

instruments of ratification have been exchanged which shall take place in Warsaw.

- (2) This Treaty shall remain in force for an unspecified period of time. Either Party may terminate it at any time. Termination shall become effective on the first day of the sixth month following the month in which the other Party receives the notice of termination.