THE

CANADIAN INDEPENDENT.

(NEW SERIES.)

Vol. VII.]

TORONTO, FEBRUARY, 1887.

[No. 2.

Editorial Jottings.

has been selected as the acting pastor of Ply-!means of the Hebrew New Testament. mouth church, at the same salary paid Mr.; Beecher. He will also retain his editorial connection with the Christian Union.

AT Mr. McAdie's ordination at St. Andrew's, the statement was made, on behalf of th church, that "the stipend they offered was very small, but the prayer meetings were full." Go on, Brother McAdie! you will find both work and bread.

From a history of American Presbyterianism, now appearing in a New York journal, it appears that the Huguenot was the original Presbyterian element in the New World. on Nasemond River, and it was to this colony

McKinnon's letters, and then act accordingly? out for a "vigorous policy in Manitoba!" (1) let them each send ten dollars to honest young John Brown, Wood Bay, the treasurer of the for the INDEPENDENT /

Franz Delitzsch. Within the last eight years and other foreign schools.

over 50,000 copies of the work have been distributed among European and Asiatic Jews. On another page will be found an account of WE see it stated that Rev. Lyman Abbott Rabinowitsch, brought to see the truth by

> WE elsewhere print the circular of the Ottawa Church, asking for help in their new enterprise. When the Union met there last year, everyone advised them to make their building what a representative Congregational church building ought to be, at the National Capital. The photograph they send us, shows the new improvements to be solid, sensible and beautiful; and with no unnecessary ex-They deserve help. If any kind friends would like to see the photo before subscribing, please send to A. Crawley, Ottawa.

AN exchange says: "The most effective, and perhaps most equitable way to obviate the There was an English Presbyterian settlement difficulties that have arisen in regard to exempting the incomes of Protestant and Caththat the Mayflower set sail, the vessel's course olic clergymen, would be to abolish exemptions being changed to Plymouth by contrary winds, on all incomes." We think, that in view of the many opportunities for fraud in the mat-WILL our friends read Mr. Hall's and Mr. ter, it were better to abolish, not the exemptions, but the tax itself on incomes; and then Where are the men who have been calling abolish all exemptions on buildings or land of any kind.

THE Turkish Government has been on the church (son of our old friend, Rev. Robert whole very tolerant of Christian Missions: Brown—"Instead of thy fathers shall be thy looking upon them as mainly intended to children!"); and (2) cannot some one be got operate among the subject-races. But now, in every church, to secure new subscribers when Girls Schools and other instrumentalities are bringing the Gospel among the Turks themselves, the Government is getting repres-One of the recent most noted instrument- sive. Intelligence has been received by the dities for the evangelization of the Jews, has American Board of Foreign Missions, that the been the Hebrew translation of the New Tes- Turkish Government is revising its school tament by the illustrious German scholar, laws, with the aim of suppressing American