HER CASE SEEMED HOPELESS

But "Fruit-a-tives" Brought Health and Strength

29 St. Rose St., Montreal.

"I am writing you to tell you that I owe my life to "Fruit-a-tives." This medicine relieved me when I had given up hope of ever being well.

I was a terrible sufferer from Dyspepsia—had suffered for years; and nothing I took did me any good.

I read about "Fruit-a-tives" and tried them. After taking a few boxes, of this wonderful medicine made from fruit juices, I am now entirely well."

MAYOR DID NOT KISS MOVIE GIRL

Montreal, Dec. 7—Mayor Mederic Martin has requested the press of Montreal to deny that he was kissed by one of Marcus Loew's moving picture actresses to whom he extended an official civic welcome last month. It now appears that the story had its origin in the enterprise of a press agent.

The decrease represents a value of over $48,000,000 on the year's trade. The export figures for two years, reported by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, are given below:—

Bacon and Ham, 1919	208,906,088	lbs.
Bacon and Ham, 1920	148,674,000	lbs.
Pork, 1919	18,002,318	lbs.

Canned Meats, 1919	11,398,333	lbs.
Canned Meats, 1920	980,458	lbs.

There was an offset of rather less than a million dollars in the increase of "other meats" exported, a classification that includes game and poultry.

THE NEW MINISTER WELL PRESENTED

Society of Tens Show Dramatic and Musical Ability in Douglas Hall.

An excellent amateur production called "The New Minister" was presented under the auspices of the Society of Tens of the Douglas Avenue Christian church in Douglas Hall, Murray street, last night. Though the performers were all amateurs they acquitted themselves with distinction and deserve great credit for the way in which they took their parts, some of which were difficult of rendition.

The entertainment was essentially musical and fifteen musical numbers brought forth frequent and prolonged applause from an appreciative audience. The repeated calls for encores met with gracious response.

Henry McEachern, as the new minister, did ample justice to a role that called for fine interpretation, and he was ably supported by a cast that responded readily to every call made upon them. Altogether the entertainment was one which reflects great credit upon the organizers and performers. The plot was light and breezy and was well portrayed by an able and energetic cast. The play will be repeated tonight. The following took part: Henry McEachern, William McEachern, Olive Pugh, Gordon Henderson, Charles McEachern, J. L. Peverill, James McEachern, Merril Dykeman, Miss Hilda Williams, Mrs. F. Miller, Mrs. R. W. Pugh, John McEachern, Mrs. James McEachern, Mrs. W. Woods, Miss Gertrude Peterson, Miss Gladys Coleman, Miss Marion Hoyt, Miss Laura Hoyt, Mrs. S. Hines, Mrs. C. H. Coleman, Miss Viola Leggett, Miss Hazel Roberts, Miss Hilda Dykeman, Miss Annie Graves, Miss Verta Roberts.

Miss Edna Logan was accompanist.

C. H. Smythe presided at a mass meeting of Pythians last night to consider arrangements for the opening of the new castle in Union street.
