

Hockey promises to be brisk during the coming winter. Toronto will undoubtedly have a team in the big pro. league. The new arena in Toronto is underway and will provide a sheet of artificial ice, thus ensuring regular matches in the Queen city whose climate is so uncertain in the winter.

This is the season when walking should be in vogue. It cannot be surpassed as a healthy form of exercise. The roads in the vicinity of our cities are on the whole good, and nothing can be more refreshing than a good ten mile jaunt on a fine Saturday afternoon. Much more beneficial than the auto, gentlemen—and ladies!
