

PREFACE

The views expressed in this paper are those of the author, and do not necessarily reflect the views or positions of the Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade or of the Government of Canada.

The International Security Research and Outreach Programme commissioned a report that will evaluate China's new security concept and the prospects for participation in arms control, notably the non-weaponization of space and the Chinese perceptions of the role of the revolution in military affairs (RMA).

The Department of Foreign Affairs and International Trade wishes to acknowledge the work performed under contract through the International Security Research and Outreach Programme in the preparation of this report by the author: Ronald Keith.
