Ste. Rose du Lac.

August 16th, 1897.

All Ste. Rose, like other places, is haymaking. The crops are looking splendid, and everyone hopes for a good harvest. Some barley has already been cut and Mr. Dick Robinson has begun cutting his wheat. We are more fortunate than the settlers round Dauphin, where most serious damage has been done, by hail, Father Lecoq has a small crop of the formerly of Winnipeg. finest wheat in the neighborhood.

The roof of the new presbytery has recently been painted.

The inhabitants of Ste. BRIEFLETS.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier, in a recent interview since his return, says that the three personages that impressed him most deeply were the Queen, Mr. Gladstone and Leo XII. How would it do for a Catholic to have reversed the order, or at least put the Pope first?

* Rev. Father Cherrier returned yesterday from La Salle, where he made Latin Literature for Columbia University arrangements for the re-opening of the La Salle school, and also organized a new school, called "The College School," on property belonging to the Corporation of St. Hyacinth College. From fifteen to twenty pupils are expected to attend this latter school.

The Wesley College calendar for 1897-8 is to hand. It is a neat pamphlet of 76 pages, 43 of which are taken up with the usual reprint of the Uni-Versity curriculum and the rest with now all of a sudden we read these few matters of special interest to Wesleyans. Free and Compulsory.

There is probably in our whole system to-day no principle so fundamentally untrue as free and compulsory education, and there is certainly none that is fraught with so much social and political peril for the future.-Mr Peck, Professor of in "The Cosmopolitan," July, 1897, p. 269.

BUYING DRUGS

Is entirely a matter of confidence, as in no other business is sophistication easier; nor does any other avenue afford so ready a means of disposing of worthless articles. You can buy a pair of snoes for $1 or $10-it's entirely a matter of quality. There is as much difference in the quality of drugs as there is in shoes, except in purchasing one you can use your own judgment, in buying the other you are en. tirely dependent upon the honesty and judgment of the Druggist. In one case it is only a matter of comfort and appearance, and in the other frequently of LIFE or DEATH.

You can always rely with the utmost confidence on the DRUGS and Medicines which you get at
