KENILWORTH SECOND MEETING OPENS TODAY

Friendly Relations Now Existing With Devonshire-The Closing Clause.

Windsor, Oct. 13.-The second and final meet for Kenilworth will open this afternoon with upwards of 450 horses on hand to contest the purses. All the stables at Kenilworth are filled and some horsemen have taken accommodation at Devonshire track. Friendly relations exist between the two tracks, the hatchet having been buried and the wampum smoked. The Kenilworth management will give $00 and $300 purses, which make the purse large enough to interest the leading horsemen. Some strings of horses are coming from Laurel and Kentucky. Windsor is a sort of "half-way house" for the ponies. Trainers who have been campaigning in the east are shipping here for the Kenilworth and Devonshire meets, after which they will leave for the south to spend the winter. There will be no change in officials for the coming meet. The going will no doubt be heavy for the afternoon card, as it has rained here about twenty-four hours. If the weather clears previous to the going the track should be in good shape for Monday.

A brief meeting took place this morning between the horsemen and Kenilworth officials regarding the claiming clause, and at the suggestion of the horsemen the Kenilworth people issued a ruling that horses would be claimed for their entered price, plus the purse. stables at Kenilworth are filled and some

Two Are Willing to Guide Affairs of N. H. A.

Montreal, Oct. 13.4-The National Hockey Association need not go long without a president. Both Frank Robinson and Harvey Pulford, ex-player and referee, are willing to accept the job.

Major Robinson, recently back from Valcartier, has not been consulted about taking the position, he said today, but would not be unwilling to act. He believes that with improved management there is a chance for the N.H.A. to get along this season. "It must be conducted on a business basis," said Major Robinson. "Many of the players are getting more salary than they attract to the box offices, and this state of affairs cannot last."

Ottawa advices are that Harvey Pulford is willing to accept. "If the presidency of the National Hockey Association was offered me I would accept it on one condition only and that would be that every club was unanimous to my choice," Pulford said.

It is infunated that the only club that has not really expressed itself as favorable toward Pulford is the Ottawas, but that organization would no doubt fall in line with the other clubs, as Pulford's worth is well recognized in the capital.

tory. Ten dollars of the balance on hand was voted to the Canadian Red Cross. The selection of skips for the tankard and other matches was laid over until the curling season is on. Officers were elected, as follows: Inspector E. R. Rogers, Toronto, patron; Dr. W. M. English, president; Dr. P. MacNaughton, vice-president; L. Edmonds, secretary-treasurer; Dr. W. M. English and B. Way, representatives to Ontario Curling Association; Dr. MacNaughton and J. Ironside, auditors; J. Ironside, W. Burnell, D. Watt, L. Swayze, J. Fisher, with the president, vice-president and secretary, executive committee.

THESE ACTORS MUST HAVE FELT CRUSHED

Eddie, Cicotte, Sox pitcher and humorist, brought back a couple of stories from New York which he relates with great relish. One has to do with Lute Boone, who wore a Yankee uniform for a long time. Roone was playing third for New York and when he came to bat for the first time he swung viciously and fanned.

A party of actors in a boy not for form A party of actors in a box not far from the Yankee bench started joshing him as he walked back. One of them held up a tegmis racket and asked Boone if he didn't want to use it the next time. Boone scowled as the fans laughed, but Boone scowled as the fans laughed, but said nothing.

His next trip to the plate resulted in another strikeout for him. He was good and søre, especially when the actors got after him again. For the second time the tennis raquet was held up to his view and he was implored to try it. The Yankee gnashed his teeth, but held The Yankee gnashed his teeth, but held hingself in check.

It came his third trial, and he whifted once more. He turned like a flash end, brandishing his bat, sprinted over to the box where the actors were sitting. Every-body expected a fight. Manager Donovan and several of the Yankee players are out with the intention of graphing ran out, with the intention of grabbing Boone before he hurt a spectator.

The actors, shunning the anticipated plows—but not the publicity which might come to them-shrank back in their seats. Boone raised a threatened finger and in his high-pitched, shrill voice said: "If you don't like the way I play ball, you can go home!"

