

Railway.

TE.

Montreal

VEST

DAILY

MAIL LINE.

No. 6 Accom. with Sofa Car.	No. 8 Accom. with Sofa Car.
P. M.	P. M.
5	1 30
10	00
10	10
	M.
M.	A. M.
...	11 30
30	10 30

No. 7 Accom. with Sofa Car.	P. M.	A. M.
4.	...
...	9 00
M.	A. M.
10	1 25
20	3 10
35	6 00

Day.
Night Trains

ALS, ction
Railway.

OLDS,
ng Director.

INDEX.

LETTER I.

Page.

Leaving Ottawa—Montreal—General Neal Dow—Railway Travelling—Island Pond—
The "Barber"—Departure from Portland and arrival at Halifax, N.S., . . . . . 1-10

LETTER II.

The Passage between Portland and Halifax—Halifax in Winter—The Halifax Museum
—An Old Friend—The Citadel—The SS. Peruvian—New Passengers—The Juana
—The "Dismal Swamp"—On the Atlantic—Arrival at Liverpool. . . . . 10-16

LETTER III.

Funeral of Napoleon III—Two Friends—An Officer of the Imperial Guard—New York
Tribune's London Correspondent—Underground Railway—Hyde Park—The Serpentine—The Albert Memorial—Albert Hall—The South Kensington Museum—George Cruikshank—The Horse Guards—A Troop of Life Guards on the March. . . . . 16-25

LETTER IV.

London, Men, Women and Donkeys—The Tower—The "Beef-eaters"—Interior of the Tower, and who lived and died there—The Regatta—The Judges in England—
Roger Tichborne—The Houses of Parliament—The tombs of Dickens and Lytton, and the Statue of Palmerston in Westminster Abbey—St. Paul's Cathedral, the Crypt, Nelson and Wellington—A fog—The Middle Temple. . . . . 25-54

LETTER V.

The Grave of Oliver Goldsmith—A Call to the Bar—The Houses of Parliament—Lu-Lu, the Female Acrobat—A Fox that was a fox—Departure from London—Appeal from a horse—The Sydenham Crystal Palace—Liverpool, and "Holy Joe"— Lieut. Smith, R. N. R.—On sea once more. . . . . 34-41

LETTER VI.

My fellow passengers—Ireland at a distance—Sea Sickness—A kicking ship—Heavy weather—Church Service—Captain Dutton, R. N. R.—Thoughts at Sea—Cabin passengers feeding in an Allah Steamship—Lectures, Readings, Concerts, &c.—
The "dog-basket"—Genesis—Arrival at Portland. . . . . 39-46