

The Book of the Day.

With KITCHENER to KHARTOUM,

By J. W. Steevens, The Famous War Correspondent of "The London Daily Mail."

With Maps and Illustrations; PRICE, $1.50.

"He gives us a picture of the Soudan of to-day that is absolutely marvellous, and he shows us a rush of Dervishes, or a charge of our own Lancers, with a few brilliant strokes. . . . The book is full of such instances. 'With Kitchener to Khartoum' is a magnificent performance—modern to the last degree of up-to-dateness, yet full of that old spirit which takes pride in fighting well-done, and in the steady growth of Britain's borders."

IAN MACLAREN says in The British Weekly:—"The author has made his own and a distinct contribution to the reading of Argyle's character. He understands the subtle Celtic nature as neither Sir Walter nor Stevenson could, and his descriptions of land and water are exact, affluent and distinguished, indeed nothing better of this kind has been done in recent years. Mr. Munro writes of Celtic character from the inside."

The Battle of the Strong. By Gilbert Parker.

PRICE: Paper, 75 Cents. Cloth, $1.25.

"It is a more complicated and elaborate work than 'The Seats of the Mighty.' It is also more purely imaginative, and the creative work is more ambitious. . . . It shows at least equal success on a grander scale. . . . It is splendidly dramatic. Mr. Parker has in this book finally proved himself a master of imaginative fiction. He has given us of his best, and his best deserves very high praise. . . . Modern fiction has few finer examples of the perfect woman."—Scotsman.
