

Housekeeping, Nursery Gardening and News of Interest to Women

LAWYER CUPID WINS IN COURT

Fee is Blushing Damsel Anxious to Become a Bride.

CHICAGO, Oct. 20.—It is not often that romance runs the machinery of the law in the speediest court, but a few words whispered in Municipal Judge Fry's ear by Attorney Dan Cupid in the case of the City of Chicago v. Hyman Edelman, 129 South Troy street, wealthy shirt manufacturer, won a suit for Attorney Joseph W. Schulman and saved Mr. Edelman from being fined.

A few weeks ago Attorney Schulman "filed" suit for the hand of Miss Edelman (a marriage). Now, it happened that on the very evening that the lawyer popped the question, Mr. Edelman had been informed by Motorcycle Policeman Fred Amort that he was driving his automobile at a speed of twenty-five miles an hour in Ogden avenue.

Mr. Edelman had just returned from the police station when Attorney Schulman "filed" his suit, and the manufacturer, according to his mood, reacted with an emphatic demurrer. When the attorney learned of the charge against Edelman he asked to be retained as counsel.

"And the fee?" asked the manufacturer.

"Your daughter, if I win the case," agreed.

Then the lawyer engaged Attorney Cupid to assist in the defense.

The "fee" accompanied her father and the attorney to court and elicited a smile when the manufacturer explained that he "wasn't watching his speedometer." The smile soon faded, however, when Judge Fry said there was nothing to do but impose a fine. Whereupon Miss Edelman edged her way to Assistant State's Attorney James Dooley and whispered in his ear.

"Your honor, the state does not insist on a fine in this case," said the prosecutor.

"There is too much at stake," then he explained to the court. Judge Fry smiled.

"In that event, I will not fine Mr. Edelman," he said. "Instead, I shall enter an order paroling him to his prospective son-in-law, Attorney Schulman."

And Attorney Cupid chuckled. It was his first case in the speediest court, and he had won.

This was Miss Kenney's first appearance in public since her release and she reached the hall in an ambulance, escorted by a guard of militant suffragettes in taxicabs.

The stretcher, supported on chairs, was placed in the middle of the platform, where Miss Kenney lay motionless and only able to whisper a few words to her friends.

What is claimed to be the last word in scientific detection of criminals is the photographing of the backs of hands. The great objection made to the finger-print system, says London Answers, is that the trustworthiness as far as it goes, being based on the fact that no two people in the world have the same pattern on the tips of their fingers, it is easily made useless by the wearing of gloves or by having the finger tips deliberately defaced.

But the newer system will baffles even the wisest of burglars. The network of tiny veins on the back of a man's hand is as much peculiar to himself as the pattern on his finger-tips. The chances are billions to one against two men's hands showing the same arrangements of veins.

The photograph is taken after the hand has been allowed to dangle down for a minute or two, so that the rush of blood may make the network of veins stand out prominently. One scientist has suggested binding the wrist with a tight bandage for the same purpose.

The advantage over the finger-print system is that no one can attempt to alter the arrangements of the veins without running great danger of bleeding to death.

Hebron, one of the oldest cities in Palestine, has always been famous for its oriental water bottles, made of goatskins. Here, says a writer in the Wide World Magazine, you could find lanterns where these receptacles are turned out by the thousands. The "water-makers' market" being situated to the east of the ancient city.

Lying upon the ground in rows may be seen between two hundred and three hundred goatskins awaiting purchasers. Each skin is inflated, often with water or with air, so that the buyer may know it is perfectly water-tight.

The majority of the skins used come from Arabia, while a large number are also received from the Lebanon. They are brought to Hebron by the camel caravans, and are purchased by the tanneries and turned into bottles. They pass through many processes, and a tanner will spend a week upon a single skin before it is rendered water-tight and serviceable.

From Hebron these "bottles" are sent to all parts of the east, thousands going down into Egypt and the Sudan every year. They are also used as rafts. A number of inflated skins are attached to a light wooden frame, which then not only floats, but is a capable of carrying quite a heavy load. Such craft are to be seen upon the rivers of Syria and also upon the Euphrates and Tigris.

WENT TO MILITANT RALLY ON STRETCHER

Miss Kenney Vociferously Cheered by Suffragettes—Looked Very Feeble.

LONDON, Oct. 20.—(Can. Press).—A dramatic appearance at the weekly suffragettes' meeting was made today by Miss Annie Kenney, organizer of the Women's Social and Political Union, the militant suffragette organization. Suffering from the effects of a "hunger strike" in Holloway Jail, the idol of the women's movement, looking extremely feeble, was borne into the hall on a stretcher and given a memorable reception by the crowded audience of women who stood on chairs and cheered until they were weary.

