FRANCE'S RECOGNITION OF WRANGEL MAY RESULT IN BREACH WITH GT. BRITAIN

British Government Is Officially Notified of Action by French -King George Postpones Visit to Scotland Owing to the Serious Situation—Press Views New Developments with Consternation.

Paris, Aug. 12.—Great Britain has communicated officially with France with regard to the differences between the two governments, it develops from a statement made by the semi-official Havas Agency today. The statement says:

'The British charge d'affaires this morning brought to the general secretary of the ministry of foreign affairs a communication from the British Government. From the conversation engaged in between the charge and M. Paleologue (Maurice Paleologue, general secretary of the French foreign office), it developed that both governments are examining in the most friendly spirit the divergencies in views which have occurred between them, but which will not prevent them from continuing their friendly rela-

Premier Millerand, who arrived at Montdidier for luncheon today, on a trip he is making to the liberated region, was imme diately informed of the conversation.

London, Aug. 12.—Great Britain has been officially notified of the recognition by France of the government of Gen. Baron Wrangel as the de facto government of South Russia, and the question is being discussed between the two governments.

Something akin to consternatiaon is evinced by the evening Orangemen From All Parts of as the de facto government of South Russia, and the question is being discussed between the two governments.

Somthing akin to consternation is evinced by the evening newspapers, over the French action, which is characterized as contrary to British ideas and a menace to Entente relations. Meanwhile, King George, who was to leave for Scotland tomorrow, has postponed his trip owing to the situation.

ACTION COMES FROM PRESS

London, Aug. 12.—The announcement of the recognition by France of the Government of Gen. Baron Wrangel as the de facto Government in South Russia has stirred up a big sensation in the press.

Pending the unravelling of the mystery caused by the various contradictory statements in connection with the announcement, including Premier Lloyd George's denial of knowledge concernition and the control of the morning newspapers comment guardedly upon the event, although they don't conceal their disapprove of the recognition, declares the step was worthy of the French nature.
