CHICAGO

Chicago, March 10.—Wheat underwent a sharp break in price today during the early dealings. Developments at Washington in regard to the McNary bill were being watched closely, and with the government report on farm reserve due and snowfalls, general throughout the winter wheat belt, buyers were scarce, except after a decided downturn in values. The opening, which varied from unchanged figures to ½c to ½c lower, was followed by declines of as much as 2c in some cases.

Corn and oats declined in sympathy with wheat. After opening unchanged to ½c off, the corn market sagged all around, and then recovered to but little below Saturday's finish.

Oats started at ¾c lower to a shade of the started at the started to the lower to a shade of the started with the sagged and the started at the started to be shade of the started at the started to be started to be started at the started to be started to

Are You a Good Father?

Your Boy

A father's responsibility to his boy does not end

Would you have your boy step out into the world, with all its pitfalls, when he becomes 21 and inherits his share of your estate? Or would you like someone to carry on, helping him to build his life as you would have it built and keeping alive for him the very spirit of the protection you as his parent would have given him?

Many fatherless boys have their interests guarded by this company. If you are in doubt as to the proper planning of your son's future, feel free to consult us. Our experience has brought us in touch with all possible circumstances arising from the making of wills.

A booklet of valuable suggestions on the making of wills will be supplied on request,