Her husband, Mr. Kenney, who is a member of the House of Commons, was also present, and he was seen to whisper a few words to her friends.

She was borne into the hall on a stretcher and given a memorable reception by the crowded audience of women who stood on chairs and cheered until they were weary.

GOOPS

By GELETT BURGESS

ANGOSTURA JEWETT

I think that nothing is so rude

As to complain about your food.

And no one but a Goop would do it—

For instance—

Angostura Jewett.

This Goop complains of all her meals!

Imagine how her mother feels!

Don't Be A Goop!

by Miss Annie Kenney, organizer of the Women's Social and Political Union, the militant suffragette organization.

Suffering from the effects of a "hunger strike" in Holloway Jail, the idol of the women's movement, looking extremely feeble, was borne into the hall on a stretcher and given a memorable reception by the crowded audience of women who stood on chairs and cheered until they were weary.

Her husband, Mr. Kenney, who is a member of the House of Commons, was also present, and he was seen to whisper a few words to her friends.

She was borne into the hall on a stretcher and given a memorable reception by the crowded audience of women who stood on chairs and cheered until they were weary.

by Miss Annie Kenney, organizer of the Women's Social and Political Union, the militant suffragette organization.

Suffering from the effects of a "hunger strike" in Holloway Jail, the idol of the women's movement, looking extremely feeble, was borne into the hall on a stretcher and given a memorable reception by the crowded audience of women who stood on chairs and cheered until they were weary.

Her husband, Mr. Kenney, who is a member of the House of Commons, was also present, and he was seen to whisper a few words to her friends.

She was borne into the hall on a stretcher and given a memorable reception by the crowded audience of women who stood on chairs and cheered until they were weary.

by Miss Annie Kenney, organizer of the Women's Social and Political Union, the militant suffragette organization.

Suffering from the effects of a "hunger strike" in Holloway Jail, the idol of the women's movement, looking extremely feeble, was borne into the hall on a stretcher and given a memorable reception by the crowded audience of women who stood on chairs and cheered until they were weary.

Her husband, Mr. Kenney, who is a member of the House of Commons, was also present, and he was seen to whisper a few words to her friends.

She was borne into the hall on a stretcher and given a memorable reception by the crowded audience of women who stood on chairs and cheered until they were weary.

by Miss Annie Kenney, organizer of the Women's Social and Political Union, the militant suffragette organization.

Suffering from the effects of a "hunger strike" in Holloway Jail, the idol of the women's movement, looking extremely feeble, was borne into the hall on a stretcher and given a memorable reception by the crowded audience of women who stood on chairs and cheered until they were weary.

Her husband, Mr. Kenney, who is a member of the House of Commons, was also present, and he was seen to whisper a few words to her friends.

She was borne into the hall on a stretcher and given a memorable reception by the crowded audience of women who stood on chairs and cheered until they were weary.

by Miss Annie Kenney, organizer of the Women's Social and Political Union, the militant suffragette organization.

Suffering from the effects of a "hunger strike" in Holloway Jail, the idol of the women's movement, looking extremely feeble, was borne into the hall on a stretcher and given a memorable reception by the crowded audience of women who stood on chairs and cheered until they were weary.

Her husband, Mr. Kenney, who is a member of the House of Commons, was also present, and he was seen to whisper a few words to her friends.

She was borne into the hall on a stretcher and given a memorable reception by the crowded audience of women who stood on chairs and cheered until they were weary.

by Miss Annie Kenney, organizer of the Women's Social and Political Union, the militant suffragette organization.

Suffering from the effects of a "hunger strike" in Holloway Jail, the idol of the women's movement, looking extremely feeble, was borne into the hall on a stretcher and given a memorable reception by the crowded audience of women who stood on chairs and cheered until they were weary.

Her husband, Mr. Kenney, who is a member of the House of Commons, was also present, and he was seen to whisper a few words to her friends.

EFFICIENT HOUSEKEEPING

BY HENRIETTA D. GRAUEL

DOMESTIC SCIENCE LECTURER

Some Hallowe'en Nonsense

HANKSGIVING DAY was the last holiday we celebrated, so now we will commence to get ready for some Hallowe'en fun.

The hearty, simple decorations appropriate to this jolly night look better in outdoor buildings than in the house. Besides, the fun out there may be fast and furious without endangering furniture, decoration or startling nerves.

Heaps of pumpkins, barrels of rosy apples, glowing boughs of maple and oak leaves, sheaves of wheat and stacks of corn shocks will make the interior of any barn or garage attractive.

According to time-honored practice fires are lighted on this night; this is a relic of Druidism, as these ancients annually relit their fires on All Saints' night. So when all your guests have arrived you may have a heap of brush ready to light.

Introductions on the lawn, in the freelight with pumpkin lantern glow and moonbeam's light to help out can be made into a pretty ceremony.

