NO. VIII.—Dated Carnew, August 26.

"My Dear Sir—This morning I set out for Dublin, to swear my answer to the amended Bill. I had a long conversation with HUNTER the other day. He said they would make it up on no terms, but only allowing me the £50 a year, and me paying off the costs, as he said if there was a settlement it could not be expected for them to pay their costs for coming on terms with them. I hope my letter to you on the Fair-day (18th) had the desired effect of pacifying your friends! HOLD FAST! but above all, hold no communication on the business with friend or foe!!! I hope Mrs. Burland is well, and the children on the recovery. I intend to distrain immediately after coming from Dublin! Ever sincerely your friend,

WM. GOWAN."

NO. IX.—Dated Carnew, September 7, 1825.

[From Same to Same.]

"My Dear Sir.—On Friday last, the 2d inst. I swore my answer to the amended Bill, and returned to Carnew about 10 o'clock on Saturday night. Mr. R. B. DOWSE, of South-Cumberland-street, came down on Saturday last also, by the Carlew Coach, to see the necessary arrangements made for me for distraining the Tenants of Ashwood. I know not the moment he, Mr. Dowse, and Mr. HOPE will be with me for to arrange every thing, and appoint a day for going to Ashwood, so that every thing is going on well respecting it. I saw Ogle, Wm. Lawless and Wm. Moore since; all of them seem determined to hold out to the last moment!!! I hope the letter I wrote you on the Fair-day answered the purpose it was intended for! I hope Mrs. Burland is well and the children on the recovery. Remember me to her. Mr. Bull has abandoned the idea of going to the North, or of setting on the "Armagh Moderator," for he has settled at, I believe, No. 46, Mary-street, and is at present living there. I was in the new house with him for a long time, he hopes to do well in it; he has been appointed Agent for an English Company, for the sale of English works. I have nothing more new at present, but remain, my dear sir, until death, your sincere friend,

WM. GOWAN."

"Mr. John Burland, Loggan."

NO. X.—Dated from Bergan-place, 5 o'clock.

OGLE R. GOWAN."

"Mr. John Burland, at Mr. G. Bull's,
53 Mary-street."

FO. XII.—Dated Bergan-place, Nov. 14, 1825.

"Dear Sir—I hope you will let me see you this day, at the ARCADE, at the hour of 4 o'clock precisely, as I wish to communicate to you something I have just heard. May I beg your attention as I will be punctual to the hour. Very sincerely your's,

OGLE R. GOWAN."
