flotzel." His Excellency congratulated the wives of the recipients, and their friends, intimating how pleased he was to be the means for the recognition of such bravery which is so characteristic of Newfoundland seamen.

St. George's Day Wreath

Roses For Zebrugge Heroes at a London Hospital.

On St. George's Day (April 23) a beautiful wreath was laid at the door of the Genotaph in Whitehall by the Royal St. George's Society. In accordance with its custom, the society has a basket of red and white roses laid at Buckingham Palace.

The famous action at Zebrugge, St. George's Day, 1918, was remembered at one London hospital, where a number of seamen and marines are suffering for their gallantry on memorable occasions. Irises and fuchsias were presented to the men of those names, and roses to the men of other ships which part in the action.

At Dover a thanksgiving service at St. Mary's Church was attended by representatives of the Navy, Royal Marines, Army, and civic authorities.

The Prince at St. Paul's.

The Prince of Wales, Grand Master of the Order of St. Michael and George, was present at the service of the Order, held in St. Paul's Cathedral. The service was held in the Dome instead of in the Chapel of the Order, and the customary ceremonial of lowering the banners of the Knights Grand Cross who have and affixing in banners of those have been created in their place was not performed.—Daily Mail.