To try fortunes and tell tales may be accomplished with English waltzes. Each couple of guests is given one walnut, which they separate into two even halves and eat the kernel. While eating this nut they must wish earnestly for something much desired. Now give them a tiny taper (such as is used on birthday cakes), for each half of the shell. This little taper must be lit and fastened with its dripping to the centre of the shell.

When all are ready place a shallow tub of water on a stand and launch the boats. They represent a couple on the sea of life; if the tiny candle burns steadily, and the boats sail together gently, it augurs well; if they separate, quarrels are imminent; if the two boats cling to the side of the tub they are stay-at-homes. The mistress of this pretty ceremony should be imaginative and well acquainted with her guests.

Refreshments should be served during the evening. Nuts, popcorn and apples will have been nibbled at during the hours previous so your menu will not need to be elaborate. When tables groan, guests often do the same.

Tomorrow I will give directions for making mulled cider and baking spiced ham, as well as an appropriate menu.

THE GARDEN

CONDUCTED BY RACHEL R. TODD

THE VALUE OF CONSTANT ALERTNESS

At the risk of dwelling too long on the same subject—albeit from experience we know this is not possible, simply because so many people either will not or cannot learn—we must continue our talk on pests, and the necessity of vigilance.

And to prove our statement, it is only necessary for the good people of this town, especially those who take so much delight in their gardens, to throw their minds back but a very few years, until they recall the time when our streets were lined with splendid trees, unblemished by blight or insect ravages.

At first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees. But, having once skeletoned a tree, the pest, the Moth, at first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees. But, having once skeletoned a tree, the pest, the Moth, at first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees.

At first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees. But, having once skeletoned a tree, the pest, the Moth, at first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees.

At first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees. But, having once skeletoned a tree, the pest, the Moth, at first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees.

At first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees. But, having once skeletoned a tree, the pest, the Moth, at first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees.

At first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees. But, having once skeletoned a tree, the pest, the Moth, at first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees.

At first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees. But, having once skeletoned a tree, the pest, the Moth, at first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees.

At first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees. But, having once skeletoned a tree, the pest, the Moth, at first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees.

At first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees. But, having once skeletoned a tree, the pest, the Moth, at first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees.

At first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees. But, having once skeletoned a tree, the pest, the Moth, at first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees.

At first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees. But, having once skeletoned a tree, the pest, the Moth, at first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees.

At first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees. But, having once skeletoned a tree, the pest, the Moth, at first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees.

At first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees. But, having once skeletoned a tree, the pest, the Moth, at first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees.

At first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees. But, having once skeletoned a tree, the pest, the Moth, at first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees.

At first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees. But, having once skeletoned a tree, the pest, the Moth, at first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees.

At first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees. But, having once skeletoned a tree, the pest, the Moth, at first, as far as we can remember, his ravages were confined to the horse chestnut trees.

Hear them at the Fashion Show

Zantello Nordica Caroline White Segura Pasquelli Fremstad Slezak
Destinn Orville Harrold Bispham Cavalieri Maria Gay Nielsen Mary Gowan

Parlow Ysaye Bonci Hofmann Friedheim Scharwenka

The best records ever made by a majority of the world's greatest artists, are Columbia Records

Ask us to play at least one record by each of them.

David Bispham, America's foremost baritone. Nielsen, the grand opera prima donna, also famous for her ballad singing.

Bonci, the world's most artistic singer. Nordica, the greatest singer America has produced.

Cavalieri, the great Italian operatic soprano. Kathleen Parlow, the world's greatest woman pianist.

Emmy Destinn, the great dramatic soprano of the Metropolitan Opera House. Segura, the brilliant coloratura soprano of the Metropolitan Opera House.

Friedheim, the world famous pianist. Scharwenka, the Russian composer and pianist.

Fremstad, whose Wagnerian portrayals have brought her world-wide fame. Segura, basso of the Metropolitan Opera House.

Mary Garden, the American artist who made French Opera famous. Slezak, the premier tenor of the Metropolitan Opera House.

Carolina White, prima donna soprano of the Philadelphia-Chicago Opera Company. Carolina White, prima donna soprano of the Philadelphia-Chicago Opera Company.

Ysaye, the world's greatest master of the violin. Ysaye, the world's greatest master of the violin.

Zenatello, the celebrated Italian tenor. Zenatello, the celebrated Italian tenor.

Every great artist who has ever made records (without an exception) can be heard on your Columbia Grafonola

Important Notice

All Columbia records will play on Victor talking machines. Likewise all Columbia Grafonolas will play Victor records.

Columbia Records are Double-Disc. Each one has a record on both sides—front and back. The standard price is 85c, ranging up to $7.50.

