At the Sarnia Assizes on Tuesday the grand jury returned a true bill against William B. Kenny, charged with bribing a municipal council. This is the case in which great interest has been taken, arising as it does out of the endeavor of the town to enter into a contract with the Bell Telephone Company to erect a fire alarm system there. An action was also tried to restrain the town from entering into the agreement. The case was argued, and judgment reserved. The grand jury found a true bill in Queen vs. Hines, charged with rape. A bench warrant has been issued for Hines' arrest. He is supposed to have left the country. The Assizes will probably not conclude before Friday or Saturday.