FRANK CHANCE MAY SUCCEED JOE TINKER

Change in Management of Chicago Cubs Expected and Demanded.

(By Bert E. Collyer of Collyer News-Bureau.) (By Bert E. Collyer of Collyer News Eureau.)

Chicago, Oct. 13.—Joe Tinker as manager of the Cubs will step down and out with the expiration of his contract on Jan. 1 of next year. The North Side Club will do its spring training for next season at Pasadena, California, and Frank Chance will be the one to whom the managerial reins will be entrusted.

Hundreds of rumors, reports and details will undoubtedly be circulated between this and the time set for these events to come to pass, but upon the authority of one of the most influential of the directors of the local National League team this is the program that has been decided upon and which will be carried out to the letter.

That Tinker was not summarily discharged at the meeting of the board of directors of the Cubs, held this week, was taken by many to indicate that Joe would be permitted to remain as manager for at least another season. That Tinker himself expressed satisfaction over the outcome of the meeting further strengthened this feeling. What the directors in fact-did do, however, was only to inform him that no immediate action would be taken to separate him from his job.

"Tinker is done as manager of the

would be taken to separate him from his job.

"Tinker is done as manager of the Cubs," said the director, who vouchsafed the above information. "The only thing that still stands between the team and Frank Chance is a slight difference in what we have offered him as manager and what he asks—and that will be sattisfactorily adjusted. It is not a question of whether Chance will do better or worse or even as good as Tinker. The situation demands a change. The faus are disgusted with the present outfit, especially after the four straight defeats in the city series, and the only way to awaken future interest is to put a new manager in charge and even change the entire personnal of the team if need be. The one object aimed at is to change the apathy of the Cub fans into one of rooting interest."

Royal Canadians and the 20th Century team from Hamilton play the return game for the inter-city championship at the Broadview Field this afternoon at three o'clock. Both teams will present their strongest line-ups, with Lutz or Muir doing the hurling for Hamilton, and Shaw behind the bat, the Royals using their clever twirler, Ramsay, with Woodley receiving. Pitcher Lutz of the Ambitious City team pitched a no-hit game in his last appearance, and has received several tempting offers to jump into higher company. He is also a star on the shares and other matches was laid to the canadian Red Cross. The selection of skips for the tankand the curling season is elected, as

CONCERNING THE HALF-MILERS.

An individual signing himself "Canadian" has sent two or three type-written communications to this paper concerning half-mile track racing. The World refused to print the first because the author did not show his identity, which was asked for and still refused, tho a bald card was forwarded with no address. This Canadian makes insunations and is likely an ordinary spineless individual. If he is not he is asked to call and see the sporting editor and state what are his objects or what his grievances. This paper's attitude towards the half-mile tracks is well known and cannot be affected by an anonymous contributor.

RED SOX CHAMPION ONE-RUN WINNERS

Boston baseball writers call the Red Sox the greatest "one run club" in history. They won 80 per cent. of their extra innings games during the regular 1916 season. They always had the pttcher who could outlast the other fellow until the break came in the Hub team's favor. favor.

After losing the first game of the 1915 world's series to Philadelphia, 2 to 1, the Sox have scored six straight triumpts over their rivals from the Tener circuit.

—Philadelphia and Brooklyn—by scores Finiadelphia and Brooklyn—by scores to 2 to 1, 2 to 1, 2 to 1, 5 to 4, 6 to 5 and again 2 to 1. Such consistency would prove a chain of one run victories is more than a coincidence. It is the Rel Sox system. It seems to work equally well in defeat.

IMITATIVE BALL PLAYERS.

