A MECHANICAL WONDER! THE ONLY SELF-ACTING WASHING MACHINE IN THE WORLD. A New Motive Power Discovered—Expansion of Heat Does it All.

A cylinder made to revolve under water at the rate of 40 to 60 revolutions per minute. A thing never accomplished before. Clothes made to pass rapidly through water, boiling hot in this manner, are washed most speedily and thoroughly in thirty (30) minutes without about, wear or tear. No skill required. A child can operate it, and it cannot get out of order. The most wonderful washing machine or device ever invented. We want every family in the United States to write us for further information regarding this greatest discovery of the age. We earnestly request everyone who has bought any of the washers so largely advertised by other companies in the United States, to write to us. We wish to place this Self-Acting Washer in the hands of every family in the land, and offer extraordinary inducements to good men to engage in the business of selling it for a limited time. Address at once for descriptive pamphlet and terms,

Scientific and Useful.

SPEARMINT tea is very good for children troubled with worms. I have seen sage used for the same purpose.

A FLANNEL folded several times and heated on the stove will, if changed often, relieve severe pain in the side or stomach.

FOR toothache caused by cold, take a wool- len cloth of several thicknesses wet with vinegar and put over a hot brick or stone, with something thrown over the head to keep in all the steam.

TART, juicy fall apples make good jelly. Boil the juice of the fruit in jelly, making to quite a consistency before adding the sugar. Lay over the top of all jellies a round of white paper dipped in brandy. If mould appears, it takes its seat on the top of the paper.

SOUR milk is an excellent bleacher. Place the garment in an earthen bowl or wooden pail and cover entirely with the milk. Let it remain two or three days, taking pains now and then to shake it thoroughly. Then after washing and boiling, it will be found of pure white. For tablecloths and napkins that have become stained and yellow, this is a good cure.

A GOOD way to make starch is this: dissolve the starch in a little cold water, have water boiling in the tea-kettle, and when the starch is entirely dissolved pour the boiling water over it, stirring it until it is thick; this is all the cooking the starch needs; blue it slightly, and add to it a bit of sperm or clean lard. There is no danger of lumps or of the starch burning, and so being filled with black specks, prepared in this way; but unless the water is actually boiling when you pour it over the starch, your labour will have been in vain.

HOPS have many uses. A handful of them steeped in a quart bowl (always steep in earthen) of water until the strength is extracted, strained and sweetened with loaf sugar, and bottled for use, is as good or better than any hop bitters ever purchased. Dose, one glass full taken three times a day; is a good antibilious alterative and tonic for ordinary family purposes. For outward application, make some small bags of cotton six inches square and fill with hops. When the face aches, or the head is in pain, or the throat and chest are sore, heat one or more of these bags very hot, up to scorching the cloth even, and apply to the suffering part. It is a great improvement on wet cloths, or wet applications of any kind.

VERY few persons are aware what a valuable auxiliary turpentine is in many diseases. It is a sovereign remedy for croup. Saturate a piece of flannel in it, and place the flannel on the throat and chest, and occasionally two or three drops on a lump of sugar may be taken inwardly. Nothing better than turpentine can be applied to a severe cut or bruise, and it will give certain relief almost instantly. Let any one who has an attack of lockjaw take a small quantity of turpentine, warm it and pour on the wound, no matter where it is, and relief will follow in less than a minute. Flannel cloth wrung out of turpentine into hot water, as hot as the patient can bear, is one of the best of remedies for inflammation.

HOW AN ARTIST TREATED HIS VISITOR.
 To the Editor of the Salem (Mass.) Register: I would have accepted your kind invitation to visit you in your new quarters with pleasure before this, had not my old enemy, Mr. Rheumatism, pounced on me so suddenly. He arrived last Friday, and, without stopping to send up his card, rushed in and grasped me by the hand with such a grip that my hand and wrist were so badly swollen and painful that I felt as though one of Mr. Hatch's coal teams had run over me. Mr. Rheumatism has been a constant visitor of mine for several years, always swells and puts on a great many airs and makes himself at home, devouring my substance and leaving me poor in flesh and pocket. Last winter he came and stayed two months. I then made up my mind that the next time he came I would change his diet, as he has always gobbled down everything set before him. I was somewhat at a loss what to feed him with, but finally concluded to give him three square meals a day of St. Jacobs Oil—morning, noon and night. This fare he is digested with, and is packing up his trunk and will leave by to-morrow or next day; says he cannot stop any longer, as he has pressing business elsewhere. He is a treacherous fellow, and I have no doubt he intends visiting some of our Salem friends; and if he does, just give him the same fare that I did, and he won't stop long.
