tenderly, and very earnestly: "I car understand Bob now that I've seen you. You were just made to be loved as I know he loves you, my dear."

And to me, drawing me aside: "I told you yesterday your luck wouldn't last, boy. I take that back. I pray God it may; and that you may always be worthy of it. Good-bye, boy."

THE END

and the same of th

A STATE OF THE STA

tice of the second

to

ace

1

ng

bia

ki be

m,

py ny be se h-

he in

Ie nd ul er

ro id

n,