Halifax is a great shipping port. Last year 689 vessels arrived there from foreign ports, of which 331 were steamers. This is about equal to between a sixth and a seventh of the foreign shipping at New York. In the coasting trade the arrivals were 3,200, or equal to nearly one-half the total coasting arrivals at New York. This is something for a Maritime port to be proud of.—Moncton Times.

To its many other new enterprises, Moncton is now adding that of an agricultural implement factory. The Capital of the Company is $30,000; the Act of Incorporation has been applied for, and the building will be immediately erected. This while Windsor and Truro are "talking" about starting an implement factory, Moncton is erecting a building and will have it in operation before those places have made up their minds what to do.

The Company are to build the section of the Western Counties Road between Annapolis and Digby, a Branch from Pictou town to the Intercolonial and a branch from Windsor Junction to Dartmouth, receiving in the latter case the subsidy of $1,000 per mile for 20 years voted by the Dartmouth Town Council. THE ELECTRICAL GIRL WHO LIVES AGAIN

It is now about three years since the Advertiser published the story of the Electrical Girl in the township of Romby. The tale passed through nearly all of our exchanges, and occasionally re-appears now. The story in brief was that the girl was so highly charged with electricity that she could not handle any article of steel. She was a veritable magnet, and needles, knives, etc., would cling to any part of her person. The publication excited a good deal of curiosity concerning the girl, and many people called upon her at her home. Recently she was taken ill, and the local physicians were called in. She described her peculiar sensations. In her knee joints severe pains were felt shooting at intervals, as though a battery were at work and giving her intermittent shocks. The knee began to swell, and the pains spread to other parts of her body, generally becoming permanent in the joints. All the doctors could do was of very little avail. Occasionally slight relief would be obtained, but in wet or murky weather the pains would redouble in violence. Finally when the doctors had given up treating her, and regarded her simply as a physiological wonder, a tramp called one day at the house. While he was being given a meal he was told about and asked permission to see the girl. He had been a soldier in the Crimean army and while working in the trenches around St. Petersburg he contracted rheumatism in its most severe form, and noticing that the girl's symptoms agreed with his, he pronounced her to be suffering from rheumatism. The parents of the girl were overjoyed, but were again cast down as they recalled the fact that the doctors had said they could do nothing for her. "Why," said the tramp, "do you want to bother the doctors about rheumatism? Get a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil. It cured me, and will cure any case. I know plenty of old soldiers who have been cured of chronic rheumatism by the use of St. Jacobs Oil." The advice was taken, and the so-called Electrical Girl is to-day prepared to add her testimony to the thousands of others who bear witness to the efficacy of the Great German Remedy.

To the Editor of the London (Can.) Advertiser.

Dear sir:—As you have given me a good deal of notoriety by writing of me as the Electrical Girl, I thought I would write to tell you of my condition. * * * (Here follows the recital which is summarized above.) My parents obtained a bottle of St. Jacobs Oil, and to its effects I owe the fact that I am now able to walk without pain, and the swellings in the joints have all disappeared.

Yours very truly,
SCRAJ J. HOFFMAN.
