Mercantile Summary.

— The insolvent dry goods stock of James F.
 Egan & Bros., Hamilton, amounting to $28,000, will be sold to the highest tender on or about the 17th inst.

—Messrs. Barbour Bros. have inaugurated a novel application of linen thread, in the shape of handsome embroidery and fringes in the natural color. It can be used for fringes for table covers and curtains and many other purposes, and need not be confined to the natural color, but can be used in all the rich colors which flax thread is capable of taking. Ladies are now beginning to use this as something new in fancy work.

— The St. Paul, Minn., Chamber of Commerce is looking into the subject of sorghum cultivation as a solution of the grasshopper question.
 It has been demonstrated that the Chinese cane possesses no attractions for the epicurean locust, and also that it can be grown to advantage as a sure crop, and manufactured into sugar and syrup with a handsome profit to the farmer.
 Necessity may then prove to be the mother of an expedient which will turn the grasshopper curse into a blessing.
