

DEW DROPS

VOL. IV.

TORONTO, MARCH 3, 1900.

No. 9.

ON THE WAY TO SLEEP-EYE TOWN.

From Peep o'-Day Station to Sleep-Eye Town is a whole day's journey. To some little folks it is a joyful trip, passing along by Bountiful Breakfast, Good Dinner, and Pleasant Supper—all delightful stopping places. This journey carries other children by the towns of Crusty Breakfast, Scant Dinner, and No Supper, into the land of Hungry Dreams. Here are three little folks who look as if their trip had been a glad one to day; and now they are climbing upstairs to take the sleeping car to Dreamland.