Strange how imitative ball players are, and how, when a custom is once started among them, they stick to it thru all the years thereafter. Twenty years ago, or thereabouts, Roy Thomas, when he first joined the Philadelphia Club, came up to het wellige in a batterial. first joined the Philadelphia Club, came up to bat walking in a half-circle; going round the umpire instead of stepping straight up to the plate. Thomas said he believed that this was lucky. What was the result? Ninety per cent. of big league players proceeded to follow Thomas' lead and walk around the umpire—and 90 per cent. of them still do the self-same thing. They can't, in most cases, tell you why they do it or why they don't step straight up to the plate, but they make that half-circle round the umpire and they'll keep on doing in for endless years to come.

Players Get Cheques Foster Will Farm

Boston, Mass., Oct. 13.—Bill Carrigan nanager of the world's champion Red Sox, today received a cheque for $97. 156.47, the Boston players' share of the vorld's series melon.

Carrigan deposite the cheque made out twenty of his own to the players eligible, each man receiving $3826.25 The remainder of the Sox share was divided among the other five players, Wagner, Walsh, Pennock, Wyckoff and The "goose egg," George Foster, of the Red Sox staff, announced after he received his share that he was thru with aseball and would devote his time to his farm in Bokoshe, Oklahoma. President Lannin today flatly stated that there was no truth in the report that he was to sell the club. He refused to make any statement regarding the dismissal of Secretary Riley.

Under the apportionment decided upon by the players at a secret meeting, full shares of $3826.25 each were given 22 shares of $3826.25 each were given 22 players, including several who had figured but little in the team's success. The remainder of the $97,786.47 which the team won was given other substitutes and club employes. Heine Wagner and Vean Gregg received three-quarters of a share each; Wyckoff and Pennock divided one share, and Walsh, who came to the team only in the last month of the season, was allowed $1000.

The meeting of the players was marked by the farewell of Manager Wm. Carrigan to the team which he had piloted to world's honors in two successive years. He said he was "thri with baseball for all time." President Lannon, in bidding the players good-bye, however, said he was still hoping that Carrigan would return.

Some of the Red Sox started in their motors today for trips that will take them to hunting reserves in Canada.

Two Good Soccer Games on Today

Two good games of seccer are down for decision today in the second round of the Dunlop Shield competition. At the Sunderland Field Old Country will meet the league leaders, Uister, and it is whispered that the O.C.C. are going to have revenge for league defeats. At the Dunlop Field Overseas and Dunlops will meet and here again the unlikely might happen, as the Dunlops are good cup-fighters and are sanguine of success.

THE UMPS' NEAR BLUE SUIT.

When leaves are turning brown and serv and the grass has lost its sheen, Your coat puts forth its tend'rest hue and wears a sickly green;
When autumn harps upon the wind its solemncholy dirge,
It sounds the knell for summer and your fading suit of serge.

Within the sun the bleachers roar and take your name in vain And thru the shade the lusty fan in tone with might and main Yet mid the clamor you are deaf to what their will might be, Your trousers gleam defiance as you bawl your old "Strike Three!"

If some one now would start a pot to purchase you a suit,
There's little doubt you'd get the duds and find it easy fruit To show that I'm a sport alright, although I'm busted flat hereby pledge my word to put—a button in the hat. — By Kasper Bean.

Sammy Manson Will Play With Ottawa

Ottawa, Oct. 13.—Coach Shaughnessy, who is in charge of the 207th Battalion team at Rockcliffe, sprang another surprise on the railbirds this afternoon when ream at Rockelite, sprang another surprise on the railbirds this afternoon when Sammy Manson, the star centre half of last year's Hamilton Tiger team, turned out in uniform. It was announced that Manson would finish out the season with the 207th, and that he would play in the keystone position against the Queens team Saturday.

Manson is here, taking a course at the Rockeliffe School of Musketry. He is, therefore, qualified to play with the 207th. He consented today to help out, and his appearance made a big improvement in the work of the team. His punting was, of course, the feature. Manson has been nowing and is in the best of shape. He expects to be here for the balance of the football season, and should be a good drawing card for the 207th, particularly if they get into the final against his old team, the Hamilton Tigers.

Silver Quilty, formerly of the Ottawas, and Jack Lewis, the famous McGill outside wing, who recently returned from France after being wounded, will officiate in the match on Saturday.
