BIG OPPORTUNITY IS HERE TO DO A NOTABLE WORK Men are Asked to Join Rally and Help Save Lives of Babies. THE NEED IS GREAT Hear Noted Speaker and Help Fund—Women's Council Back of It.

Tomorrow comes the big opportunity for all to help swell The Times-Star fund to supply milk for needy babies. The opportunity is a double one, for it includes the advantage and pleasure of hearing a clever speaker on a subject of prime importance, and also of giving a little to make this fund grow to something like the figure it should have reached ere this.

It is hoped that the large theatre will be filled, and it is assured that all who attend will realize that they have spent a very profitable hour, and it is undoubted that they will have helped a very worthy cause.

It is All Free.

Mr. Hawk is giving his lecture entirely free. W. H. Goding, with his usual courtesy and community spirit, makes no charge whatever for the lecture. The Women's Council are strongly behind the movement, and The Times-Star is lending its assistance so that the babies may not want. The treasurer of The Times-Star babies' milk fund will be at the meeting and the money taken in the collection will be counted at once and handed to him.

EDWARD LEE HAWK

At the moment The Times-Star fund stands at $675.50. Amounts received since yesterday are: One Interested $5.00, Friend $1.00, Leta Harris $1.00, Friend $1.00, Friend $1.00, Friend $1.00. After tomorrow's meeting it should be above $1,000 and it is hoped the big audience expected will keep the objective in view.
