SIX IMMENSE FLOORS

There is a brilliant assemblage of fresh and attractive goods in our assortment of Home-Furnishings for immediate Fall shopping. Two ways they will make a strong appeal to you-by the charm of the goods themselves, by the remarkable littleness of price for goods so charming.

This point hardly needs emphasizing—for it is generally admitted by all who have troubled themselves to investigate—that this store stands distinctive as a store, meeting in completest manner the needs of the home-maker. The size of the store, with its six spacious floors and splendid appointments, suggests its capabilities. The floor space of the entire building is given up to the one business.

Whether one takes Linoleums and Oilcloths, as found in the large and well-lighted basement; Carpets as they meet you in such wonderful quantity on the main floor; Curtains, Draperies, Wall Coverings and Bric-a-brac as seen on the second floor, or the beautiful stock of the finest and most select in High-Grade Furniture on two large floors—wherever you go throughout the house the same impression of freshness, goodness and value makes itself felt.

This Fall, more than any other season, we have prepared for an extensive trade. Have we not the good news that the Ontario wheat crop runs some 8,000,000 bushels in excess of the crop of last year? And do not evidences of prosperity manifest themselves everywhere in the Dominion?

In all departments the goods, in many respects, will be marked by an exclusiveness of their own. We think it means a good deal to shoppers that they can have Home-Furnishings that are different to what they find in other stores which they may enter. This advantage comes to the shopper at Kay's, and with it always, owing to our immense purchasing power and great turn-over, prices that will bear comparison with the closest prices you know anywhere. These comparisons are being made every day. We encourage it and the gratifying part is that the comparisons bring the business to us-because goods and prices are alike favorable to the shopper. Some suggestive particulars from different departments:
