POMPADOUR SILK ON MODISH FROCKS

Prettily Patterned Materials Combined With Velvet or Broadcloth.

REVERS AND GIRDLES

On Indoor Frocks Show Figured Silks in Soft Colors.

Pompadour silks in a charming array of delicate color combinations are being used with much success in trimming on numbers of the season's smartest frocks, street costumes and separate wraps. There is a tendency to brighten an otherwise quiet velvet or broadcloth creation by the introduction in the upper part of the costume of a harmonizing figured silk, which adds tone and distinction. Street suits very frequently exploit smartly faced revers or tiny vest sections of some gaily patterned pompadour, while quite a number of the most exclusive evening wraps display soft folds turned over as front facings, or bands applied above velvet collars.

The pompadour trimming, silks are dainty and soft in color effects—all the new tones being obtainable in charming patterns. A very chic little model in violet tinted velvet, showing a full skirt and uneven hem banded with sable, was remarkable for its quaint bodice arrangement. An under blouse portion of cream chiffon with long, full sleeves was cutted at the wrist with very narrow bands of the fur. A sleeveless jacket of violet pompadour silk, showing a tiny flower design in saffron and green, was worn over the chiffon, having fun in the revers and collar section, which was flatly pleated across the back.

With this stunning afternoon costume was worn a broad low sailor in silk velvet of the same shade, with a full mount of soft, tinted "parade" sweeping about the brim. One of the smart new leather handbags to match was carried mounted in oxidized silver.

On one-piece dresses pompadour silks are often used for girlish-pretty pleated effects, or awnings about the ends, lending the touch of color which marks all modish house dresses of the season.

What Dyspeptics Should Eat

Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble are nine times out of ten, due to acidity; therefore stomach sufferers should, whenever possible, avoid eating food that is acid in its nature, or which by chemical action in the stomach develops acidity. Those sufferers who have been obliged to exclude from their diet all starchy, sweet or fatty food, and are trying to keep up a miserable existence on gluten products, should try a meal of food or foods in moderate amount, taking immediately afterwards a teaspoonful of bisulphated magnesia in a little hot or cold water. This will neutralize any acid which may be present, or which may be formed, and instead of the usual feeling of uneasiness and fullness, you will find that your food agrees with you perfectly. Bisulphated magnesia is doubtless the best food corrective and antacid known. It has direct action on the stomach; but by neutralizing the acidity of the food contents, and thus removing the source of the acid irritation which inflames the delicate stomach lining, it does more than could possibly be done by any drug or medicine. Do not dose an inflamed and irritated stomach with drugs, but get rid of the acid—the cause of all the trouble. Get a little bisulphated magnesia from your druggist, eat what you want at your next meal, take some of the bisulphated magnesia as directed above, and note remarkable results.

THIS WEEK AT THE THEATRES

A Full House

The Alexandra Theatre will offer tonight the most brilliant and amusing farce of the season in "A Full House," which comes to Toronto direct from its successful New York run, and will offer fun in unlimited quantities thruout the week. Walter Jones is at the head of the splendid cast of comedians that Manager H. H. Frazer provides for "A Full House," and some of his notable assistant fun-makers include Josie Intropidi, Geo. Stuart Christie, Charles K. Gerrard and Edward Wade. There will be matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.

JOSIE INTROPIDI, Comedienne, in "A Full House," at the Alexandra.

Shea's

E. Frederick Hawley, assisted by Miss Frances Haight and an excellent supporting cast, will present the successful dramatic playlet, "The Bandit," as the special extra attraction of this week's bill. The Bell Family will offer their pleasing singing, dancing and instrumental melange as the headline attraction of the bill. The dainty singing comedienne, Marion Weeks, will sing among other songs the difficult "Doll Song," from the "Tales of Hoffman." Haydn, Borden and Haydn have a bright, snappy offering of comedy and song, while Ward, Bell and Ward will present a singing and dancing melange that is said to be very good. Leo Zarrell and company have an unusual "strong man" act, while Dupree and Dupree are two clever cyclists. The McIntosh and French in active service, also showing the war in general as it is being fought at the present time.

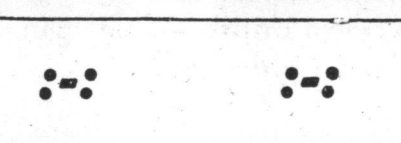

"BIRTH OF A NATION."

The new theatre act invented by David W. Griffith, in producing "The Birth of a Nation," which will be seen at the Alexandra Theatre next week, has enabled him to surpass by far any previous stage spectacular. "The Birth of a Nation" was supposed to be the high water mark of such productions. They sink into insignificance beside this wonderful drama, with its 6000 scenes, 15,000 characters, 3000 cavalry, 200,000 details and the result of eight months of tireless labor and the expenditure of half a million dollars. The great director is being repaid for his monumental effort in motion picture spectacles by "capacity" business at first-class prices in the principal theatres of the country.

