

thereof. The said Corporation may receive donations or bequests of real estate, on condition that all not required for actual occupancy shall be sold within seven years after it shall have come into the possession of the Corporation; Provided, that the whole real property of the said Corporation shall not at any time exceed in annual value five thousand dollars.

11. No bequest in favor of the said Corporation shall be valid, unless made at least six months before the death of the person making the same.

12. The said Corporation shall have power to administer their affairs by such and so many directors and officers, and under such restrictions as may be from time to time ordained by by-law, and they may assign to any such officers such remuneration as they may deem just and requisite, and they may from time to time, by a majority of votes at any duly called meeting, establish and put into operation such by-laws, ordinary rules and regulations (the same not being contrary to this Act, or to the laws in force in this Province) as may appear to them necessary or expedient, and may from time to time amend or repeal the same; but no by-law or alteration shall ever be made tending to alter the character of the Association as a Homœopathic Institution. ~~X~~

13. The said Corporation shall at all times, when thereunto required by the Governor, or either House of the Legislature, make a full return of their property, real and personal, and of their receipts and expenditures, for such period, and with such details and other information as the Governor or either House of the Legislature may require.

14. This Act shall be deemed a public Act.
