

Oak Hall Clothiers Is it to Be Something To Wear for the Boy?

You can afford to spend something for "trifles" and still have enough left to give that boy of yours a nice outfit of new clothes for a Christmas box if you select at Oak Hall stores from the

Half Price Specials
in Suits and Reefers that are "tabled" for quick clearing to-day and to-morrow—and here's a line or two to show you the trend of things:

Boys' Reefers
Heavy Frieze Reefers—big and little collars—all colors—tweed linings—splendidly made and finished—
Sizes 22 to 27 chest—regular 3.00 to 3.50—for..... 2.50
Sizes 28 to 33 chest—regular 4.50—for..... 3.25
Extra Fine Reefers—equal to custom tailoring—extra quality cloth—extra quality linings—extra well made..... 5.00 and 6.00

What's for Father or Brother?
A Smoking Jacket—A Dressing Gown—A House Coat—A Bath Robe..... 15 per cent. off these
At the Yonge Street Store Only.

A Comfortable Jacket at 35c and up to 1.50.
Ask to see "Way" Patent Jacket—35c.
A Nice Necktie—35c, 50c and 60c.
Half-dozen "Arrow" Brand Collars—1.00.
A pair of Silk Suspenders—75c up.

115 King E. OAK HALL CLOTHIERS 116 Yonge

HAMILTON NEWS

Remember, THE MORNING WORLD is Delivered to Any Address in Hamilton for 25 Cents a Month—Phone 1217.

TO-DAY IN HAMILTON.
Recruiting at Drill Hall, 10 a.m.
Municipal Council, 8 p.m.
Board of Education, 8 p.m.
Great Melburn, Hamilton, 8 p.m.
Association Hall, 8 p.m.
"Gay Paree Burlesques" at the Star Theatre, 8:15 p.m.
Conservative Club, 8 p.m.

POLICE INSPECT A RAFFLE
Temperance Hotel visited on Saturday Night and Names of Visitors Taken Down.

EX-ALD. DANIEL KELLY IS DEAD
Aged Man Found Dead in Bed—Mrs. Hunt Lones Five Dollars.

Hamilton, Dec. 22.—The police raided a big temperance hotel at the corner of King and Dundas streets, and found a list of names of visitors taken down.

Ex-Alld. Daniel Kelly, one of Hamilton's oldest citizens, died at his home, Main street and Erie avenue, this morning. He had been ill for some time. Deceased was 88 years of age, and carried on a real estate business for nearly fifty years. He was a member of the old Police Board in 1844. He leaves a widow, who is also aged; two sons and a daughter. His sons are: C. L. St. Louis, and L. St. Louis, South, Ont. His daughter, Mrs. Rodgers, resides at home.

Found Dead in Bed.
Arthur K. Boyle, aged 81 years, who resided on Barton street, near the Jockey Club road house, was found dead in bed this morning. Death was due to natural causes.

Ex-Alld. Daniel Kelly, one of Hamilton's oldest citizens, died at his home, Main street and Erie avenue, this morning.

He had been ill for some time. Deceased was 88 years of age, and carried on a real estate business for nearly fifty years. He was a member of the old Police Board in 1844. He leaves a widow, who is also aged; two sons and a daughter. His sons are: C. L. St. Louis, and L. St. Louis, South, Ont. His daughter, Mrs. Rodgers, resides at home.

Found Dead in Bed.
Arthur K. Boyle, aged 81 years, who resided on Barton street, near the Jockey Club road house, was found dead in bed this morning. Death was due to natural causes.

Ex-Alld. Daniel Kelly, one of Hamilton's oldest citizens, died at his home, Main street and Erie avenue, this morning.

He had been ill for some time. Deceased was 88 years of age, and carried on a real estate business for nearly fifty years. He was a member of the old Police Board in 1844. He leaves a widow, who is also aged; two sons and a daughter. His sons are: C. L. St. Louis, and L. St. Louis, South, Ont. His daughter, Mrs. Rodgers, resides at home.

Found Dead in Bed.
Arthur K. Boyle, aged 81 years, who resided on Barton street, near the Jockey Club road house, was found dead in bed this morning. Death was due to natural causes.

Ex-Alld. Daniel Kelly, one of Hamilton's oldest citizens, died at his home, Main street and Erie avenue, this morning.

He had been ill for some time. Deceased was 88 years of age, and carried on a real estate business for nearly fifty years. He was a member of the old Police Board in 1844. He leaves a widow, who is also aged; two sons and a daughter. His sons are: C. L. St. Louis, and L. St. Louis, South, Ont. His daughter, Mrs. Rodgers, resides at home.

Found Dead in Bed.
Arthur K. Boyle, aged 81 years, who resided on Barton street, near the Jockey Club road house, was found dead in bed this morning. Death was due to natural causes.