Hippodrome

The headline attraction at the Hippodrome this week will be the Majestic Musical Four, a clever singing, dancing and instrumental quartet. Direct to the Hippodrome from London's music halls comes Harry Cutler, who has a refined monolog with new stories and some odd songs. He is reputed to be very clever. A special attraction on the bill will be the American singing comedienne, Evelyn Cunningham, offering the season's newest songs, with appropriate changes of costume. Kelly Brothers and company will offer their comedy play, "Fun in a Sporting Goods Store." Dunbar and Turner have a unique novelty entirely new to Hippodrome patrons, while Fawley and Hunt have a pleasing offering of Irish songs and dances. Hutchinson and Sadler will offer a laughable comedy playlet of merit, and with complete photo-plays and new film feature provide a splendid all-round bill.

Loew's

The big feature act of the bill at Loew's Theatre this week is the posing and diving novelty staged by John P. Conroy and his two lovely girl assistants with a stage setting of pretentious aquatic display costing $3500 to erect. This trio will give an exhibition that will delight the water sports in fancy diving. Other acts that will entertain are, Ethel Mae Hall and Company, in the screaming comedy playlet, "The Wrong Guy." Italian and Hayes, two clever comedians; McDonald Trio, wonderful cyclists; Morin, the ventriloquist; Marion Sisters, in song and dances and others, concluding with the "Defenders of Our Empire," a photo play in two parts, showing how airships and aeroplanes are used by British and French in active service, also showing the war in general as it is being fought at the present time.

Melba's Red Cross Concert

Mme. Nellie Melba, the greatest of living prima donnas, is coming to Toronto on Oct. 4 to do her bit for the empire. The bit constitutes a grand concert in Massey Hall, Mme. Melba's share of the proceeds being donated to the Canadian Red Cross. The diva, who possesses a patriotic spirit as big as any in the empire, in addition to her matchless voice, is even going to pay her own traveling expenses and those of her assisting artists. While in Toronto she will be the guest of Lady Hendrie at government house, and their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Duchess of Connaught are likely to come to Toronto to be present at the concert in person. In the realm of pure concert Melba has ruled the world for twenty years, and her recent series of concerts in Australia by which she raised the tremendous sum of £20,000 for the Belgian relief, Red Cross and allied funds demonstrated that she still retains her sovereignty. The seat emp for the Toronto concert opens at Massey Hall on Monday morning, Sept. 20.

HISTORIC FIGURE GONE FROM LIFE OF CANADA

Sir Robert Borden Pays Tribute to the Late Sir Charles De Boucherville

By a Staff Reporter. OTTAWA, Sept. 11.—The death of Sir Charles Boucherville, De Boucherville, said Sir Robert Borden today, "removes an historic figure from the public life of Canada. For more than half a century his name had been associated with public affairs. During all that period he has taken an active and effective interest in all that concerned the welfare of his country. His public career has always been above reproach, and he leaves a name and memory of which not only his relatives and friends but all Canada may well be proud."

Sporting Widows

There has been a marked improvement in the standard and quality of the burlesque shows which have been seen here in the past two seasons and the "Sporting Widows" Company, which comes to the Gayety for a week's engagement, commencing this afternoon, is said to surpass all of the burlesque efforts in point of staging and for scenic and electrical equipment.

This show is headed by John Lorenz and Eddie Fox, two of the most popular entertainers in burlesque's nightly realms and with a supporting company which includes such well-known players as Ruth Lockwood, Annie Mack, George Mack, Daisy Mayfair, V. P. Dusey, Dublin Bros., and Zenita, the show is certain of a warm reception here. In addition to a laughable musical revue entitled "Beauty Doctors," which is in two acts and several scenes, there will be a complete vaudeville olio of five separate headline specialties.

With the "Sporting Widows," at the Gayety.

With the "Auto Girls," at the Star Theatre.

Auto Girls

When Simonds and Lake's "Auto Girls" open at the popular Star Theatre, commencing with the matinee, today, the patrons are promised one of the fastest shows on the circuit. The "Auto Girls" break all speed limits when it comes to putting over the tangle of musical numbers. Featured with the show are Carol Schroder, Harry Seymour and Lake's friend in most too well known to need any introduction. The supporting company includes Jack Lewis, Smiling Rose Allen, Billy Hallman, Madeline Webb and George Walker. Special added feature with the "Auto Girls," is the three Bennett sisters, the "athletic girls" presenting their up-to-date novelty act entitled, "Twelve Minutes in the Gym."

"MARY FROM TIPPERARY."

A real war play fresh from England will be produced at the Grand Opera House, beginning Monday, Sept. 27, under the title of "Mary From Tipperary." Three companies of this successful war play are now touring England, and the play is said to contain more real war effects than any war drama written thus far. It takes us from Tipperary, where the boys are recruiting; to the signal tower on the Irish coast, then to the submarine base and to the Zeppelins and then to the trenches in Belgium, each scene having an exciting and thrilling scenic effect and giving a demonstration of the use of all the famous war weapons, such as the interior of the submarine, the gas bombs, the signal tower and the Zeppelins, etc. The engagement will be for the week only, with the usual matinees.
