Institutes.

This edition contains nearly 900 Problems. The Examination Papers for 1892. The answers to all the Problems are given. No other work possesses these features.

Read What Teachers and Inspec- tors Say of it:—

I am highly pleased with your Arithmetical Problems for Senior classes. It suits my Entrance candidates exactly. A book such as this is needed by every Fourth Class pupil.—GEO. KIRK, Head Master M.S., Chatham.

I have just examined your Arithmetical Problems for Senior Classes. The problems are very suitable and the collection must prove very valuable to teachers. I heartily commend it.—G. D. PLATT, B.A., P. S. Inspector, Prince Edward.

After a careful examination of your "Arithmetical Problems for Senior Classes," I find them well graded and very suitable for the purpose intended. The teacher who uses them for home or class work, will save himself a vast amount of labor, and in all probability secure to his pupils much better results.—J. S.
DEACON, Inspector, Halton.

I have no hesitation in saying that for the purpose for which it is intended the work is infinitely the best with which I am acquainted. Its strong point, to my idea, is the logical sequence in the problems by which the pupil is almost insensibly led on step by step until he reaches quite a difficult style of question. The printer, too, has done his work very well, and there are but few typographical errors. I shall certainly recommend every teacher in my inspectorate to use a copy.—J. C. MORGAN, M.A., Inspector, Barrie.

Primary Recitations

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND

Lessons in Primary Elocution

A collection of appropriate recitations for young children not further advanced than the First Reader, and lessons in elocution suited to their capacity.

The selections have been made with great care from the best of similar works, and there is nothing in child-literature published that is better calculated to assist in accomplishing the end sought, viz.: the cultivation of a more perfect elocution and the foundation of a literary taste among the little ones. The lessons in elocution are particularly well adapted for children of the primary classes, and include exercises in breathing, voice development, and distinct articulation.
They are suitable for home practice as well as school, and every child should be thoroughly and systematically trained in them.

Sir Morell Mackenzie in "The Hygiene of the Speaking Voice" says: "As to commencing the education of speaking (which, of course, includes the reading) voice, it can hardly be begun too soon." This book aims to aid the teacher in making this beginning.
