tinued, "as it will both further the interests of the county and advertise our products and industries. The possibilities and opportunities of the county of Middlesex are unbounded and by the proper means of advertising will succeed in inducing laborers to come here and assist the farmers. Capital, which has been diverted to other counties, will be used in estabishing industries within our borders, and nothing will prevent Middlesex from taking its proper place as the pest county in any province in Canada hope that our immigraton representatve, who is in England at present, will be able to secure men to assist the farmers, but it behooves those who are supplied with help to use the men in the right manner. Important Matters. "There are several important mat-rs," he concluded, "that will be brought to the attention of the counil during the year. A committee will be appointed to confer with the city's committee on the alterations and improvements to the court house Much time has been lost during the past year, and it is a regrettable fact that the work was not carried on in a uicker manner. vill also have to be made with the ty in regard to the maintenance of he court house, jail and Victoria Hospital. All these questions will, I am sure, receive your earnest and careful onsideration, and I am positive that ou will use your best endeavors to make 1913 the best year in the history of the county of Middlesex. I thank ou one and all for the honor that you have given me, and I will endeavor to e considerate to each and every member of the council."
