Commercial Summary.

Look out for counterfeit American fifty-cent pieces, said to be in circulation in this city.The Halifax Bank, People's and Union Bank of Halifax, N.B., have each declared a half-yearly dividend of 3 per cent.Business in Guelph, Ont., is reported very quiet. The Guelph Herald is said to be involved in Chancery.The Allan Steamship Parisian made the shortest time on record, on her last ocean trip; she arrived at Moville last Saturday, occupying six days and fourteen hours coming from Rimouski.A REVISED statement of the assessment of the city of London, Ont., after passing the Court of Revision, shows: Real property $8,158,893, personal $1,336,922, income $910,628; total $10,406,443.The Ottawa boot and shoe firm of Messrs W. H. Butler & Son, Sparks Street, whose assignment was noticed in our issue of 23rd June last, have been granted an extension, and have resumed business.The Toronto Corn Exchange Association has elected Mr. McLaughlin to fill the place on the Board of Arbitration left vacant by the death of Mr. Worts.The London (Ont.) newspapers understand that "one of the oldest dry goods firms in the Province is about to retire, in order to embark extensively in the woollen manufacturing trade." Name, name!Geo. Fraser & Co., a retail grocer in a small way in this city, referred to last week, has been closed up for rent due to the amount of $250. It is stated that there were no outside liabilities, as he had always purchased for cash.A HAMILTON despatch says: Thos. Greening and Henry Dodderidge, treasurer and chairman of the committee of the iron moulder's picnic held here last week, are reported to have absconded with the funds, amounting to $500 over expenses. The Iron Moulders Union of Canada is reputed to be the most wealthy trades union on the continent, and probably the ab-sconders thought the organization could afford to lose a few hundred dollars, without asking any questions. Such a delusion should be quickly removed.
