Extracts of Letters from Supply Committee.

"The box "ou kindly sent has come to hand, and, as you may be sure, the contents carefully looked over. Had I been with you in the selection I could not have done better, and likely not so well. We are very thankful; it will save us a good many dollars, or the want of a good many necessary things. We are very grateful for your thoughtful sympathy."
The "Busy Bees" Mission Band, of Montreal East, have prepared and sent a box of clothing for the children at the Moose Woods Iteserve, Saskatoon, and have kindly taken this Mission under their special charge to prepare clothing for them each winter.

A small bale from Picton has also been sent to this reserve. A box will shouly go from the Mission Band at Inge soil, and another from Oshawa Mission Band.

The following letter was received from the Indian pastor at the Gibson Reserve, Muskoka, after receiving bales of clothing from

Pickering, Woodham, and Lordon South Mission Circle:-

"I received all what you so kindly sent to us; we are greatly thankful for what you have done for us; your kindly work will not be forgotten. I will try and divide the contents evenly among our poor ones.

Acr. J. Webster, North Bay, tenders his hearty thanks to the Broadway Tabernacle Sunday School, for a large case of clothing sent to him for distribution. He says: "We are making good use of the same. Much good can be done by making use of such

In acknowledging the receipt of a market of goods from Wellace, N.S., and a box of bedding and clothing from Belleville, Bridge Street, and "Willing Workers" Sunday School clazs, Belleville, Miss Hart, "Crosby Home," saya: "The boxes arrived to-day, and truly they were acceptable boxes. We are getting such a nice supply of bed clothing. Of course when we come to fix out fifty bods we are far short, but for the present number we are well emplied. It are at beautiful to receive the chart and willow. well supplied. I am so thankful to receive the sheet; and pillowcases, as we have been in special need in that line, and during this sickness have borrowed some of the 'Glad Tidings' sheets. Everything is so useful, it is a real pleasure to unpack such boxes. The quilts, etc., for the hospital (sent from Rednersville Centre church, I sent to the Doctor's: I know they are glad to get them, they will need so much in that line."

Parcels and boxes sent to Toronto for shipment to missions, should be addressed to Mrs. Briggs, Methodist Book Room, Richmand Street West, Toronto. If the name of the place sending, as well as their destination, is put on the label, it will save much trouble to the Committee. Freight charges on cases to British Columbia are four cents per pound; parties sending par-cels and boxes to Toronto for shipment would greatly oblige by remitting amount when they send their goods, thereby aving much time and correspondence. Goods sent to the North-West may be sent direct to missions. If a list of articles in box, with value attached to each article, weight of case, and freight bill, be sent to Mrs. Briggs, they will be sent to the Indian Department at Ottawa, and the amount of freight will be refunded. This only applies to the North-West, as the Indians are mainly
