

Title-page of Champlain's account of the savages of Canada. From the original in the New York Public Library, Lenox Branch	48
Paul de Chomedey, Sieur de Maisonneuve, first Governor of Montreal. From the engraving in Sulte's "Canadiens-Français"	53
François Xavier de Laval-Montmorenci, first Bishop of Quebec. From the original at Laval University, Quebec	53
Title-pages of three early descriptions of New France. From the very rare originals in the New York Public Library, Lenox Branch	60
Map of Canada, or New France, by N. Sanson, dated 1656. From the original copperplate in possession of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania	65
Jean Baptist de Lacroix Chevrières de Saint-Vallier, second Bishop of Quebec. From the original in the Hôtel Dieu, Quebec	69
Marie de la Incarnation. From the engraving by Edelinck, in the Ursuline Convent, Quebec	69
Documents signed by Philippe de Rigaud, Marquis de Vaudreuil, and by the Marquis Duquesne de Menneville. From the originals in possession of the Chicago Historical Society	76
Documents signed by Henri de Tonti and by François de la Forêt, La Salle's lieutenant. From the originals in possession of the Chicago Historical Society	81
Documents signed by François Bigot, by Father Claude Allouez, and by Louis Joliet. From the originals in possession of the Chicago Historical Society	85
Deed of grant to Michel Dizy, written and signed by Cavalier de la Salle, original in the Greffe d'Adhemar, November 2, 1683. In the Château de Ramezay, Montreal	92
Ostensorium, believed to have been that of Nicolas Perrot. From the original in possession of the Wisconsin Historical Society	96
Robert Cavalier, Sieur de la Salle. From an engraving after the Gravier portrait	101
Title-page of an early work relating to Hudson Bay. From the original in the Howard Memorial Library, New Orleans	108