Ex-Alld. Daniel Kelly, one of Hamilton's oldest citizens, died at his home, Main street and Erie avenue, this morning.

He had been ill for some time. Deceased was 88 years of age, and carried on a real estate business for nearly fifty years. He was a member of the old Police Board in 1844. He leaves a widow, who is also aged; two sons and a daughter. His sons are: C. L. St. Louis, and L. St. Louis, South, Ont. His daughter, Mrs. Rodgers, resides at home.

Found Dead in Bed.
Arthur K. Boyle, aged 81 years, who resided on Barton street, near the Jockey Club road house, was found dead in bed this morning. Death was due to natural causes.

Ex-Alld. Daniel Kelly, one of Hamilton's oldest citizens, died at his home, Main street and Erie avenue, this morning.

He had been ill for some time. Deceased was 88 years of age, and carried on a real estate business for nearly fifty years. He was a member of the old Police Board in 1844. He leaves a widow, who is also aged; two sons and a daughter. His sons are: C. L. St. Louis, and L. St. Louis, South, Ont. His daughter, Mrs. Rodgers, resides at home.

Found Dead in Bed.
Arthur K. Boyle, aged 81 years, who resided on Barton street, near the Jockey Club road house, was found dead in bed this morning. Death was due to natural causes.

Ex-Alld. Daniel Kelly, one of Hamilton's oldest citizens, died at his home, Main street and Erie avenue, this morning.

He had been ill for some time. Deceased was 88 years of age, and carried on a real estate business for nearly fifty years. He was a member of the old Police Board in 1844. He leaves a widow, who is also aged; two sons and a daughter. His sons are: C. L. St. Louis, and L. St. Louis, South, Ont. His daughter, Mrs. Rodgers, resides at home.

Found Dead in Bed.
Arthur K. Boyle, aged 81 years, who resided on Barton street, near the Jockey Club road house, was found dead in bed this morning. Death was due to natural causes.

Ex-Alld. Daniel Kelly, one of Hamilton's oldest citizens, died at his home, Main street and Erie avenue, this morning.

He had been ill for some time. Deceased was 88 years of age, and carried on a real estate business for nearly fifty years. He was a member of the old Police Board in 1844. He leaves a widow, who is also aged; two sons and a daughter. His sons are: C. L. St. Louis, and L. St. Louis, South, Ont. His daughter, Mrs. Rodgers, resides at home.

Found Dead in Bed.
Arthur K. Boyle, aged 81 years, who resided on Barton street, near the Jockey Club road house, was found dead in bed this morning. Death was due to natural causes.

Ex-Alld. Daniel Kelly, one of Hamilton's oldest citizens, died at his home, Main street and Erie avenue, this morning.

He had been ill for some time. Deceased was 88 years of age, and carried on a real estate business for nearly fifty years. He was a member of the old Police Board in 1844. He leaves a widow, who is also aged; two sons and a daughter. His sons are: C. L. St. Louis, and L. St. Louis, South, Ont. His daughter, Mrs. Rodgers, resides at home.

Found Dead in Bed.
Arthur K. Boyle, aged 81 years, who resided on Barton street, near the Jockey Club road house, was found dead in bed this morning. Death was due to natural causes.

Ex-Alld. Daniel Kelly, one of Hamilton's oldest citizens, died at his home, Main street and Erie avenue, this morning.

He had been ill for some time. Deceased was 88 years of age, and carried on a real estate business for nearly fifty years. He was a member of the old Police Board in 1844. He leaves a widow, who is also aged; two sons and a daughter. His sons are: C. L. St. Louis, and L. St. Louis, South, Ont. His daughter, Mrs. Rodgers, resides at home.

Found Dead in Bed.
Arthur K. Boyle, aged 81 years, who resided on Barton street, near the Jockey Club road house, was found dead in bed this morning. Death was due to natural causes.

Ex-Alld. Daniel Kelly, one of Hamilton's oldest citizens, died at his home, Main street and Erie avenue, this morning.

He had been ill for some time. Deceased was 88 years of age, and carried on a real estate business for nearly fifty years. He was a member of the old Police Board in 1844. He leaves a widow, who is also aged; two sons and a daughter. His sons are: C. L. St. Louis, and L. St. Louis, South, Ont. His daughter, Mrs. Rodgers, resides at home.

Found Dead in Bed.
Arthur K. Boyle, aged 81 years, who resided on Barton street, near the Jockey Club road house, was found dead in bed this morning. Death was due to natural causes.

Ex-Alld. Daniel Kelly, one of Hamilton's oldest citizens, died at his home, Main street and Erie avenue, this morning.

He had been ill for some time. Deceased was 88 years of age, and carried on a real estate business for nearly fifty years. He was a member of the old Police Board in 1844. He leaves a widow, who is also aged; two sons and a daughter. His sons are: C. L. St. Louis, and L. St. Louis, South, Ont. His daughter, Mrs. Rodgers, resides at home.