Their reproducing qualities are superior, their life is longer than any other disc record, under any name, at any price.

You are going to own a Columbia Grafonola sooner or later. Perhaps you are wondering which one you would like best.

Any of the following dealers will be glad to deliver an instrument to your home, together with some records, and let you decide for yourself:

Columbia Graphophones, Grafonolas and Double-Disc Records can be obtained in Toronto from the following Dealers:

Adams Furniture Co., City Hall Sq. J. G. Abel, 24 Queen Street West. Boulevard Music Co., 251 Bloor Street West. Imperial Music Co., 261 Parliament Street. Musical Instruments, Limited, 313 Queen Street East. Parkdale Music Co., 1381 Queen St. W. Robt. Simpson Co., Limited, Music Department, Sixth Floor.

Dealers wanted where not already represented. Apply to the sole selling agents, MUSIC SUPPLY CO. (wholesale only), 88 Wellington Street West, Toronto.

TRACKING CRIME IN THE NORTHWEST

Royal Mounted Police Absolutely Fearless in Face of Odds.

If a murder is committed in an English or American city, remarks a writer in The Wide World Magazine, the whole police force and detective force of the place, numbering perhaps hundreds of men, are put into action. If a similar crime is committed in the Mackenzie River district, one man only is detailed to bring in the murderer; and in nine cases out of ten he does it. He is absolutely fearless in the face of odds, for only men of indomitable courage are recruited in the service.

From six months to a year is the time allowed for a "rookie" to prove himself. After the first year he becomes either a "reliable" or the Royal Mounted or a "discarded."

In the fifth month of his service a young smooth-faced "rookie" cornered three desperate cattle thieves in the Cypress Hills, east of Lethbridge, fought them to a standstill, and brought them into headquarters single-handed, one of them almost dead from wounds.

A little over a year later this same "rookie," whose name was Harry, was sent out after a man-killer with those words which are epic in the annals of the Royal Mounted: "Don't come back until you get him."

The writer met this man eight hundred miles north of civilization. He had been after his man for three months, and he was still after him. He followed his instructions to the letter. He did not come back until he got him; he took him seven months to do the job, and he traveled over two thousand miles.

freezing weather generally over the state is forecast for tomorrow morning. Snow began falling in Lethbridge.

HE FIRED A RIFLE IN THE BACK YARD

Shooting with a 22-calibre rifle a bottle on a fence at 151 Salmon avenue yesterday afternoon, Thomas Harlow of 1025 Gerrard street, missed his mark and instead the bullet buried itself in the shoulder of Adam Kelly, who, with two other men, was sitting in a field about 100 yards away. The accident happened about 2.30 o'clock.

Harlow was visiting Edward Ward, who lives at 151 Salmon street, and who has a few shots with the rifle. He was on the second or third shot that the men heard a cry from the field and rushed over to find Kelly shot in the shoulder.

Kelly was immediately attended to by a physician and proved to be seriously injured. He was able to get to his home. Harlow and Ward were taken to number 8 station, pending police investigation, but were shortly allowed to go.

SNOW DESCENDS ON BLUE GRASS STATE

Fail is Earliest Recorded in More Than Fifty Years.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 20.—(Can. Press).—A light fall of snow was recorded this morning in eastern and southern Kentucky. Trench reported a fall of two inches, and in several other places the ground was covered with one inch or more. The earliest fall of snow previously recorded in this state was October 27, nearly fifty years ago. There was a rapid fall in temperature tonight, and

ANOTHER CHANCE

Duplex Glasses Correct Failing Eyesight

OUR OFFER THIS WEEK—Optical specialists examine the eyes, our workmen make a pair of Duplex glasses, fitting them in our gold-filled frame. Our price for one week will be 98c.

DO NOT PUT IT OFF AGAIN

American System of Scientific Examinations Without Charge

UP-TO-DATE METHODS

PERFECT SATISFACTION GUARANTEED

CHILDREN'S EYES ESPECIALLY CARED FOR

UP-TO-DATE SPECIALISTS

DO NOT DESTROY YOUR EYESIGHT BY WEARING POOR GLASSES. WE ARE EXCLUSIVE EYE-SIGHT SPECIALISTS AND OPTICIANS.

OUR GUARANTEE

This is to certify that every pair of glasses purchased of us is fully guaranteed. We bond and bind ourselves to replace either lenses or frames should they fail to give entire satisfaction.

(Signed) Royal Opticians.

ROYAL OPTICIANS

PERMANENT LOCATION

7 RICHMOND EAST

The Exclusive Optical House.

Hours—9 to 7.30 p.m. Sat. till 9 p.m. Under House of Hobbies.

Prescriptions, Prismatic and Compound Lenses at greatly reduced rates.