The admission fee is only 20 cents, but it will be a half dollar programme. Do not miss it. The chair will be occupied by Mr. W. S. Caron, of Aylmer.

Orders have been given for the equipping with electric lights of eight of the new Wabash passenger coaches now under construction. Some time ago the Wabash made an experiment by wiring the private car of General Ramsey and installing storage batteries and incandescent lights, and so successful has been the experiment that it has been determined to have electricity gradually replace gas on all the coaches of the road. The new cars now being built include dining cars, parlor cars and cafe cars and were selected for the innovation because the wiring can be done more easily and satisfactorily while the cars are being built than could be done later.

Mr. D. H. Price left yesterday for Ottawa so as to attend other delegates from different parts of the Province, who will wait on the Dominion Government, and endeavor to secure an additional bounty on beet sugar manufactured in Canada.

The members of Malahide lodge No. 140. A. F. & A. M. intend to make next Friday evening, the 15th inst., a memorable one, as on that evening, Grand Master R. H. Hungersford, of London, will pay an official visit to the lodge. A banquet will be held at the close of the meeting, and with the great popularity of the Grand Master in Aylmer, it goes without saying that all who can will be there, and that everyone will have a good time.

On Friday last, Mrs. E. Caverly received a telegram announcing the fact that her sister, Mrs. (Dr.) P. W. Woolley, of Lapeer, Mich., was very low and not expected to live. Mrs. Caverly left by the first train on Saturday, and that evening another message was received saying Mrs. Woolley was dead. Mrs. John Nelson, sister of deceased, Mrs. E. Caverly, and Mrs. F. Trim, left on Monday to attend the funeral, which took place on Tuesday. Mrs. Woolley was well known throughout this section, and was a general favorite, owing to her pleasant and amiable disposition, and many other good traits of character, and it will be with feelings of deep regret that her death will be learned by of scores of old friends.

The following is taken from The Lapeer, Mich., Clarion:—Amid a wealth of floral tribute the remains of Mrs. Peter W. Woolley were laid to rest in Mt. Hope cemetery Tuesday last. Rev. A. K. Beem, formerly of this city, coming from Benton Harbor to conduct the service. The lady, while in impaired health for some time, retired Thursday night without thought of anything serious. She had suffered an attack of gripe for several days preceding. After taking her bed on the evening named, the disease seemed to go to her heart and she became very ill. Relief could not be obtained from the most skilful medical sources nor the tenderest care of loving hands. Death followed on Saturday about 3 p.m. The departed lady was 45 years of age. With her husband, Dr. Woolley, she had been a resident of this city some ten years, removing here from North Branch, in which town and Burnside she had her home for a decade or thereabouts. Dr. and Mrs. Woolley were laid in Ontario just a quarter of a century ago September last. Beside the afflicted husband there remain of the family, daughters, Miss Eliza and Miss Pearl, and son Floyd. Evidence of the love and esteem with which the departed was sincerely regarded, abounded in the bounteous and beautiful flowers bestowed, coming from neighbors, friends, fraternalists, church and other societies. Assisted by Funeral Director Brown, tenderly were the ashes deposited for the long sleep. Sympathy is universal and sincere for the bereaved, from whom has been taken a devoted wife, a loving mother, a kindly associate, a true and good woman.

Miss Bell O'Brien, who has been home here on a visit for a short time, returned to London on Monday to resume her position in a wholesale establishment in that city.

Among those women who have come into recent note by careful management of great wealth, is Miss Helen Miller Gould, daughter of Jay Gould, and sister-in-law of the extravagant Count de Castiglione. Miss Gould's work for the soldiers and sailors of the Spanish war is still fresh in the memory. Much that is unfamiliar regarding her gifts and her methods of giving is told by Mrs. Sarah K. Bolton in the March Delineator. Miss Gould is one who dislikes notoriety and therefore, one whose gifts often go unrecorded.

At a special meeting of Lodge Prince Albert, No. 61, Sons of England Benevolent Society, the following resolution was passed that a letter of condolence be drafted and the same printed by the local papers and inscribed on the minutes of the Lodge books. The resolution reads as follows:—We, the members of Prince Albert Lodge, No. 61, S. O. E., desire to record the deep sense of loss we feel by the death of our beloved Sovereign Queen Victoria. While the whole civilized world mourns the loss, we as a band of Englishmen, feel the loss to be a personal one. Her many and varied excellent qualities as a ruler, a mother, a woman and a friend, have never been excelled, and her memory will be revered by this society so long as the society exists. We extend that loyalty to her worthy successor King Edward VII, and sing with heart and voice "Long Live The King."

Dr. Edgar Haun

The Journal of Napa, Cal., publishes the following regarding Dr. Edgar Haun, whose death we recently reported.

This community has been profoundly shocked and grieved at the death of Dr. Edgar Haun, which occurred quite unexpectedly about half-past seven o'clock Wednesday morning.

The doctor was taken ill about a month ago with an affection that has been variously diagnosed as la gripe, neuralgia of the stomach, heart disease, angina pectoris, and several other ailments, and what he himself thought was la gripe, affecting particularly the nervous system of the pectoral cavity. After suffering excruciatingly for some time he became much better and was able to resume his business engagements, and Tuesday, and particularly Tuesday evening, he felt better than usual.

At seven o'clock Wednesday morning when Mrs. Haun left his room to prepare breakfast he was apparently feeling well, and half an hour later he was found dead in bed. There was no evidence of any struggle, and from all appearance his death was swift and painless.

Dr. Haun was a native of Aylmer, Ontario, and nearly 64 years of age. He came to Napa from Sierra county in 1878, and since that time has always occupied a prominent position among the people of the town and county, both as a medical practitioner and as a citizen. He was a man of public spirited and progressive and practical ideas, evidenced the county valuable service as Coroner and County Physician, and served the City of Napa equally well as a member of the Board of City Trustees. He also served on the local and county Boards of Health, and executed other public commissions with care and honor.

He was a member of Malahide Lodge, A. F. & A. M., of his native city, and the local lodges of A. O. U. W., K. of H., A. L. of H., and O. E. S. He also belonged to the lately defunct order of Chosen Friends, and his last words to his wife Wednesday morning were in reference to relieving the distress of a bereaved member of the local lodge of that order, which disbanded Tuesday night.

In private life Dr. Haun was a man whom it was a pleasure to know. He was well informed, generous and charitable, an upright citizen, a good friend, and kind and indulgent in his home circle. His bereaved family, with whom all sympathize, consists of his wife and four daughters, Mrs. O. Godwin, Mrs. C. A. Kather, and Misses Eva and Frankie Haun.
