Telephone 2326-11. 23925-8-9P. J. Veniot Exposes Cheap Plot of Stewart and Gleaner

To the Editor of the Times:

Sir—It has never been my practice to take much notice of the scurrilous articles that have appeared from time to time in the Fredericton Gleaner against me. The reputation won by the Gleaner for crookedness in dealing with public men was always considered by me to be sufficient answer to any and all of its ravings. But owing to the fact that I have been lately engaged in exposing graft on the part of some of the members of the legislature, the publication of that newspaper yesterday of a partial report of auditor of Bathurst school accounts, A. J. H. Stewart, M. P., might leave the impression, as no doubt was the intention, that there was something radically wrong with my finances as secretary of the school board, I deem it proper that I should lay the matter before the public exactly as it occurred.To the people of Bathurst and Glocester in country in general it would not be necessary that I should offer any explanations. I have lived among them for thirty years. They know A. J. H.
Stewart and they know P. J. Veniot.I have held many positions of trust in this county, and I am at all times willing that a comparison of my reputation with that of A. J. H. Stewart's be made.
I do not fear such a comparison and would be delighted to have any of that gentleman's friends undertake the task.Had the Gleaner published the full report, verbal as well as written, submitted to the public school meeting and to the board of trustees by Mr. Stewart, the public would have immediately seen that there was not the least reason for supposing that I had done anything wrong with the finances of the district.But such frankness is not a part of the Gleaner's circulation in this county.
Had Mr. Stewart brought these over by automobile instead of by express I would not have caught on to his game, but of course, I understand that automobiles are an expensive luxury, especially when squeezed into a corner.In conclusion I may say that I was ever so much inclined to dicker or juggle with the finances of the schools, I certainly would not attempt it knowing that Auditor Stewart was my most bitter political opponent and would be only too happy to catch me in any wrongdoing.P. J. VENIOT, Bathurst, July 29, 1915.As a proof of the desperate state of mind in which Mr. Stewart finds himself and feels that he must do something to temporarily, to deflect public attention from those scandalous Glocester revelations, I can inform the public that last night's express brought to Bathurst to his address large numbers of the Gleaner for circulation in this county.
