

FALL MEETING 1984

As already announced, this will take place at Calvin College, Grand Rapids, Mich., on October 19 and 20. We have sent out detailed programmes to as many members as possible (about 200); for those who live farther away, as a matter of interest, here it is:

Friday October 19 / le vendredi 19 octobre

- 7.05p.m. Welcome: Dr. Anthony Diekema
President of Calvin College
- 7.15p.m. Henriette ten Harmsel: "The Poems of Annie M. G. Schmidt: The Case for Free Translation"
- 7.45p.m. John Michielsen: "Occupied Holland in the Novels of Hermans, Westdijk and Mulisch"
- 8.15p.m. August Dierick: "Stempelen en doppen: Reflections on the Economic Crisis of the 1930's in Two Novels of Holland and Belgium"
- 8.45p.m. Coffee Break
- 9.00p.m. Stanley Wiersma: "An Hour with Sietze Buning"

Saturday October 20 / le samedi 20 octobre

- 8.45a.m. Robert Swierenga: "Catholic and Protestant Immigrants from the Netherlands in the Nineteenth Century: A Comparative Analysis"
- 9.30a.m. Herbert Brinks: "Border Crossings: Patterns of Immigration between Canada and the USA"
- 10.00a.m. Coffee Break
- 10.15a.m. Basil Kingstone: "Arthur van Schendel's Novel 'De grauwe vogels'"
- 10.45a.m. Alexander Zweers: "An Analysis of Frederik van Eeden's 'Van de koele meeren des doods'"