

DAY'S COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.

ESTABLISHED IN 1864.

No. 82 KING STREET EAST, TORONTO, ONTARIO,

(First Door East of the Wesleyan Book Room.)

DESIGN.—To prepare young men and young women for General Business.

Acknowledged by leading business men and educationists to be the most practical Business School in the Dominion. Unequalled for the thoroughness of its course and the efficiency of its graduates.

The COURSE OF INSTRUCTION comprises—The Science of Accounts and Business Practice, Commercial Law, Commercial Computations, English Grammar and Commercial Correspondence, Elocution, Phonography, Telegraphy, Lectures on General Commercial Subjects, and the French Language.

The PREPARATORY COURSE embraces—The usual English Branches (Grammar, Arithmetic, Geography, &c.), the Rudiments of Book-keeping, the French Language, Phonography and Lectures on General Commercial Subjects.

The COLLEGE COURSE comprises—The Science of Accounts and Business Practice, Elocution, the French Language, Phonography, Telegraphy, English Grammar and Composition, Business Penmanship, Commercial Law and Lectures on General Commercial Subjects.

SCHOLARSHIPS for the regular Book-keeping Course will be issued as heretofore, which entitle the Holder to Instruction in those Subjects embraced in that course, until thoroughly qualified, without regard to time. Students, however, to avail themselves of this privilege, must be well versed in English Grammar and Arithmetic.

Mr. DAY, the Principal, is assisted by Mr. J. Y. BETTS, Instructor in Accounts and Business Practice, who was for five years Book-keeper to Messrs. Moffatt, Murray & Co., of this City, and for thirteen years Book-keeper and Financial Manager to Messrs. Richard Juten & Co., of Hamilton; Mr. RICHARD LEWIS, Instructor in Elocution, Phonography and the English Language, and Mons. EMILE PERNET (Acting Lecturer in French, University College), as Instructor in the French Language.

The services of other gentlemen will be secured as occasion may require.