DETAILS OF THE ATROCITIES

Major Young, R.F.A., Tells of Shooting of the Wounded at Brakenlaage.

STATEMENTS ARE NOT EXAGGERATED

Boer Commandants Unable to Repress Outrage and Murder by Their Followers.

London, Dec. 22.—The War Office has published a despatch from Lord Kitchener, containing serious charges against the Boers of cruelty to the wounded at Brakenlaage, the engagement in which Colonel Benson was killed.

Major N. E. Young, Royal Field Artillery, who saw the wounded officers and men by order of Lord Kitchener, states that out of a total of 147 wounded, 130 were left in the hands of the Boers. Of these, eighteen made no complaint, and in some cases spoke of actual kindness by the enemy. The remaining seventy-five complained of ill-treatment, and nearly all of robbery of money, watches and private papers. Major Young proceeds:

A very large proportion stated that the Boers had been treated in these cases where the leg had been broken this caused intense agony.

One man, Thomas Johnson, of the 10th Hussars, whose arm was shattered, suffered terrible pain from the way in which his hand was removed; his arm was since been changed to an old shirt.

Many had been deprived of other articles of clothing, hats, jackets and socks, in some cases being left with only a shirt, a watch and chain, and his warm jacket and shirt. The process of removing the arms was very painful, as he was shot in the chest.

Sergeant Kelly of the 7th Hussars, attached to the Scottish Horse, stated that after having been wounded in the head and arm, he was shot with his own carbine by the Boers, who were unable to raise his arms when ordered to do so.

There are two evidence. Private Prickett, King's Royal Rifle Corps, and Corporal Gower, 4th Battalion King's Royal Rifle Corps, 25th Mountain Infantry, to the fact that the Boers had killed the Boers of their corps was killed at five yards range, he had put up his hands in token of surrender, and was then shot.

This was a case of evidence that the wounded lying round the guns were fired on by Boers, who had been shot in the neighborhood of our side had been killed.

In this case a wounded man, a staff officer, who had been wounded in the head, was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

Such of the officers as fell into the hands of the Boers met with similar treatment. Lieut. Bircham, King's Royal Rifle Corps, informed me that while he was traveling in the King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, since deceased, he was shot in the chest, and his fingers had been shot away, states that he was ordered to show how to work the gun, but got off on representing that he could not stand.

MINISTER TO WITHDRAW.

Senor Portela Will Leave Chili on Wednesday for Argentina.

Buenos Ayres, Dec. 22.—Gen. Mitre, president of the boundary commission and former President of Argentina, will approve the resolution of the Argentine government to withdraw Senor Portela, the Argentine Minister to Chili.

The people are flocking to the public rifle ranges. Each citizen is allowed to shoot 25 cartridges from a Mauser rifle gratis. "Foreign legions" of soldiers are being organized.

The Buenos Ayres Herald expresses its approval of the recall of the Argentine Minister to Chili. The paper does not believe this step necessarily means war. It says, however, that the Argentine government could not have followed a more dignified course of action. The Herald speaks glowingly of the power and present state of organization of the Argentine navy.

Senor Concha Subercaseaux, the Chilean Minister here, had a conference yesterday evening with Gen. Mitre, President of Argentina. Gen. Mitre's demeanor to the Chilean Minister was cold, and he spoke with energy. The conference became a little violent in character. Gen. Mitre severely criticized the proceedings of the Chilean administration.

Senor Portela, Argentine Minister to Chili, will leave Wednesday for Buenos Ayres.

MORE GUARDS CALLED OUT.
Valparaiso, Dec. 22.—A proclamation was read today through Chili, calling out an other contingent of the National Guard.

WILL IT BE SPOKEN?
London, Dec. 22.—Commenting upon the Argentine-Chili trouble and the reference of the matter to the Argentine government, the Times says that it would assuredly be strongly supported from London, would almost certainly ensure a 14th vote in the House of Commons.

Times says: "We can hardly doubt that in some shape or other that word will be spoken."

SULTAN'S SLEUTHS BARRED.
Turkish Envoy Returns to Paris.

Paris, Dec. 22.—Munir Bey, the Turkish Ambassador, has returned to Paris, but the French government refuses to permit him to leave the city until the Argentine-Chili trouble is settled.

The French government refuses to permit him to leave the city until the Argentine-Chili trouble is settled. The French government refuses to permit him to leave the city until the Argentine-Chili trouble is settled.

The French government refuses to permit him to leave the city until the Argentine-Chili trouble is settled. The French government refuses to permit him to leave the city until the Argentine-Chili trouble is settled.

The French government refuses to permit him to leave the city until the Argentine-Chili trouble is settled. The French government